NOTE BY THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

At the 98th plenary meeting of its thirty-seventh session, on 9 December 1982, the General Assembly adopted resolution 37/74, entitled "Implementation of the Declaration on the Denuclearization of Africa". ^{1/} In paragraphs 4 and 5 of resolution 37/74 A, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council, for the purposes of disarmament, to take enforcement measures through strict adherence by all States to its relevant decisions to prevent any racist régimes from acquiring any arms or arms technology;

"Requests the Security Council in this connection to conclude expeditiously its consideration of the recommendations of the Committee established by resolution 421 (1977) concerning the question of South Africa with a view to blocking the existing loopholes in the arms embargo, rendering it more effective and prohibiting in particular all forms of co-operation and collaboration with the racist régime of South Africa in the nuclear field".

In paragraph 4 of resolution 37/74 B, the General Assembly

"Requests the Security Council, for the purposes of disarmament, to take enforcement measures, through strict adherence by all States to its relevant decisions, to prevent any racist régimes from acquiring arms or arms technology".
