

General Assembly

Distr.: Limited

1 April 2025

Original: English

Human Rights Council

Fifty-eighth session

24 February–4 April 2025

Agenda item 4

Human rights situations that require the Council's attention

Albania, Andorra,* Australia,* Austria,* Belgium, Bulgaria, Canada,* Costa Rica, Croatia,* Cyprus, Czechia, Denmark,* Estonia,* Finland,* France, Germany, Greece,* Hungary,* Iceland, Ireland,* Italy,* Japan, Latvia,* Liechtenstein,* Lithuania,* Luxembourg,* Malta,* Monaco,* Montenegro,* Netherlands (Kingdom of the), New Zealand,* North Macedonia, Norway,* Poland,* Portugal,* Republic of Moldova,* Romania, San Marino,* Slovakia,* Slovenia,* Spain, Sweden,* Switzerland, Ukraine* and United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland*: revised draft resolution

58/... Situation of human rights in Myanmar

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Covenants on Human Rights, and reaffirming all relevant General Assembly and Human Rights Council resolutions and decisions on the situation of human rights in Myanmar,

Recalling Security Council resolution 2669 (2022) of 21 December 2022, the Security Council statements on Myanmar of 4 February, 10 November, 8 December and 29 December 2021 and of 2 February 2022, the statement by the President of the Security Council on Myanmar of 10 March 2021, the meetings of the Security Council held on 2 February and 5 March 2021 and the briefing convened by the General Assembly with the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General on Myanmar on 16 March 2023,

Reaffirming its commitment to the sovereignty, political independence, territorial integrity and unity of Myanmar,

Condemning in the strongest terms the military coup by the Myanmar military on 1 February 2021 and the continuation of the state of emergency, including the extension on 31 January 2025, the declaration of martial law and its expansions throughout 2023 and 2024, the suspension of the parliament and the arbitrary detention, arrest and politically motivated conviction and sentencing of President Win Myint, State Counsellor Aung San Suu Kyi, other government officials and politicians, human rights defenders, trade union leaders and members, journalists, civil society members, local and foreign advisers, religious leaders and many others,

Expressing its deep concern at the reported sharp rise in serious human rights violations since the military coup and the declaration and subsequent extensions of the state of emergency by the Myanmar military, which pose further serious challenges to the voluntary, safe, dignified and sustainable return of all displaced persons, including Rohingya,

* State not a member of the Human Rights Council.

Condemning in the strongest terms the arbitrary detention, arrest and politically motivated convictions, sentencing and executions, including of pro-democracy activists, as well as violent acts, including extrajudicial killings, systematic sexual and gender-based violence and torture, committed against civilians, including health-care workers, children, teachers, students, lawyers, artists, journalists, human rights defenders and many others, which exacerbate the polarization and violence and worsen the humanitarian crisis in the country,

Expressing deep concern at the ongoing use of violence and the continuing escalation of the conflict by the Myanmar military, which seriously undermine the enjoyment of human rights of individuals in Myanmar, especially those of women, children and older persons, as well as those of persons belonging to ethnic and religious minorities, including Rohingya, owing to the heavy militarization of Myanmar, aggravated by the continued access of the Myanmar military to arms, and at the deaths and many injuries as a consequence of the increase in the indiscriminate use of lethal force against civilians by the Myanmar military and police,

Underlining the need to uphold the rule of law and human rights, and stressing the importance of accountability, justice and ending the culture of impunity,

Expressing alarm at the continued restrictions and attacks on medical and humanitarian personnel, on medical facilities and on transport and equipment, and at the lack of humanitarian access, in particular to areas with internally displaced persons and to the affected areas from which many people continue to be displaced and many people, in particular women and children, are at risk of trafficking in persons, and in which many others are living in precarious conditions, thereby exacerbating the humanitarian crisis,

Urging all parties, in particular the Myanmar military, to abide by international law, including international human rights law and international humanitarian law, and to allow and facilitate safe, timely and unimpeded humanitarian access across the entire country for local and international staff of humanitarian and other relevant international and local agencies to provide humanitarian assistance independently, neutrally and impartially to all persons in need, in particular to persons displaced by the conflict,

Recognizing the complementary and mutually reinforcing work of the United Nations system, including the various United Nations mandate holders working on Myanmar, to improve the humanitarian situation and the situation of human rights in the country,

Expressing deep concern at the harassment and targeting by the Myanmar military of Myanmar citizens abroad for exercising their right to freedom of expression, including the cancelling of passports, surveillance, harassment and threats, including to family members remaining in Myanmar,

Expressing deep concern also at the restrictions on, attacks against and harassment of journalists and other media workers, including arbitrary arrests, enforced disappearance, torture and other ill-treatment, killings and surveillance, and Internet shutdowns and other restrictions on and interruptions to the Internet and social media, including the amendment to the law on television and radio broadcasting, and the introduction by the Myanmar military of a so-called cybersecurity law, which unnecessarily and disproportionately restricts the right to freedom of opinion and expression, including the freedom to seek, receive and impart information, the right to freedom of peaceful assembly and association and the right to privacy, as set forth in article 12 of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and article 17 of the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights,

Expressing deep concern further at the increasing military build-up and use of military force between the Myanmar military and other armed groups throughout the country, which is making de-escalation and the provision of humanitarian assistance even more challenging,

