AMERIMENT TO THE UNITED STATES RESOLUTION REGARDING AN INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON TRADE AND IMPLOYMENT

1. The following paragraph to be included between points (ii) and (iii) of paragraph (b) of the United States resolution:

"Consideration of the special conditions which prevail in countries whose manufacturing industry is still in its initial stages of development, with the aim of securing the diversification of production and the access of workers to a higher salary level."

- 2. In paragraph (c) of the resolution increase from two to six the number of countries, represented on the Economic and Social Council, which are to be chosen by this Council to take part in the Proparatory Committee of the Conference.
- 3. Add a new paragraph, (e), to read as follows:

"Constitutes a sub-committee to study the effect produced by regulations concerning ceiling prices and state trading on the volume of international commerce as well as on the standard of living in the producer and consumer countries, including a study of the manner in which these regulations are applied both to foreign commodities and similar commodities of domestic production in different countries, The sub-committee should present a report to the trade conference to be considered as part of the agenda of the conference."
