Chargé d'affaires a.i.

Annex

Statement dated 22 July 1988 by the Government of Saint Kitts and Nevis

The Government of Saint Kitts and Nevis views with deep satisfaction and immense hope the official decision by the Islamic Republic of Iran to abide by United Nations Security Council resolution 598 (1987).

Iran's decision augurs well for lasting peace, security and stability in the region of the Middle East and raises hope for solutions to other regional conflicts.

The Government of Saint Kitts and Nevis commends the efforts by the Secretary-General, Mr. Javier Pérez de Cuéllar, to implement speedily the provisions of Security Council resolution 598 (1987).