Expressing grave concern at the increased use of violence and increasing violations of international humanitarian law by the Myanmar military against civilians, including airstrikes killing civilians and destroying civilian infrastructure, at indiscriminate airstrikes, at the burning of villages, at the continuing forced displacement of civilians, including of ethnic and religious minorities, at violations involving the use of facilities functioning as schools, hospitals and houses of worship for military purposes, at the use of landmines, at increasing violations and abuses of human rights in conflict settings, including abductions, arbitrary detentions, arrests and killings, sexual and gender-based violence and grave violations and abuses against children, and at the enduring impunity that exists in Myanmar, particularly in the Myanmar military and security forces,

Reiterating the obligation of Myanmar to respect, protect and fulfil the rights of the child in accordance with its obligations under the Convention on the Rights of the Child, including the right to education and the right to the enjoyment of the highest attainable standard of health, expressing alarm that children continue to be subjected to the six grave violations against children during armed conflict and that the scale and recurrent nature of such violations and abuses will affect generations to come, and calling on all parties to the conflict to engage with the United Nations on action plans to end and prevent grave violations committed against children,

Reiterating also the responsibility of the Myanmar military to protect and respect the human rights of all persons in Myanmar, including persons belonging to ethnic, religious and other minorities, including Rohingya, and reiterating the urgent need to undertake a full, transparent, impartial and independent investigation into all reports of violations and abuses of international human rights law, violations of international humanitarian law and crimes under international law, to ensure that perpetrators are held accountable in fair, independent and impartial criminal proceedings, including in domestic courts or tribunals, in accordance with international law standards, and to ensure that victims, survivors and their families have access to effective remedy, including by prompt, effective and independent casualty recording and guarantees of non-recurrence,

Expressing grave concern at reports of alarming numbers of deaths in detention due to torture, ill-treatment and inadequate access to medical care,

Reiterating its grave concern over the impact of the enactment of the 1982 Citizenship Law on Rohingya, who were in effect made stateless and dispossessed from previously held rights, and reaffirming that the denial of their citizenship status and related rights, including voting rights, is a serious human rights concern,

Expressing grave concern at the enforcement by the Myanmar military on 10 February 2024 of forced conscription of men aged 18 to 35 years and women aged 18 to 27 years, which has led to forced recruitment, including of Rohingya, and is impacting the civilian population and is causing increased instability in Myanmar and across the region and an increase in the numbers of internally displaced persons and of refugees in neighbouring countries and Rohingya-hosting countries,

Expressing alarm at the violations and abuses occurring in the framework of transnational crimes, including drug trafficking, trafficking in persons and scam operations, victims and survivors of which face a range of serious violations and abuses, including threats to their safety and security, and many of whom have reportedly been subjected to torture and cruel, inhuman and degrading treatment or punishment, arbitrary detention, sexual and gender-based violence, forced labour and other human rights abuses,

Expressing deep concern at the Myanmar military's exploitation of the country's natural resources for personal gain and to fund its military activities and human rights violations and abuses, also increasing the climate vulnerability of the people of Myanmar, and recalling the recommendation made by the independent international fact-finding mission on Myanmar that no business enterprise active in Myanmar or trading with or investing in businesses in Myanmar should enter into or remain in a business relationship of any kind with the security forces of Myanmar, in particular the Myanmar military, or any enterprise owned or controlled by them, including subsidiaries, or their individual members, until and unless they are restructured and transformed,

Expressing deep concern also at the restrictions on civil society and labour union members and at the targeting of trade union leaders and members for exercising their right to freedom of association, including through the use of arbitrary arrests, detention, torture, intimidation, the surveillance of workers negotiating wage increases and the deprivation of basic civil liberties, due legal process and institutional recourse,

Recognizing that increased crime and corruption in Myanmar impact safety and stability in and beyond the wider South-East Asian region, and that Myanmar remains the world's main producer of opium and one of the world's biggest manufacturers of synthetic drugs,

Noting the decision by the Governing Body of the International Labour Organization to place on the agenda of the 113th session of the International Labour Conference, to be held from 2 to 13 June 2025, an item concerning measures to secure compliance by Myanmar with the recommendations of the Commission of Inquiry,

Commending the ongoing humanitarian efforts and commitments that the Government of Bangladesh, in cooperation with United Nations agencies and the international community, including all humanitarian actors, extended to those fleeing human rights violations and abuses in Myanmar in 2016 and 2017, and the memorandum of understanding between the Government of Bangladesh and the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees to provide humanitarian assistance to the Rohingya relocated to Bhashan Char,

Recognizing the extensive investments that the Government of Bangladesh has made in Bhasan Char and Cox's Bazar, including in facilities and infrastructure, and welcoming further efforts to facilitate access to work and livelihood opportunities, while noting the importance of efforts to ensure the sustainability of the response to the humanitarian crisis,

Expressing deep concern at the cross-border effect of the actions of the Myanmar military, which have reportedly caused deaths and damage to property in Bangladesh and other neighbouring countries, impacting the enjoyment of human rights,

Expressing grave concern over the ongoing conflict in Rakhine State, which has compelled tens of thousands of Rohingya to flee to Bangladesh and thousands to other countries of the region,

Expressing deep concern at the inadequate and ever-decreasing international financial support for the Rohingya temporarily sheltered in Bangladesh, which may lead to the continued reduction in food aid by the World Food Programme, down from 12 to 6 United States dollars for the monthly food ration per person, severely affecting the capacity to ensure the bare minimum food and nutrition requirement for Rohingya, in particular women and children, noting with grave concern that the gap between humanitarian needs and funding continues to grow, recalling in this context the need for more burden- and responsibility-sharing, in this regard urging the international community to undertake immediate action to expeditiously address the problem, and encouraging States and other actors to consider efforts to ensure the sustainability of funding and to leverage the Global Refugee Forum 2023 and its follow-up processes to demonstrate commitment to easing the pressure on the host countries and working towards sustainable solutions,

