

UNITED NATIONS ECONOMIC AND SOCIAL COUNCIL

Distr.
GENERAL

E/CN.4/1983/31/Add.1
21 January 1983

Original: ENGLISH

COMMISSION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Thirty-ninth session
31 January - 11 March 1983
Item 23 of the agenda

ADVISORY SERVICES IN THE FIELD OF HUMAN RIGHTS

ASSISTANCE TO UGANDA

Report of the Secretary-General

Addendum

GE.83-10813

Addendum

1. Further to his report to the Commission circulated as document E/CN.4/1983/31; the Secretary-General wishes to inform the Commission that the proposal introduced hereunder has been received from the Government of Uganda in regard to the implementation of Commission resolution 1982/37 and Economic and Social Council decision 1982/139 on United Nations assistance in the field of human rights.

Project	Requirements
(i) Library for the Ministry of Justice and the High Court	(a) Employment of one Expert Law Librarian for a period of two years. (b) Advanced professional training for two serving L w Librarians. (c) Recruitment and training of four Law Librarians. (d) Training of four Legal Executives to assist State Attorneys and Judges. (e) Provision of books, Law Reports and other legal materials.
(ii) Revision of Laws of Uganda	(a) Employment of one Expert for the post of Commissioner for Law Revision for a period of two years. (b) Employment of one Expert for the post of First Parliamentary Counsel (c) Training of six Ugandan State Attorneys in Parliamentary and general legal draftsmanship. (d) Printing of consolidated volumes of the revised laws.
(iii) Training of prison officers	Fellowships for the training of 10 medium-cadre Prison Officers in the fields of Criminology, Penology and Treatment of Offenders.
(iv) Training of Police Officers	(a) Training of 12 Police Officers in the field of Scientific Investigation in particular Forensic Science. (b) Training of 12 Police Officers in the field of Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice. (c) Training of six Police Staff Officers in Public Administration.

2. These proposals are now being examined in consultation with all the parties concerned, including UNDP, UNESCO and the Centre for Social Development and Humanitarian Affairs.

3. The Commission will be kept informed of the development of these projects.