SIXTH UNITED NATIONS
TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CONFERENCE

DRAFT FINAL ACT OF THE SIXTH UNITED NATIONS
TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE CONFERENCE

Note by the Secretary-General. For the convenience of delegations, the Secretary-General presents the following draft Final Act of the Conference.

1. At the request of the Negotiating Committee for Extra-Budgetary Funds, the Secretary-General, by a letter to the permanent delegations of Member States and to the representatives of non-Member States, dated 3 October 1955, convened the Sixth United Nations Technical Assistance Conference, at which Governments were asked to announce their contributions to the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance for the sixth financial period, 1 January - 31 December 1956.
2. The Sixth United Nations Technical Assistance Conference met at Headquarters on 26 October 1955. The Governments of the following States were represented at the Conference by delegations:

The following specialized agencies were represented:

3. The Conference noted with approval that the funds to be made available to the Expanded Programme of Technical Assistance during the sixth financial period of its operation will be allocated in accordance with the provisions of Economic and Social Council resolution 542 B II (XVIII).
4. The Conference also took account of the fact that several Governments were not in a position to announce contributions during the Conference but that they