Expressing alarm over reports of radicalization, militarization and forced recruitment, which may lead to increased intercommunal violence and negatively affect the safety of civilians,

Expressing gratitude to the Government of Bangladesh for facilitating the visits of various officials, including the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar, the Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar, the Prosecutor of the International Criminal Court and the Secretary-General, as well as to other Governments that facilitated such visits, and underlining that such visits contribute to ensuring justice and accountability,

Reiterating the urgent need for justice and accountability and to end impunity for all violations and abuses of human rights and violations of international humanitarian law by ensuring that all those responsible for crimes relating to these violations and abuses throughout Myanmar are held to account through credible, competent and independent national or international criminal justice mechanisms, noting the important role that the International Criminal Court can play in this regard, while recalling the authority of the Security Council to refer the situation in Myanmar to the International Criminal Court, reiterating its invitation to Myanmar to become a party to the Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court or to accept the exercise of jurisdiction of the Court in accordance with article 12 (3) of the Rome Statute, and acknowledging the National Unity Government's commitment in that regard,

Recognizing that the International Criminal Court has authorized an investigation into alleged crimes within the Court's jurisdiction relating to the situation in Bangladesh and Myanmar, and noting the filing on 27 November 2024 by its Prosecutor of an application for a warrant of arrest based on the conclusion by the Office of the Prosecutor that there are reasonable grounds to believe that Min Aung Hlaing bears criminal responsibility for the crimes against humanity of deportation and persecution of Rohingya committed in Myanmar and in part in Bangladesh,

Recalling the order of the International Court of Justice of 23 January 2020 in the case lodged by the Gambia against Myanmar on the application of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, in which the Court concluded that, prima facie, it had jurisdiction to deal with the case, found that the Rohingya in Myanmar appeared to constitute a "protected group" within the meaning of article 2 of the Convention and that there was a real and imminent risk of irreparable prejudice to the rights of the Rohingya in Myanmar, and indicated provisional measures, welcoming the order of the Court of 22 July 2022 in which it rejected the preliminary objections of Myanmar and found the application of the Gambia to be admissible, and welcoming also in this regard the funds contributed by a number of States members of the Organization of Islamic Cooperation and the engagement of other States to back the ongoing proceedings,

Noting the issuance by an Argentinian court, on 14 February 2025, under the principle of universal jurisdiction, of international arrest warrants for the alleged perpetrators of the crimes committed against Rohingya, and welcoming the steps taken by Member States to investigate and prosecute in national courts, under the principle of universal jurisdiction, the most serious crimes under international law committed in Myanmar, as an important contribution to ending impunity and ensuring justice for victims and survivors,

Recalling that the Independent Commission of Enquiry established by the Government of Myanmar on 30 July 2018, notwithstanding the limitations of its terms of reference and modus operandi, recognized in the executive summary of its final report that war crimes, serious human rights violations and violations of domestic law had been committed and that there were reasonable grounds to believe that members of the Myanmar security forces were involved,

Welcoming the work of the Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar to collect, consolidate, preserve and analyse evidence of the most serious international crimes and violations of international law committed in Myanmar since 2011, making use of, among other things, the information handed over by the independent international fact-finding mission, and to prepare files in order to facilitate and expedite fair and independent criminal proceedings, in accordance with international law standards, in national, regional or international courts or tribunals that have, or may in the future have, jurisdiction over these crimes, in accordance with international law, welcoming also the reports of the Mechanism, encouraging the Mechanism to continue its efforts to extend its public outreach in order to explain its mandate and work process to victims and survivors and other stakeholders, and encouraging all States, including Myanmar and its neighbours, to cooperate with and allow access to the Mechanism to carry out its mandated activities and respond to its requests for information,

Welcoming also the work and the reports of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar, while deeply regretting the continued non-cooperation of the Myanmar military with the Special Rapporteur and the denial of access to Myanmar since December 2017,

Welcoming further the reports of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on the situation of human rights in Myanmar, including the report containing an examination of the impact of the crisis in Myanmar on the mental health of the population and of good practices in the provision of mental health services by civil society and community-based organizations,¹

Welcoming the initial activities carried out by the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General on Myanmar, and encouraging her further engagement and dialogue, involving all relevant national and regional stakeholders,

Welcoming also the request by the General Assembly in its resolution 79/182 of 17 December 2024 that the Secretary-General develop a strategy for the engagement of the United Nations in Myanmar and identify ways in which the existing mandates can more effectively deliver in their respective areas of responsibility concerning Myanmar and can complement each other's work through enhanced coordination,

Recognizing the crucial role of civil society in highlighting the most serious violations and abuses of human rights and violations of international humanitarian law in Myanmar, as relevant, and expressing concern at the continued attempts by the Myanmar military to restrict civic space, including through the so-called Organization Registration Law, which unnecessarily and disproportionately affect the right to freedom of association,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 75/287 of 18 June 2021, and expressing deep concern that the sale, diversion and unregulated or illicit transfer of arms and jet fuel increase the ability of the Myanmar military to commit serious violations, including attacks against civilians and civilian infrastructure, disregard international law and seriously undermine the enjoyment of human rights, especially those of women, as well as those of persons belonging to minorities, including Rohingya, children, older persons, persons with disabilities and other persons in vulnerable situations,

