Proposals and contributions received from Governments

Canada and Germany: amendment to article 10 of the revised draft United Nations Convention against Transnational Organized Crime

Article 10: Extradition

It is proposed to add the following new paragraph after paragraph 1:

“(...) Where the involvement of an organized criminal group is being considered solely for the purpose of determining if this article applies, it shall be sufficient for the requesting State Party to demonstrate a reasonable indication of the involvement of an organized criminal group in the offence for which extradition is sought.”
