Information circular***

To: Members of the staff
From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management
Subject: 2001 competitive examination for Arabic Interpreters

1. The purpose of the present information circular is to invite applications from staff members of the Secretariat at the P-3 level and below who wish to take the competitive examination for Arabic Interpreters in 2001, in accordance with the provisions of ST/AI/1998/7 of 23 March 1998.

2. A competitive examination for Arabic Interpreters will be held from 8 to 10 January 2001 in New York, Geneva, Vienna, Cairo and other locations, according to the number and location of qualified candidates invited to take the examination and the availability of necessary technical equipment. The purpose of this examination is to establish a roster from which present and future vacancies for Arabic Interpreters will be filled.

3. The examination is open to staff members of the United Nations at the P-3 level and below who meet the eligibility requirements, as well as qualified external candidates. Staff members from subsidiary organs of the United Nations and staff members whose service is limited to a particular organ, fund or programme of the United Nations or special mission are considered external candidates for the purpose of this examination. Staff members who pass the examination and are selected for inclusion in the roster will be assigned to fill vacancies as they occur. Successful candidates may be called to serve at any duty station according to the needs of the Organization. Interpreters are expected to serve a minimum of five years in a language post. The assignment of staff members of the United Nations who are successful in the examination and are selected to fill vacancies will be subject to the conditions set out in paragraphs 10 and 11 below.

4. Staff members of the Secretariat applying for the examination must:

(a) Have Arabic as their main language;<sup>1</sup>

(b) Have a perfect command of Arabic and an excellent knowledge of English or French. The Board of Examiners, appointed by the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management, requires that candidates' claims to knowledge of official languages must be supported by relevant documentation in their official status files. For this purpose, staff members should either attach to their application a photocopy of a diploma or a certificate from a language school or a brief explanation of how they acquired their knowledge of the language claimed. Staff members are advised to submit photocopies, not originals, of such documentation;

(c) Hold a degree or an equivalent qualification from a university or institution of equivalent status at which Arabic is the language of instruction, and have 200 days of experience as conference interpreters or 200 days of work experience in the field of translation, editing, verbatim reporting or related fields. Alternatively, candidates must hold a university degree from a recognized school of interpretation. The Board of Examiners may, at its discretion, admit a candidate graduating from a university whose principal language of instruction is other than Arabic, provided that he/she has adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is Arabic.

5. The requirement for a university degree or its equivalent from a university or institution of equivalent status mentioned in paragraph 4 (c) above may be waived for staff members who, in the judgement of the Board of Examiners, have adequate post-secondary educational qualifications from a university or institution of equivalent status and adequate secondary educational qualifications from an establishment at which the principal language of instruction is Arabic, in addition to five years of continuous service with the United Nations Secretariat by 31 December 1989.

6. All applications will be reviewed by the Board of Examiners. All applicants will be notified of the Board's decision in respect of their application. The Board's decisions are final.

7. The examination will consist of two parts:

(a) Simultaneous interpretation into Arabic from recordings of four speeches delivered in English or French (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording);

(b) Simultaneous interpretation into English or French from recordings of four speeches delivered in Arabic (approximately 5 to 10 minutes per recording).

8. On the basis of the results of this examination, the Board of Examiners will invite selected candidates to an interview, which is projected to take place in March 2001. The Board will interview the selected candidates to assess levels of professionalism, integrity, commitment to continuous learning, respect for diversity, judgement/decision-making and ability to work as a member of a team. The interview is an integral part of the examination. Therefore, candidates who are invited for an interview should not assume that they would be offered an assignment.

9. On the basis of the overall results of the examination, the Board will recommend to the Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management the names of candidates who qualify for inclusion in the roster. All candidates admitted to the examination will be informed in writing of the Board's final recommendation in respect of their candidature. The Board's recommendations are not subject to appeal. The Board does not release individual scores/results.

10. Staff members selected to fill vacancies will be assigned as Arabic Interpreters for a trial period of two years. Staff members at the P-1 level or below will receive a special post allowance to the P-2 level. Staff members at the P-2 and P-3 levels will be assigned at their respective levels.

11. Staff members with a special post allowance to the P-2 level and those already at the P-2 level who complete the trial period successfully and are recommended by the Department of General Assembly Affairs and Conference Services and the Office of Human Resources Management will be promoted to the P-3 level. Staff members already at the P-3 level who complete the trial period successfully will be confirmed in their interpretation functions at the P-3 level. Staff members who do not complete the trial period successfully will be reassigned to posts at their previous levels and the special post allowance, if any, will be discontinued. Staff members on fixed-term appointment who complete the trial period successfully will be considered for permanent appointment under the provisions of General Assembly resolution 51/226 on the granting of career appointments.

12. In order to service meetings of the Security Council or the General Assembly, interpreters are often called upon to work outside normal working hours, including weekends and holidays.

13. Staff members applying for the examination should complete the attached form and submit it, not later than 17 November 2000, to:
