Comments of the Government

(Communication dated 10 January 1961)

"... in view of certain manifestations of racial prejudice which have occurred recently in Chile in which the United States citizen Horace Sherman Miller and persons of Chilean nationality appear to be implicated, the [Chilean] authorities have duly investigated the incidents in question with a view to punishing those responsible in the manner prescribed by law."

Comments of the Government

(Communication dated 26 January 1961)

"1. Our policy is that we are friendly to those who befriend us and hostile to those who are hostile to us, and zionism is a political conception which intends to harm the interests of our country.