Emphasizing the importance of supporting women's leadership and full, equal, meaningful and safe participation in inclusive State-building and nation-building, especially by amplifying their potential in Myanmar as multipliers of peace and promoting social cohesion across different ethnic and religious communities, as well as the leadership of youth and persons with disabilities,

Recalling as an important first step the pronouncements of the National Unity Government articulated in the "Policy position on the Rohingya in Rakhine State" released on 3 June 2021, its recognition that Rohingya are entitled to citizenship as articulated, in particular its acceptance of the final recommendation of the Advisory Commission on Rakhine State, chaired by Kofi Annan, and its commitment to a new citizenship act to replace the 1982 Citizenship Law, welcoming the subsequent pledges to dismantle the discriminatory legal framework that has enabled human rights violations against Rohingya and other minorities, and encouraging the National Unity Government to provide updates in this regard, delineating its plan for the implementation of the final recommendations of the Advisory Commission,

Expressing its full support for the central role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations in facilitating a peaceful solution in accordance with the will and the interest of the people of Myanmar and in facilitating constructive and inclusive dialogue among all parties, including the National Unity Government, ethnic organizations and broader civil society, and recognizing the progress of the provision of humanitarian assistance by the Association,

Welcoming the Association of Southeast Asian Nations Leaders' review of and decision on the implementation of the five-point consensus, adopted at the forty-fourth summit of the Association, held on 9 October 2024, in which they denounced the continued acts of violence against civilians in Myanmar and urged the armed forces in particular and all related parties concerned to de-escalate violence and stop targeted attacks on civilians, and public facilities,

Welcoming also the appointment of the new Special Envoy of the Chair of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations on Myanmar and his efforts to address the crisis in Myanmar,

¹ A/HRC/57/56.

Underscoring the need to address the root causes of the crisis in Rakhine State and to create the conditions necessary for the voluntary, safe, dignified and sustainable return of Rohingya refugees and internally displaced persons, which constitutes a crucial element of the solution of the crisis, encouraging diplomatic efforts among all parties concerned to help to address the issues facing Rohingya, and stressing the importance of providing continued protection and assistance to refugees and displaced persons,

1. Condemns in the strongest terms all violations and abuses of human rights committed by all parties against civilians in Myanmar, including Rohingya and other minorities, before and after the military coup and the declaration of the state of emergency on 1 February 2021;

2. Also condemns in the strongest terms the military coup carried out in Myanmar and the deposition of the elected civilian Government by the Myanmar military on 1 February 2021, which constitutes an unacceptable attempt to forcibly overturn the results of the general elections of 8 November 2020, a halt in the democratic transition of Myanmar and a serious threat to the respect for and protection of human rights, the rule of law and good governance and democratic principles;

3. Recalls Security Council resolution 2669 (2022), in which the Council demanded an immediate end to all forms of violence, urged all parties to respect human rights, reiterated its call to uphold democratic institutions and processes in accordance with the will and interests of the people of Myanmar, urged the Myanmar military to immediately release all arbitrarily detained prisoners, including President Win Myint and State Counsellor Aung San Suu Kyi, and called for concrete and immediate action, noting the military's commitments to the leaders of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations to effectively and fully implement the five-point consensus reached at the Leaders' Meeting of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations held on 24 April 2021, and expresses deep concern over the lack of progress in its implementation by the Myanmar military;

4. Reiterates its full support for the people of Myanmar and their aspirations for democracy and a civilian government;

5. Condemns unequivocally all executions of political prisoners, and calls upon the Myanmar military to immediately cease and refrain from all other use of the death penalty contrary to international human rights law;

6. Condemns the increasing deliberate, widespread, indiscriminate and disproportionate use of force against civilians, including by air strikes, and the indiscriminate and continuous use of lethal force and misuse of less-lethal weapons by the Myanmar military, and the abuses, including killings, torture and other ill-treatment and bodily injury, as well as sexual and gender-based violence, committed against the people of Myanmar, including against peaceful demonstrators exercising their rights to freedom of expression, of peaceful assembly and of association, which have led to deaths and many injuries, including of children and medical staff, across the country;

7. Calls upon the Myanmar military to end the declaration of martial law and a state of emergency, to return to the democratic transition in Myanmar, in line with the will and aspirations of the people of Myanmar, and to end all obstruction to the democratic process in Myanmar, ensuring free and fair democratic process, including by accepting that all national institutions, including the military, must serve under a democratically elected fully representative civilian government;

8. Urges the swift establishment of constructive, inclusive and peaceful dialogue among all parties, in accordance with the will and interests of the people of Myanmar, aimed at restoring democratic governance;

9. Recalls the obligations of States Parties to the Arms Trade Treaty in relation to international humanitarian law and international human rights law, in particular those arising from articles 6 and 7;

10. Calls upon all States to respect their international commitments and all relevant United Nations resolutions and to cease the illicit transfer and diversion of arms, munitions and other military equipment to Myanmar in order to prevent further violations of international humanitarian law and violations and abuses of human rights, and to refrain, in accordance with applicable national procedures and international norms and standards, from the export, sale or transfer of jet fuel, surveillance goods and technologies and less-lethal weapons when they assess that there are reasonable grounds to suspect that such fuel, goods, technologies or weapons might be used to violate or abuse human rights;

11. Condemns the production and use in Myanmar of anti-personnel landmines, which indiscriminately kill and injure civilians long after they are laid, imperil the return of internally displaced persons and refugees and threaten access to livelihoods, food and shelter, and calls upon all parties to immediately end their use in violation of international humanitarian law;

12. Expresses alarm at the rapidly increasing use of anti-personnel landmines and unexploded ordnance and their disproportionate impact on children, and also expresses alarm over reports of the criminalization of amputees, as well as the systematic denial of access by victims and survivors to life-saving aid, including medical care and prosthetics, recognizing that these actions are contrary to international law, including article 11 of the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and Security Council resolution 2475 (2019) of 20 June 2019 on protecting persons with disabilities in situations of armed conflict;

13. Calls upon all parties to the conflict in Myanmar, in particular the Myanmar military, to immediately cease the use of anti-personnel landmines and unexploded ordnance, ensure that amputees are not criminalized as a result of their injuries and take urgent steps to ensure that victims and survivors have access to life-saving aid, as part of broader, urgent measures to protect the rights of persons with disabilities in situations of armed conflict;

14. Calls for the immediate and unconditional release of President Win Myint, State Counsellor Aung San Suu Kyi and all those who have been arbitrarily detained, charged, arrested, convicted or sentenced on specious grounds, in particular since 1 February 2021, including government officials and politicians, human rights defenders, journalists and other media workers, civil society representatives, legal practitioners, religious and community leaders, healthcare workers, aid workers, academics, teachers, local and foreign advisers and members of student unions and trade unions, and for the military to refrain from future reprisals against released detainees;

15. Also calls for an end to the unjustified use of military tribunals to try civilians and for the right to a fair trial, which includes the right to a public trial by a competent, independent and impartial tribunal established by law, the presumption of innocence, the prohibition of being tried or punished again for offences of which one has already been convicted or acquitted, the right to be brought promptly before a judge to exercise judicial power, the right to be present at trial and to review of one's sentence or conviction by a higher tribunal according to law, and the right to adequate time and facilities to prepare a defence, and recalls the absolute prohibition of torture, cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment;

16. Further calls for the Myanmar military to fully respect and protect the human rights of all persons in Myanmar, including Rohingya and other persons belonging to ethnic and religious minorities, to refrain from excessive use of force, to exercise the utmost restraint and to seek a peaceful resolution to the crisis, recalling that the Myanmar military has a responsibility to respect democratic principles and is obliged to respect the rule of law and human rights, in accordance with international human rights law;

17. Expresses grave concern at continuing serious human rights violations and abuses by the military and security forces, as well as violations of international humanitarian law in Myanmar, notably against Rohingya and other persons belonging to ethnic and religious minorities, including those involving arbitrary arrests, deaths in detention, torture and other cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment, the deliberate killing and maiming of children, the recruitment and use of children in armed conflict, including as human shields, as well as for child labour and forced labour, the use of schools and universities for military purposes in contravention of international law, attacks on schools and universities, hospitals and houses of worship and protected persons in relation to schools, hospitals and houses of worship, indiscriminate shelling in civilian areas, the destruction and burning of homes, the deprivation of economic, social and cultural rights, the forced displacement of more than 923,000 Rohingya and other persons belonging to minorities to Bangladesh, trafficking in persons, forced labour and rape, sexual exploitation and other forms of sexual and gender-based violence;

18. Also expresses grave concern at human rights violations and abuses against Rohingya, including in conflict settings, and at the reported forced recruitment of Rohingya and other persons belonging to ethnic and religious minorities by the Myanmar military and other armed groups;

19. Calls upon the Myanmar military to immediately cease all air strikes, the use of anti-personnel landmines and the use of arson attacks, and condemns in the strongest terms the various attacks and killings that have ended civilian lives all across Myanmar, as well as any attacks directed against civilians and civilian infrastructure, and indiscriminate attacks;

20. Condemns in the strongest terms the indiscriminate attacks against children by the Myanmar military, and calls upon all parties, in particular the Myanmar military, to end violations and abuses against children, including the six grave violations against children during armed conflict, to ensure accountability for these violations and abuses, to guarantee protection to all children in armed conflict, including by stopping and preventing their recruitment into armed forces and ensuring the immediate and safe release of those who have been recruited, and to provide survivors with access to adequate assistance, including access to education and psychosocial and mental health support, justice and reparations;

21. Calls upon the Myanmar military to cease the arbitrary and unlawful arrest and detention of children, to release immediately and unconditionally all children detained in interrogation centres and prisons and to ensure their rehabilitation and reintegration into their families and communities;

22. Also calls upon the Myanmar military to cease targeting Myanmar citizens outside of Myanmar for exercising their right to freedom of expression, including through the cancellation of passports, surveillance and harassment, and threats to and reprisals against family members remaining in Myanmar;

23. Calls upon all parties to the conflict in Myanmar, in particular the Myanmar military, to immediately end violence, including sexual and gender-based violence, and all violations of international law, including of international human rights law and international humanitarian law, and human rights abuses in Myanmar, to hold perpetrators of violations and abuses accountable, including in independent and impartial domestic accountability processes ensuring justice and reparations to victims and survivors, to respect and protect civilians, to allow humanitarian access to affected populations, to show restraint, to cease the conflict and to show readiness to re-engage in dialogue and constitutional reform;

24. Also calls upon all parties to the conflict in Myanmar, in particular the Myanmar military, to cease, investigate and prosecute, where appropriate, all attacks on schools, universities and other education facilities, and attacks against students, teachers and education personnel, in contravention of international humanitarian law, and to mitigate and avoid the use of schools by armed forces, as appropriate, including through the implementation of Security Council resolution 2601 (2021) of 29 October 2021, noting in this regard the relevance of the Safe Schools Declaration, and by taking measures, such as considering implementing the Guidelines for Protecting Schools and Universities from Military Use during Armed Conflict, and ensuring safe, non-violent, inclusive, effective and enabling learning environments and quality education for all;

25. Calls upon the Myanmar military to cease targeting trade union leaders and members for exercising their right to freedom of association, including through the use of arbitrary arrests, detention, torture, intimidation, the surveillance of workers negotiating wage increases and the deprivation of basic civil liberties, due legal process and institutional recourse, and to fully cooperate with the International Labour Organization and the Commission of Inquiry for Myanmar and implement its recommendations without delay;²

² International Labour Organization, Towards Freedom and Dignity in Myanmar (October 2023).

