Human resources management

Amendments to the Staff Rules

Report of the Secretary-General

Summary

As requested by staff regulation 12.3, the present report provides the full text of amendments to the Staff Rules, some of which have been provisionally promulgated in accordance with staff regulation 12.2. The Secretary-General intends to implement the amendments that have not been so promulgated as from 1 January 2002. The present report provides the rationale for every amendment included therein.

The General Assembly is requested to take note of the amendments to the Staff Rules contained in the annex to the present report.

* A/56/150.

 Submission of the present report was delayed to allow for completion of the staff consultation process on the proposed amendments.

1. Staff regulation 12.3 provides that the full text of provisional staff rules and amendments should be reported annually to the General Assembly.
2. Unless otherwise indicated, the proposed amendments contained in the annex to the present report will be effective as from 1 January 2002.

A. 100 series

3. Rule 103.20, Education grant, is amended by adding to paragraph (g) a sentence excepting from the obligation to prorate the amount of the grant when a staff member who has one or more children in school dies while in service after the beginning of the school year.
4. Rule 104.14, Appointment and Promotion Board, is amended to implement the managed reassignment programme for Junior Professional staff in accordance with section III.D of General Assembly resolution 51/226, pending the coming into force of the revised rule on central review bodies, as amended by section VI of General Assembly resolution 55/258.
5. Rule 104.15, Competitive examinations, is amended to implement the managed reassignment programme for Junior Professional staff in accordance with section III.D of General Assembly resolution 51/226.
6. Rule 105.3, Home leave, is amended to allow a greater flexibility in the application of the requirement of a minimum stay in the home country, based on the need to take into account changes that have occurred in respect of mode of travel (always by air), composition of many families (frequently of several nationalities) and location of eligible family members, who often work, reside or go to school in different countries.
7. Rule 109.3, Notice of termination, is amended to clarify the computation of the amount to be paid in lieu of notice.
8. Rule 109.10, Last day for pay purposes, is amended to allow the entitlement to education grant to continue for the duration of a school year that has begun when a staff member dies while in service.

B. 200 series

9. Rule 203.8, Education grant, is amended by adding to paragraph (g) a sentence excepting from the obligation to prorate the amount of the grant when project personnel who have one or more children in school die while in service after the beginning of the school year.
10. Rule 206.7, Maternity leave, is amended to incorporate into the 200 series the amendment previously made to the corresponding provision in the 100 series in order to simplify the rule by deleting the proviso in paragraph (e), which postponed crediting of annual leave until six months had passed after return from maternity leave.
11. Rule 207.11, Travel on home leave, is amended to permit a greater flexibility in the application of the requirement of a minimum stay in the home country to take into account changes that have occurred since the rule was last amended in respect of mode of travel (always by air), composition of many families (frequently of several nationalities) and location of eligible family members, who often work, reside or go to school in different countries.

12. Rule 209.4, Notice of termination, is amended to clarify the computation of the amount to be paid in lieu of notice.

13. Rule 209.11, Last day for pay purposes, is amended to allow the entitlement to education grant to continue for the duration of a school year that has begun when project personnel die while in service.

C. 300 series

14. Rule 309.3, Notice of termination, is amended to clarify the computation of the amount to be paid in lieu of notice.

15. Rule 309.6, Last day for pay purposes in case of death, the title of which is revised to read, Last day for pay purposes, is amended to simplify payment of travel days on separation.

Recommendation

16. The Secretary-General recommends that the General Assembly take note of the amendments to the Staff Rules set out in the annex to the present report.
