Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 16 June 2025

without reference to a Main Committee ([A/79/L.91)]

79/295. Cooperation between the United Nations and the Gulf Cooperation Council

The General Assembly,

Recalling its previous resolutions on cooperation between the United Nations and regional and other organizations, particularly those highlighting the role of partnerships in maintaining international peace and security,

Recalling also Article 52 of the Charter of the United Nations, which recognizes the existence of regional arrangements or agencies for dealing with such matters relating to the maintenance of international peace and security as are appropriate for regional action, provided that such arrangements or agencies and their activities are consistent with the purposes and principles of the United Nations,

Recognizing Security Council resolutions 1631 \(2005\) of 17 October 2005 and 2167 \(2014\) of 28 July 2014, which underscore the critical role of regional organizations in maintaining international peace and security, and the necessity of effective partnerships between the United Nations and such entities,

Recalling the Charter of the Cooperation Council for the Arab States of the Gulf¹ (Gulf Cooperation Council), which emphasizes the importance of effective coordination, integration and interconnection among its member States in all fields,

Underscoring the importance of the contributions of the Gulf Cooperation Council in understanding the root causes of conflicts within its region and in conflict prevention, resolution and peacebuilding efforts,

Emphasizing the importance of a coordinated approach to peace and security, as highlighted in the report of the Secretary-General on the United Nations and conflict