26. Expresses deep concern at the enforcement by the Myanmar military of forced conscription for all men aged 18 to 35 years and women aged 18 to 27 years, and at reports that the Myanmar military, in order to coerce them to join its ranks, has abducted individuals, threatened communities with burning their villages and offered money, food and citizenship to Rohingya youths and threatened them with punishment;

27. Urges all parties in Myanmar to ensure the full, equal, safe and meaningful participation of all women, including Rohingya women and women belonging to other minorities, in promoting social cohesion across different communities and in all decision-making processes related to conflict prevention, resolution and peacebuilding;

28. Urges Myanmar, in accordance with the order of the International Court of Justice of 23 January 2020 in relation to Rohingya in its territory, to take all measures within its power to prevent the commission of all acts within the scope of article 2 of the Convention on the Prevention and Punishment of the Crime of Genocide, to ensure that its military and any irregular armed units that may be directed or supported by it and any organizations and persons that may be subject to its control, direction or influence do not commit, inter alia, any such acts, to prevent the destruction and ensure the preservation of evidence and to report to the Court as ordered on all measures taken to give effect to the order;

29. Stresses the need to effectively address the root causes of human rights violations and abuses against persons belonging to ethnic and religious minorities, including Rohingya, reiterates the importance of the full implementation of all recommendations made by the Advisory Commission on Rakhine State, including those on access to citizenship, freedom of movement, the elimination of systematic segregation and all forms of discrimination and inclusive and equal access to health services, education, livelihood opportunities, basic services and birth registration, in full consultation with all ethnic and religious minority groups, including Rohingya, and persons in vulnerable situations, as well as civil society;

30. Also stresses the need to expedite efforts to eliminate statelessness and systematic and institutionalized discrimination against members of ethnic and religious minorities, in particular relating to Rohingya, by, inter alia, reviewing and reforming the 1982 Citizenship Law, which has led to the deprivation of human rights, complete disenfranchisement and forced displacement, by ensuring equal access to full citizenship through a transparent, voluntary and accessible procedure and to all civil and political rights by allowing for self-identification, amending or repealing all discriminatory legislation and policies, including discriminatory provisions of the set of “protection of race and religion” laws enacted in 2015, covering religious conversion, interfaith marriage, monogamy and population control, and by lifting all local orders restricting rights to freedom of movement and access to civil registration, health and education services and livelihoods;

31. Further stresses the need to restore full citizenship status and related civil and political rights of Rohingya and other ethnic and religious minorities, including voting rights and their free and fair participation in elections and other democratic processes, to combat the incitement of hatred and hate speech against Rohingya and persons belonging to other minorities, online and offline, and to publicly condemn such acts and combat hate speech, misinformation and disinformation;

32. Calls for the establishment of conditions that would allow for the voluntary, safe, dignified and sustainable return of internally displaced persons to their places of origin or places of their choosing and for a guarantee of unrestricted humanitarian access to persons in need, including all internally displaced persons, throughout the country, in full consultation with the persons concerned and the local population, and in consultation also with the United Nations system and relevant civil society organizations, and encourages efforts to ensure consultation with and the representation of women at all levels of decision-making relating to the camp-closure strategy and its implementation;

33. Calls upon all parties, in particular the Myanmar military, to ensure full respect for international humanitarian law and to allow and facilitate free, unhindered access to the entire country for local and international staff members of humanitarian and other relevant international agencies, including in order to properly assess needs and to allow for the unhindered procurement of the necessary supplies and equipment, to repeal the so-called

Organization Registration Law, which hampers the delivery of humanitarian assistance, to cease any penalization of individuals and organizations under this framework and to respect and protect humanitarian personnel, including medical personnel, facilities, transport and equipment so that humanitarian organizations are able to offer principled and inclusive humanitarian assistance, including age-, disability- and gender-responsive assistance, to all persons in need, including internally displaced persons;

34. Condemns the suspension and obstruction by the Myanmar military of humanitarian access to affected areas of Myanmar after Typhoon Yagi and to Rakhine State after Cyclone Mocha, and expresses deep concern that international access to Rakhine State, where the risk of starvation is increasing, and other areas affected by conflict and violence remains severely restricted for the international humanitarian assistance community, including United Nations agencies, humanitarian actors and the international media;

35. Calls for the establishment of concrete steps towards the creation of an environment conducive to the voluntary, safe, dignified and sustainable return of all refugees and stateless persons, including Rohingya and other forcibly displaced persons, residing in Bangladesh, and recalls in this regard the bilateral arrangement of return concluded between Bangladesh and Myanmar in 2017, as well as those residing in other host States, and for access to accurate and reliable information, as corroborated by the United Nations and other relevant actors, on the conditions in Rakhine State and in other parts of the country in order to reasonably address the core concerns of all refugees, including Rohingya and other forcibly displaced persons, thereby enabling them to return to their places of origin or places of their choosing in a voluntary, safe, dignified and sustainable manner;

