7.10 No Suspension of Taxpayer's Obligation: A taxpayer's request for review by the Appeals Division, appeal to the Board or application to the court for a review, made pursuant to section 7 of the present regulation, does not suspend the taxpayer's obligation to pay the tax assessed.

7.11 Suspension of Enforced Collection of Tax: Notwithstanding section 7.10 of the present regulation, there shall be no enforced collection of tax until the time within which a taxpayer may request a review by the Appeals Division has expired, or until the Tax Administration has made its final decision pursuant to section 7.5 of the present regulation, whichever is the later.

7.12 Suspension of Sale of Seized Property: Property seized by the Tax Administration pursuant to its powers of enforced collection shall not be sold or otherwise disposed of for a period of at least 60 days following such seizure or while any of the review or appeal procedures provided in section 7 of the present regulation are being undertaken by a taxpayer, whichever is the later.

7.13 Procedure Following Resolution: In the event that a matter is ultimately resolved in favour of the taxpayer, the Tax Administration shall refund any excess tax paid together with interest thereon accrued until the matter was resolved.
