Agenda item 9

DRAFT PROGRAMME OF ACTION FOR THE SECOND HALF
OF THE UNITED NATIONS DECADE FOR WOMEN
(A/CONF.94/22 and Corr.1)

Supplementary comments from the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland

1. Para. 21: Add final sentence:

"conversely, high levels of unemployment in large sections of industry in the more developed countries (for both women and men) can often be caused by importing in bulk goods manufactured less expensively in developing countries."

2. Para. 27: Delete first sentence.

Delete "such" from second sentence.

3. Para. 29: Delete "most of them operated by transnational corporations" from first sentence.

4. Para. 32: Amend to read:

"The processes described above illustrate that some of the constraints to the economic participation of women in national development are affected by the pattern of international trade, although most factors are domestic."
