International Law Commission

Seventy-fifth session

Geneva, 29 April–31 May and 1 July–2 August 2024

Sea-level rise in relation to international law

Additional paper to the second issues paper by Patrícia Galvão Teles and Juan José Ruda Santolaria, Co-Chairs of the Study Group on sea-level rise in relation to international law

Addendum

Selected bibliography related to (a) statehood issues and (b) issues related to the protection of persons affected by sea-level rise*

The subject of sea-level rise in relation to international law is an emerging area on which much continues to be written. The bibliography contained in the annex to the present document is not intended to be exhaustive. Some references are relevant to both sections.

* The selected bibliography expands upon the bibliography annexed to the syllabus on the topic “Sea-level rise in relation to international law” (see Report of the International Law Commission on the work of its seventieth session (2018), Official Records of the General Assembly, Seventy-third Session, Supplement No. 10 (A/73/10), annex B, pp. 331–334), as well as the selected bibliography related to statehood issues and issues related to the protection of persons affected by sea-level rise issued as an addendum to the second issues paper on the topic (A/CN.4/752/Add.1). It does not include all materials listed in the additional paper to the second issues paper prepared by the Co-Chairs of the Study Group (A/CN.4/774).

 Circulated in the language of submission only.
