8. At the 1st to [x] meetings, the Chair opened the floor for Member States to make substantive amendments and proposals relating to the draft text of the convention, which was projected on screen to reflect in real time the amendments and proposals made by Member States, following the groups of articles of the draft text of the convention contained in the annex to the methodology for conducting the work of the Ad Hoc Committee at its sixth session. Before the end of each day, the Chair provided to the plenary the draft text of the convention containing the comments that had been made by Member States on that day.

9. At the 10th and [x] meetings, the co-facilitators of the informal open-ended negotiations on article 2 (Use of terms) of the draft text of the convention made an oral report on the outcome of the co-facilitation process to the Ad Hoc Committee.

10. At the 10th and [x] meetings, the co-chairs of the informal open-ended meetings presented oral reports to the Ad Hoc Committee on the outcome of their discussions on group 4, containing articles 3, 17, 23, 35 and 61 of the draft text of the convention, which had been assigned to informal meetings by the Committee.

11. As the discussion at the plenary meetings advanced, the Chair announced that further discussions on certain groups of articles of the draft text of the convention would be held in informal consultations, which would be coordinated by Yamada Tetsuya (Japan) for group 5 (arts. 5 and 24), Phu Nguyen (Viet Nam) for group 6 (arts. 25–30), Terlumun George-Maria Tyendezwa (Nigeria) for group 7 (arts. 13–15), Pauline Yee (Singapore) for group 8 (arts. 11 and 12), Dan Rotenberg (European Union) for group 10 (art. 36), Aldana Rohr on behalf of Maria Melazza (Argentina) for group 11 (arts. 40 and 42–46) and Juan Manuel Gómez-Robledo (Mexico) for group 20 (arts. 59, 60 and 62–67).

12. At the [x] meeting, the above-mentioned coordinators presented oral reports on the outcomes of their respective informal discussions.

13. With the understanding that the Ad Hoc Committee would take a final decision on the draft text of the convention as a whole at its concluding session and that nothing was agreed until everything was agreed, the Committee agreed ad referendum on the following provisions of the draft text of the convention at its sixth session: article 1 (b); article 4; article 22, paragraph 1 (a) and (b), paragraph 2 (chapeau) and subparagraph (b), and paragraphs 5 and 6; article 31, paragraph 1 (chapeau), and paragraphs 2 to 7, 9 and 10; article 41, paragraph 4; article 42, paragraph 2 (a), (c), (d), (e), (f) and (g); article 43, paragraph 1; article 44, paragraph 2; article 47, paragraph 1 (c) and (e); article 49, paragraph 1 (b) and (c), and paragraph 2; article 50, paragraph 1 (a), and paragraphs 3, 4, 6 and 8 to 10; article 54, paragraph 3 (b), (d), (e) and (f); article 56, paragraph 2 (a) and (c), and paragraphs 3 and 5; article 57, paragraph 5 (chapeau) and subparagraphs (a) and (e), and paragraphs 7 and 8; article 58, paragraph 2 (b) and (c); article 59, paragraph 1; article 60, paragraph 2; article 61; article 62, paragraphs 1, 3 and 4; article 63; article 65, paragraphs 2 to 5; article 66, paragraphs 2 and 3; and article 67.

14. At the 19th meeting, the Chair of the Ad Hoc Committee recalled the road map and mode of work adopted at the first session of the Committee (A/AC.291/7, annex II) and the decision taken by the Committee at its fifth session to establish a language consistency group (A/AC.291/20, para. 63). The consistency group is composed of experts nominated by the following Member States: Argentina, Belarus, Burkina Faso, China, Côte d'Ivoire, Ecuador, France, Ghana, Jordan, Kazakhstan, Mexico, Russian Federation, Singapore, Sudan, United Kingdom, United States and Yemen. The group has been entrusted with reviewing and ensuring the consistency of articles agreed upon ad referendum by the Ad Hoc Committee in all six official languages of the United Nations during the sixth session.

15. In accordance with the methodology for conducting the work of the Committee at its sixth session, and as laid out in the information note on the consistency group circulated by the secretariat on behalf of the Chair on 29 March 2023, the consistency group considered articles that had been agreed upon ad referendum by the plenary. At the 19th meeting, the coordinator of the consistency group briefed the plenary on the work of the group. It had held two meetings during the sixth session and would continue its work on the provisions agreed upon ad referendum by the Committee during the sixth session. The group would also continue its work in virtual format during the intersessional period and would report on the outcome of its work to the Committee during the concluding session, to be held from 29 January to 9 February 2024.

16. The status of the negotiations, including on the provisions on which agreement was reached ad referendum and the Chair's compromise text on the provisions on which agreement was still outstanding, will be reflected in a document to be prepared by the Chair, with the assistance of the Secretariat, in advance of the concluding session, as provided for in the methodology for conducting the work of the sixth session.