36. Welcomes the decision by the General Assembly, in its resolution 79/182 of 17 December 2024, to hold a high-level conference on the situation of Rohingya Muslims and other minorities in Myanmar, and expresses hope that the high-level conference will propose a comprehensive, innovative and concrete plan for a sustainable resolution of the crisis, including efforts to create a conducive environment for the timely, voluntary, safe, sustainable and dignified return of Rohingya Muslims to Myanmar;

37. Encourages the international community, in the true spirit of interdependence and equal burden- and responsibility-sharing, to assist Bangladesh in providing assistance to Rohingya refugees and forcibly displaced persons until a sustainable solution to the crisis is found and such time as they are voluntarily repatriated to Myanmar in safety and dignity, and to assist in the provision of assistance in Myanmar to all affected persons of all communities displaced internally in Myanmar, including in Rakhine State, taking into account the vulnerable situation of women, children, older persons and persons with disabilities, including by adequately funding the Joint Response Plan for the Rohingya humanitarian crisis;

38. Calls for immediate, full, unrestricted and unmonitored access for all United Nations mandate holders and human rights mechanisms and international and regional courts, tribunals and human rights bodies to independently monitor the situation of human rights, including by ceasing Internet shutdowns and lifting all other Internet restrictions, which hinder the flow of information essential for accountability, and to ensure that civil society organizations, human rights defenders, lawyers, victims, survivors, witnesses and other individuals have unhindered access to and can communicate with the United Nations and other human rights entities without fear of reprisals, intimidation or attack;

39. Also calls for an end to the reclassification of villages where Rohingya and other ethnic minorities were previously located and to the removal of the names of villages from official maps and potential alterations to how the land may be used, and for the ceasing, without any delay, the construction of military facilities in those villages;

40. Further calls for full and unhindered access to be granted to the diplomatic corps, independent observers and representatives of the national and international independent media so that they may conduct their work without fear of reprisals, intimidation or attack;

41. Stresses the role and the importance of the involvement of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations in facilitating and launching political dialogue, encourages regional players to work in that direction, and calls upon all States Members of the United Nations to protect Myanmar nationals within their borders, as appropriate, and to respect the principle of non-refoulement;

42. Expresses its deep concern at the lack of progress made by the Myanmar military in the implementation of the five-point consensus of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, reiterates the urgent call upon Myanmar to fully, swiftly and effectively implement the five-point consensus, including through constructive dialogue among all relevant parties, and to facilitate a peaceful solution in the interests of the people of Myanmar and their livelihoods, to that end calls upon all stakeholders in Myanmar to cooperate with the Association and the Special Envoy of the Chair of the Association on Myanmar, including by granting him access to all stakeholders, and expresses its support for these efforts;

43. Expresses its support for further efforts to implement the five-point consensus of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations, in this regard welcomes the Association Leaders' review of and decision on the implementation of the five-point consensus, welcomes the work of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General on Myanmar, and encourages engagement with her, allowing the fulfilment of the mandate as set out by the Secretary-General, including by travelling to the country;

44. Calls for a more active role of the United Nations, notably through the timely designation of a resident coordinator of United Nations local agencies in Myanmar on a permanent basis so as to ensure greater coherence and efficiency of action on the ground and to continue taking action to hold the military accountable for its crimes;

45. Stresses the urgent need to safeguard those who report violations and abuses and to immediately cease the killing, torture and other ill-treatment, bodily injury and arbitrary detention of all civil society actors, including journalists and media workers, human rights defenders, casualty recorders, lawyers, environmental and land rights activists, health and humanitarian workers, trade union leaders and members, and other civilians;

46. Encourages the commencement of an inclusive dialogue, involving all relevant stakeholders, to resolve the crisis and achieve sustainable peace and stability in Myanmar, and in this regard underlines the role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations and the United Nations, including through the Special Envoy of the Chair of the Association on Myanmar and the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General on Myanmar, as well as the importance of the international community's support for processes led by the Association;

47. Calls for continued steps and necessary measures to be taken to promote the inclusion, human rights and dignity of all people living in Myanmar, to address sexual and gender-based violence, discrimination and the spread of prejudice, including the spread of disinformation, hate speech and inflammatory rhetoric, including on online platforms, social media and messaging services, and to combat incitement to hatred and violence against ethnic, religious and other minorities, including Rohingya, in accordance with the Rabat Plan of Action on the prohibition of advocacy of national, racial or religious hatred that constitutes incitement to discrimination, hostility or violence, also in line with recommendation 9 of the executive summary of the Independent Commission of Enquiry, including by refraining from engaging in hate speech or encouraging others to engage in hate speech and refraining from implementing measures purported to address hate speech that do not comply with international standards;

48. Calls for action to address and document conflict-related sexual and gender-based violence in Myanmar, with the full participation of civil society, particularly women's rights organizations and women and girls from conflict-affected communities, to prevent such violence, to end impunity, to hold perpetrators accountable and to provide survivors with access to adequate assistance, support services, justice and reparations;

49. Underlines the importance of consulting with survivors and the families of victims and survivors, including Rohingya and persons belonging to other minorities, and of including them in advancing justice and accountability, as appropriate;

50. Calls for appropriate action to eliminate child and forced labour, including to respond in full to the recommendations made by the Commission of Inquiry for Myanmar of the International Labour Organization, to protect the rights of workers in natural resource extraction and to demilitarize mining regions, and for action to establish an inclusive land governance framework and to resolve issues of land tenure, including by amending relevant legislation, in particular the Vacant, Fallow and Virgin Lands Management Law, in full consultation with relevant groups and ethnic communities, including Rohingya;

