JOINT STATEMENT BY REPUBLIC OF TURKEY AND GEORGIA
Ankara, 29 January 2001

On the occasion of the visit of H.E. Mr. Eduard Shevardnadze, President of Georgia, to Turkey, at the invitation of H.E. Mr. Ahmet Necdet Sezer, President of the Republic of Turkey, an agreement between the Republic of Turkey and Georgia, on establishing a bilateral regime for keeping their common border free from anti-personnel mines and preventing their use for border guard purposes in the future, is signed in Ankara on 29 January 2001 by H.E. Mr. İsmail Cem, the Foreign Minister of the Republic of Turkey and H.E. Mr. Irakli Menagarishvili, the Foreign Minister of Georgia.

According to this Agreement, the two countries undertake to clear the designated area starting from their common border from anti-personnel mines and to prevent their use for border guard purposes in the future as well. The agreement also envisages a verification regime.

Aware of the human sufferings and casualties caused by the irresponsible and indiscriminate use of anti-personnel mines, the two countries, by signing this Agreement, have proved their determination to contribute to the ongoing efforts of the international community aimed at the total elimination of this inhuman weapon.

This Agreement constitutes the latest expression of the achieved quality of the relations between the two neighbouring countries and underlines their common will to further strengthen the existing exemplary relations between them and to contribute to stability, security and transparency in the region.
