1. Reiterates its call for the full and consistent implementation of the General Framework Agreement for Peace in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the annexes thereto (collectively the “Peace Agreement”)<sup>77</sup> and the Basic Agreement on the Region of Eastern Slavonia, Baranja and Western Sirmium (the “Basic Agreement”)<sup>78</sup> by all parties to those agreements;

8. Notes that varying degrees of progress have been made in the human rights situation in several areas, but that substantial efforts remain to be made;

I. Bosnia and Herzegovina

9. Notes the progress made in Bosnia and Herzegovina with regard to the increase of political pluralism and freedom of expression, through the participation of all groups and individuals, which represents another step towards democracy in Bosnia and Herzegovina, but remains concerned that freedom of speech and the media are still

14. Notes with satisfaction the decline in violence against returning refugees and displaced persons, while remaining concerned that all ethnic groups continue to report harassment;

15. Welcomes the adoption of a new criminal code and of codes of ethics by the judges and prosecutors of both entities, and the increased strength of the prosecutor's office of the Federation of Bosnia and Herzegovina as a result of laws imposed by the High Representative, but notes that the judicial processes still do not sufficiently protect the rights of the accused;

16. Notes that the decisions of the Human Rights Chamber are starting to be implemented, while reminding both State and entity-level governments to pay increased attention to decisions of the Chamber;

17. Calls upon the authorities of Bosnia and Herzegovina and, in particular, the authorities of the Republika Srpska to increase their cooperation with the Commission on Human Rights for Bosnia and Herzegovina (the "Commission"), to cooperate fully with the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and to intensify their efforts in this regard;

23. Notes the importance of the work of the human rights ombudsman in bringing to light many cases of human rights violations and in resolving several of them, and urges the authorities of Bosnia and Herzegovina to implement the recommendations;

24. Condemns recurrent instances of religious discrimination and violence and the denial to religious minorities of their rights to reclaim and rebuild their religious sites;

25. Expresses its concern that trafficking in women is a growing problem, and calls upon the authorities of Bosnia and Herzegovina to act vigorously to combat this;

36. Also notes the formal steps taken by the Republic of Croatia to guarantee the rights of persons belonging to minorities, and the ratification of the framework convention for the protection of national minorities and the European Charter for Regional Minority Languages, but continues to remind the Government of its primary responsibility to restore the multi-ethnic character of Croatia, in fact as well as in law, including the pledge to guarantee the representation of national minorities, including Serbs, at various levels of local, regional and national government;

42. Also demands that the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) immediately bring to justice any persons, in particular those of its personnel, who have authorized or engaged in breaches of international humanitarian law and violations of human rights, including summary executions, indiscriminate attacks on civilians, indiscriminate destruction of property, mass forced displacement of civilians, the taking of civilian hostages, torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment and, in this context, reminds the Government of the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia (Serbia and Montenegro) of its obligations to cooperate fully with the International Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights;
