Information circular*

To: Members of the staff
From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management
Subject: United Nations sabbatical leave programme for the year 2002

1. The purpose of the present information circular is to invite staff to apply for the sabbatical leave programme in 2002, in accordance with the provisions of ST/AI/2000/4 of 5 April 2000.

Selection of institution

2. Interested staff members are responsible for identifying the institution or organization in which they propose to carry out their studies and for securing their acceptance by that institution or organization. In addition to universities and independent institutions worldwide, including participating research and training centres of the United Nations University (UNU) and institutions that are members of the Academic Council on the United Nations System, study projects may also be pursued in other relevant organizations and institutions. Staff members may wish to consult the list of institutions that are members of the Academic Council on the United Nations System contained in annex II to the present circular and the list of participating research and training centres of UNU contained in annex III.

Application procedures

3. Applicants are requested to complete the application form contained in annex I to the present circular and to submit it, through their respective head of office or department, together with a proposal describing the study that they wish to pursue to the Officer-in-Charge, Sabbatical Leave Programme, Room S-2500, Specialist Services Division, Office of Human Resources Management, New York, NY 10017, by 15 November 2001. Letters of recommendation should be sent to the same address.

4. The proposal, which should not exceed four pages, should contain the following information:

- (a) Title of the study;

* Expiration date of the present information circular: 31 December 2002.

- (b) Field of the study;
- (c) Rationale for the study;
- (d) Relationship of the study to the work of the individual and to the work of the Organization;
- (e) Outline of topic or topics to be covered;
- (f) Study and/or research activities and detailed methodology;
- (g) Schedule of work of the study, with an indication of any preparatory work already accomplished;
- (h) Usefulness of the expected outcome of the study and its practical implications for the individual and the Organization;
- (i) Endorsement by the head of office or department responsible for the work of the applicant during the proposed study.

Applicants should indicate in the application form the name and address of the institution or organization in which they wish to carry out their study project, specifying the type of support services and facilities that the institution or organization is prepared to provide during the period of the sabbatical leave.

5. All proposals will be evaluated by a selection committee on the basis of the criteria set out in administrative instruction ST/AI/2000/4.

6. Each applicant and his/her head of office or department will be informed of the decision of the Selection Committee. The selected staff members will be requested to accept in writing the specified conditions of the award.

7. The application form contained in annex I is also available online (United Nations Intranet — Forms) as form P.298 (8-00).

Annex III

United Nations University participating centres

Under its Charter, adopted by the General Assembly in 1973, the United Nations University (UNU) is a voluntarily funded autonomous organ of the General Assembly that engages in research, postgraduate training and the dissemination of knowledge on pressing global problems of human survival, development and welfare that are the concern of the United Nations and its agencies. UNU is organized on a networking principle. The University headquarters in Tokyo, through its Academic Division, coordinates a number of programmes and project networks. UNU research and training centres conduct in-house research and training and coordinate research and training involving institutions in many countries.

The location of specific UNU research and training activities and the respective fields of study where staff members on sabbatical leave might consider pursuing study projects at UNU include:

1. UNU headquarters, Academic Division, in Tokyo
Peace and governance
Sustainable development
2. UNU Institute of Advanced Studies (UNU/IAS) in Tokyo
Eco-restructuring for sustainable development
Mega-cities and urban development
Multilateralism and governance
3. UNU World Institute for Development Economics Research (UNU/WIDER) in Helsinki
Economics of transition
Liberalization and development in sub-Saharan Africa
Institutional and distributive issues
International finance and economic issues
Global governance
4. UNU Institute for New Technologies (UNU/INTECH) in Maastricht, the Netherlands
Socio-economic implications of new technologies