51. Encourages all business enterprises, including transnational corporations and domestic enterprises operating in Myanmar or that have parts of their supply chain in Myanmar, to implement the Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and the recommendations made by the independent international fact-finding mission on Myanmar on the economic interests of the Myanmar military, encourages all transnational enterprises to responsibly divest from economic dealings with Myanmar military-owned businesses, and requests the home States of those enterprises to take enhanced measures so that those businesses conduct enhanced human rights due diligence so that their activities do not contribute to or cause any human rights violations or abuses, in accordance with the Guiding Principles;

52. Calls for enhanced regional cooperation, including by involving the United Nations, with a view to addressing the rise and increase of transnational crimes, such as trafficking in persons, drug trafficking and online scams;

53. Decides to extend the mandate of Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Myanmar for a further period of one year, requests the Special Rapporteur to present, during an enhanced interactive dialogue, also including the presentation of the report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights mandated by the Human Rights Council in its resolution 55/20 of 4 April 2024, an oral update to the Council at its fifty-ninth session and to submit a report to the Third Committee of the General Assembly at its eightieth session and to the Council at its sixty-first session, in accordance with its annual programme of work, and also requests the Special Rapporteur, supported by additional human rights experts, to continue to monitor the situation of human rights in Myanmar and the implementation of the recommendations made by the mandate holder and by the independent international fact-finding mission and to make recommendations on additional steps necessary to address the ongoing crisis, including through thematic reports and conference room papers;

54. Encourages the Special Rapporteur to continue to engage with relevant stakeholders, in the region and beyond, through meetings and conferences relating to human rights in Myanmar;

55. Calls for immediate and full cooperation by Myanmar with the Special Rapporteur in the exercise of the mandate, including by facilitating visits and granting unrestricted access throughout the country, and invites all States to facilitate cooperation with the Special Rapporteur, where requested;

56. Calls upon the United Nations to ensure that the Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar is afforded the support and resources in terms of staffing, location and operational freedom necessary to deliver on its mandate, urges all United Nations bodies to collaborate fully with the Mechanism, where possible, and to share evidence to be used in future prosecutions, and all relevant actors in Myanmar and States to cooperate with the Mechanism, to grant it access, including access to witnesses and other information providers, and to provide it with every assistance in the execution of its mandate, and the appropriate protection of confidentiality, security and support for victims, survivors and witnesses in order to fully respect and comply with the principle of “do no harm”, and calls for close and timely cooperation between the Mechanism and any future investigations or proceedings by national, regional or international courts or tribunals, including by the International Criminal Court or the International Court of Justice;

57. Requests the High Commissioner, with the support of specialized experts, to continue to monitor and assess the overall situation of human rights in Myanmar, maintaining focus on accountability regarding alleged violations of international human rights law and international humanitarian law, as well as the rule of law, to monitor the implementation of the present resolution and previous resolutions with the same title, to make recommendations on additional steps necessary to address the current crisis and to submit to the Human Rights Council, at its sixty-second session, a comprehensive report thereon, also examining efforts made by pro-democracy actors and civil society, among others, to develop institutions and policies on human rights protection, inclusive governance and transitional justice, at the local and national levels, and outlining actions the international community can take to support these efforts;

58. Also requests the High Commissioner, with the support of experts and in follow-up to the comprehensive report of the Office of the High Commissioner, to continue and strengthen technical assistance to persons belonging to those groups in order to increase their protection capacities, and to present updates in the context of his regular reporting to the Human Rights Council;

59. Recommends that the General Assembly submit the reports of the High Commissioner and the Special Rapporteur to the relevant United Nations bodies, including the Security Council, for their consideration and appropriate action, taking into account the relevant conclusions and recommendations therein;

60. Reiterates the need to establish a country office of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights in Myanmar and to issue a standing invitation to all special procedures of the Human Rights Council;

61. Calls upon the High Commissioner and the Special Rapporteur to monitor patterns of human rights violations that point to a heightened risk of a human rights emergency, where possible, to share evidence of violations with the Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar to support future prosecutions, to continue to bring that information to the attention of the Human Rights Council in a manner that reflects the urgency of the situation, including intersessionally through ad hoc briefings, to advise on what further steps may be needed if the situation continues to deteriorate, in furtherance of the Council's prevention mandate, and to inform other United Nations bodies as necessary on progress in this regard;

62. Recalls the Secretary-General's initiative to take concrete action based on the recommendations contained in the report entitled "A brief and independent inquiry into the involvement of the United Nations in Myanmar from 2010 to 2018", and invites the Secretary-General to support this work by offering relevant recommendations to enable more effective work in the future and to strengthen the prevention capacity of the United Nations system;

63. Requests the Secretary-General to call the continued attention of the Security Council to the situation in Myanmar and to continue as necessary with concrete recommendations for action towards resolving the humanitarian crisis, establishing the conditions for the voluntary, safe, dignified and sustainable return of all refugees and forcibly displaced persons, including Rohingya, and ensuring accountability for those responsible for mass atrocities and human rights violations and abuses;

64. Also requests the Secretary-General to provide the Special Rapporteur, the High Commissioner and the Independent Investigative Mechanism for Myanmar with the increased assistance, resources and expertise necessary to enable them to discharge their mandates fully;

65. Decides to remain actively seized of the matter.
