Human Rights Council

Sixtieth session

8 September–8 October 2025

Agenda item 10

Technical assistance and capacity-building

Resolution adopted by the Human Rights Council on 8 October 2025

60/31. Technical assistance and capacity-building for Yemen in the field of human rights

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations and the provisions of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, and recalling relevant international human rights treaties,

Recognizing the primary responsibility of States to promote and protect human rights,

Reaffirming its strong commitment to the sovereignty, independence, unity and territorial integrity of Yemen,

Recalling Security Council resolutions 2014 (2011) of 21 October 2011, 2051 (2012) of 12 June 2012 and 2140 (2014) of 26 February 2014 and Human Rights Council resolutions 18/19 of 29 September 2011, 19/29 of 23 March 2012, 21/22 of 27 September 2012, 24/32 of 27 September 2013, 27/19 of 25 September 2014, 30/18 of 2 October 2015, 33/16 of 29 September 2016, 36/31 of 29 September 2017, 39/23 of 28 September 2018, 42/31 of 27 September 2019, 45/26 of 6 October 2020, 48/21 of 11 October 2021, 51/39 of 7 October 2022, 54/29 of 12 October 2023 and 57/37 of 11 October 2024,

Emphasizing Security Council resolutions 2216 (2015) of 14 April 2015, 2451 (2018) of 21 December 2018 and 2624 (2022) of 28 February 2022,

Welcoming the commitment of the Government of Yemen to maintaining the humanitarian truce despite the refusal of the Houthis to renew the agreement on it,

Welcoming also the process of exchange of prisoners between the two sides, and calling for the lifting of the siege of the city of Taiz and for the facilitation of the delivery of humanitarian aid,

Reiterating its strong support for the international efforts to reach a comprehensive ceasefire, to end the conflict in Yemen and to renew a meaningful and inclusive political dialogue for peace, represented by the initiative of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General for Yemen, the initiative of Saudi Arabia and the efforts of the Special Envoy of the United States of America for Yemen and some countries in the region, and recalling the need for all parties to the conflict to react to these efforts in a flexible and constructive manner, without preconditions, and to fully and immediately implement all provisions of relevant Security Council resolutions, while welcoming in this regard the positive engagement of the Government of Yemen,

Recognizing that the promotion, protection and fulfilment of human rights are essential factors in ensuring a fair and equal justice system and, ultimately, reconciliation and stability for Yemen,

Recalling the agreement by Yemeni political parties to complete the political transition process on the basis of the Gulf Cooperation Council initiative and its implementation mechanism, and emphasizing the need for the implementation of the recommendations made in the outcome document of the National Dialogue Conference, including the completion of the drafting of a new constitution,

Welcoming Presidential Decree No. 20 of 8 July 2025, in which the mandate of the National Commission of Inquiry was extended for a period of three years, with a view to investigating all violations of human rights since 2011,

Recalling the Riyadh Agreement signed by the Government of Yemen and the Southern Transitional Council, and encouraging the speedy and full implementation of the Agreement as an important step towards a political solution in Yemen,

Condemning the continued arbitrary detention by the Houthis of United Nations personnel, humanitarian workers and staff working for international and national non-governmental organizations and diplomatic missions in Yemen, as well as forced entry into United Nations premises, and emphasizing that such actions severely hinder the delivery of humanitarian assistance and capacity-building in Yemen,

Expressing concern that the continued liquidity crisis of the regular budget of the United Nations Secretariat has limited the regular budget funds of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and directly affected the capacity of the Office to provide full technical assistance, including as requested by the Human Rights Council in its resolution 57/37, thereby affecting capacity-building activities in Yemen,

Welcoming the positive engagement of the Presidential Leadership Council in negotiating with the Houthis under the auspices of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General for Yemen, with a view to reaching a final and comprehensive political settlement in Yemen,

Welcoming also the position adopted by the Government of Yemen to allow the continuation of international flights to and from Sana'a airport and the unimpeded entry of commercial and humanitarian shipping into all Yemeni ports, including the ports of Hudaydah and Salif, the fiscal and monetary measures taken by the Government to address the depreciation of the national currency and its efforts to stabilize the prices of essential goods in the light of the recent appreciation of the currency, and encouraging continued measures to further stabilize the Yemeni economy,

Aware of reports by the Office for the Coordination of Humanitarian Affairs of the Secretariat indicating that the existing humanitarian emergency affects the enjoyment of fundamental human rights, including social and economic rights, and that the parties to the conflict must facilitate the rapid, safe and unhindered delivery of humanitarian aid,

1. Takes note of the report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights on technical assistance and capacity-building in Yemen;¹
2. Also takes note of the comments made by the Government of Yemen on the report of the High Commissioner during the present session;

6. Notes with appreciation the work done to date by the National Commission of Inquiry despite the challenges that it has faced, and welcomes the progress that it has made, such as the regular field visits made throughout Yemen, the consultations held with civil society groups and the improved reporting on different types of violations and abuses of human rights and violations of international humanitarian law by all parties to the conflict;

