NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 97th plenary meeting of its thirty-seventh session, on 9 December 1982, the General Assembly adopted resolution 37/69 1/ on the item entitled, "Policies of apartheid of the Government of South Africa".

In paragraph 6 of resolution 37/69 A, the General Assembly

"Again urges the Security Council to determine that the situation in South Africa and in southern Africa as a whole, resulting from the policies and actions of the apartheid régime of South Africa, constitutes a grave and growing threat to international peace and security, and to impose comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against the régime under Chapter VII of the Charter".

In paragraph 11 of resolution 37/69 B, the General Assembly

"Invites the Security Council urgently to give thorough consideration to the ever-growing threat to the peace in southern Africa and to take effective measures under the Charter".

In paragraph 4 of resolution 37/69 C, the General Assembly

"Again requests the Security Council to consider action under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations towards comprehensive and mandatory sanctions against South Africa and, in particular, to take measures:

- (a) To monitor effectively and to reinforce the mandatory arms embargo against South Africa;
- (b) To prohibit all co-operation with South Africa in the military and nuclear fields;
- (c) To prohibit imports of any military equipment or components from South Africa;

(d) To prevent any co-operation or association with South Africa by any military alliances;

(e) To impose an effective embargo on the supply of oil and oil products to South Africa;

(f) To prohibit financial loans to and new investments in South Africa, as well as all promotion of trade with South Africa".

In paragraph 1 of resolution 37/69 D, the General Assembly

"Urges the Security Council to take mandatory decisions, under Chapter VII of the Charter of the United Nations, to ensure the total cessation of all co-operation with the racist régime of South Africa in military and nuclear fields by Governments, corporations, institutions and individuals".

In the operative paragraph of resolution 37/69 H, the General Assembly

"Again urges the Security Council to consider the matter at an early date with a view to taking effective steps to achieve the cessation of further foreign investments in, and financial loans to, South Africa".
