Macroeconomic policy questions: International Trade and Development

Spain:* amendment to draft resolution A/C.2/78/L.5/Rev.1

International trade and development

Replace operative paragraph 29 with the following:

Welcomes the commitments made in the context of the Paris Agreement and of the United Nations Framework Convention on Climate Change, and recognizes that the least developed countries need to receive assistance from their development partners and the international community to pursue their development goals and their climate-related commitments, and notes that the use of policy instruments for environmental purposes with potential impact on international trade can have unintended consequences for partner countries, especially the least developed countries, which need to be addressed to aid their pursuit of structural transformation and economic diversification;

* On behalf of the States Members of the United Nations that are members of the European Union.
