The Commission for Social Development recommends to the Economic and Social Council the adoption of the following draft resolution:

Preparation for and observance of the tenth anniversary of the International Year of the Family

The Economic and Social Council,

Recommends to the General Assembly the adoption of the following draft resolution:

“The General Assembly,

“Recalling its resolutions 44/82 of 8 December 1989, 47/237 of 20 September 1993, 50/142 of 21 December 1995, 52/81 of 12 December 1997 and 54/124 of 17 December 1999 concerning the proclamation, preparations for and observance of the International Year of the Family,

“Recognizing that the preparation for and observance of the tenth anniversary of the International Year of the Family provides a useful opportunity for drawing further attention to the objectives of the Year for increasing cooperation at all levels on family issues and for undertaking concerted actions to strengthen family-centred policies and programmes as part of an integrated comprehensive approach to development,

* In accordance with rule 69 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council.

“Considering that the follow-up to the International Year of the Family is an integral part of the agenda and of the multi-year programme of work of the Commission for Social Development until 2004,

“Noting the active role of the United Nations in enhancing international cooperation in family-related issues, particularly in the area of research and information,

“Emphasizing that it is necessary to intensify and improve coordination of the activities of the United Nations system on family related issues so as to contribute fully to the effective preparation for and celebration of the tenth anniversary of the International Year of the Family,

“1. Takes note of the report of the Secretary-General on the follow-up to the International Year of the Family and the preparations for the tenth anniversary of the International Year of the Family and the recommendations contained therein;¹

“2. Urges Governments to view 2004 as a target year by which concrete achievements should be made to identify and elaborate issues of direct concern to families and also to set up and strengthen, where appropriate, mechanisms to plan and coordinate activities of governmental bodies and non-governmental organizations;

“3. Requests the Commission for Social Development to continue to review annually the preparations for the tenth anniversary of the International Year of the Family as part of its agenda and of its multi-year programme of work until 2004;

“4. Requests the Secretary-General to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-seventh session through the Commission for Social Development and the Economic and Social Council on the preparation for the tenth anniversary of the International Year of the Family at all levels;

“5. Invites Member States to consider organizing activities in preparation for the celebration of the tenth anniversary of the International Year of the Family at the national level.”
