

Economic and Social Council

Distr.: General
28 November 2022

English only

Commission for Social Development

Sixty-first session

6–15 February 2023

Follow-up to the World Summit for Social Development and the twenty-fourth special session of the General Assembly: Priority Theme: Creating full and productive employment and decent work for all as a way of overcoming inequalities to accelerate the recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic and the full implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

Statement submitted by Pan Africa Girl Child Education Foundation, a non-governmental organization in consultative status with the Economic and Social Council*

The Secretary-General has received the following statement, which is being circulated in accordance with paragraphs 36 and 37 of Economic and Social Council resolution 1996/31.

* The present statement is issued without formal editing.

Statement

Follow-up to the World Summit for Social Development and the twenty-fourth special session of the General Assembly: Priority Theme: Creating full and productive employment and decent work for all as a way of overcoming inequalities to accelerate the recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic and the full implementation of the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development

The Pan Africa Girl Child Education Foundation, is a non-governmental Organization in Consultative Status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council. We are responding to the clarion call by the United Nations, through the Commission for Social Development to add our voice to the need for special focus on the very important aspect of humanity, which is dignity in labour.

Our Organization is in full support that, productive employment and decent work environment are the two key factors for the reduction or eradication of poverty the world over. Therefore, during the 61st Session for the Commission for Social Development, all stakeholders should be made to recommit themselves and ensure that the inequality and inhuman treatment by employers are adequately addressed.