7. Calls upon all parties to renew the truce and immediately implement all of its provisions, calls for the lifting of the siege that the Houthis have imposed on the city of Ta'izz, and calls upon all parties to immediately implement the Stockholm Agreement in order to begin negotiations for a comprehensive and inclusive political solution to the current crisis in Yemen and to uphold the commitments announced on 23 December 2023;

8. Expresses deep concern at the serious violations and abuses of international human rights law and violations of international humanitarian law in Yemen committed by all parties to the conflict, including those involving sexual and gender-based violence, the continued recruitment of children, contrary to international treaties, the abduction of political activists, the violations of human rights against journalists and the killing of civilians;

9. Calls upon the Houthis to remove the obstacles that prevent access for relief and humanitarian aid, to immediately and unconditionally release all detained United Nations personnel, humanitarian workers and staff working for international and national non-governmental organizations and diplomatic missions and to end violence and discrimination against women and targeting based on religion or belief;

10. Calls upon all parties to the conflict in Yemen to respect their obligations under international human rights law and international humanitarian law, to immediately cease attacks on civilians, including on those delivering medical supplies and on aid workers, and to facilitate rapid, safe and unhindered humanitarian access to the affected population nationwide;

11. Expresses deep concern at all attacks against civilian objects, in violation of international humanitarian law, recalls the obligations of all parties to the conflict to take all precautions necessary to avoid and in any event to minimize harm to civilians and civilian objects, such as schools, markets and medical facilities, and the prohibition on attacking or destroying infrastructure and provisions that are indispensable to the survival of the civilian population, including water installations, supplies and foodstuffs, and strongly condemns the launching of ballistic and other missiles targeting the territory of neighbouring countries and posing a major threat to regional peace and stability and the security of international trade in Red Sea shipping lanes;

12. Urges the Government of Yemen to take measures to protect civilians and to take appropriate measures with a view to ending impunity for all cases involving violations and abuses of human rights and violations of international humanitarian law, violence against journalists and the detention of journalists and political activists;

13. Requests all parties to the conflict in Yemen to fully implement Security Council resolution 2216 (2015), which will contribute to an improvement in the situation of human rights, and encourages all parties to the conflict to reach a comprehensive agreement to end the conflict while ensuring the full and effective participation of women in the political and peacemaking process;

14. Demands that all parties to the conflict work towards a comprehensive ceasefire, continue inter-Yemeni negotiations with a view to reaching an inclusive, mutually agreed, comprehensive and lasting political solution to the conflict and allow access for humanitarian assistance to all Yemeni towns and villages, urges the Houthis to respond to the requests of the Special Envoy of the Secretary-General for Yemen for them to open the crossing points to the city of Ta'izz, end the recruitment and use of children and release those who have already been recruited, and calls upon all parties to the conflict to cooperate with the United Nations for their reintegration into their communities;

15. Reiterates the commitments and obligations of the Government of Yemen to ensure respect for the promotion and protection of the human rights of all individuals within the territory that it controls and that is subject to its jurisdiction, in that connection recalls that Yemen is a party to the International Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of

Racial Discrimination, the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women, the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, the Convention on the Rights of the Child and the Optional Protocols thereto on the involvement of children in armed conflict and on the sale of children, child prostitution and child pornography, the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities and the Convention relating to the Status of Refugees and the Protocol thereto, and looks forward to the Government continuing its efforts to promote and protect human rights;

16. Expresses deep concern at the deteriorating humanitarian situation in Yemen, expresses its appreciation to donor States and organizations working on improving that situation and for their commitment to provide financial support for the United Nations Yemen humanitarian response plan for 2025, calls upon all States to increase their financial support for United Nations relief operations, and urges States to fulfil their pledges to the relevant United Nations humanitarian appeal;

17. Reaffirms the responsibilities of the Houthis to facilitate the immediate, safe and unhindered delivery of humanitarian assistance to all those who are in need, in accordance with the principles of international humanitarian law;

18. Invites all bodies of the United Nations system, including the Office of the High Commissioner, and all States to assist the transitional process in Yemen, including by supporting the mobilization of resources to tackle the consequences of the violence and the economic and social challenges faced by Yemen, in coordination with the international donor community and according to the priorities set by the Yemeni authorities;

19. Welcomes the technical assistance provided by the Office of the High Commissioner to the National Commission of Inquiry, requests the High Commissioner to continue to provide substantive capacity-building and technical assistance to the Government of Yemen and all requisite technical and logistical support to the National Commission of Inquiry, at the same level as any investigation commission, to enable it to continue to investigate allegations of violations and abuses committed by all parties to the conflict in Yemen, in line with international standards, and to submit its comprehensive report on alleged violations and abuses of human rights in all parts of Yemen, in accordance with Presidential Decree No. 20 of 8 July 2025, as soon as it is available, and encourages all parties to the conflict in Yemen to extend full and transparent access and cooperation to the National Commission;

20. Requests the High Commissioner to present a report on the implementation of technical assistance, as stipulated in the present resolution, to the Human Rights Council at its sixty-third session;

21. Requests the Secretary-General to ensure that the Office of the High Commissioner is provided with all the resources necessary to enable the full and timely delivery of technical assistance and capacity-building to Yemen.
