

UNITED NATIONS
Department of Public Information
Press and Publications Bureau
Lake Success, New York

Press Release SG/84
15 May 1950

SECRETARY-GENERAL ATTENDS MOSCOW LUNCHEON

(The following was received here from the UN Information Center in Moscow.)

Secretary-General Trygve Lie attended in Moscow at 11:00 a.m. local time today (Monday) a lunch given in his honor by Andrei Y. Vyshinsky, Soviet Foreign Minister. Among the guests were Constantin E. Zinchenko, UN Assistant Secretary-General in charge of Security Council Affairs, Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko, Arkady A. Sobolev, Mr. Zinchenko's predecessor as Assistant Secretary-General, Alexei N. Roschin, Chief of the United Nations Division in the Soviet Foreign Office, Fedor Molotchkov, Chief of Protocol of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Ivan Lobanov, Mr. Vyshinsky's assistant, Vsevolod Pastoev, an official of the Foreign Ministry Protocol Office, Michail S. Vavilov, Director of the United Nations Information Center in Moscow, Helge Akre, Norwegian Charge d'Affaires in the Soviet capital, Olav Rytter, Director of the United Nations Information Center in Prague, who accompanied Mr. Lie to Moscow, and Miss Ingrid Berntzen, Mr. Lie's private secretary. The luncheon lasted for an hour and a half.

Gunnar Myrdal, Executive Secretary of the United Nations Economic Commission for Europe (ECE), who has been in Moscow since 7 May, and his staff are leaving the Soviet capital by plane at 7:35 a.m. local time on Tuesday, 16 May, for Warsaw

# #