Fifty-sixth session

Agenda item 119 (a)

Human rights questions: implementation of human rights instruments

Status of the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment

Report of the Secretary-General*

1. The General Assembly, by its resolution 39/46 of 10 December 1984, adopted and opened for signature, ratification and accession the Convention against Torture and Other Cruel, Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment contained in the annex to that resolution, and called upon all Governments to consider signing and ratifying the Convention as a matter of priority.

2. The Convention was opened for signature in New York on 4 February 1985. In accordance with article 27 thereof, the Convention entered into force on 26 June 1987, on the thirtieth day after the date of deposit with the Secretary-General of the twentieth instrument of ratification or accession.

3. In its resolution 55/89 of 4 December 2000, the General Assembly welcomed the work of the Committee against Torture and took note of its report;¹ urged all States that had not yet done so to become parties to the Convention as a matter of priority; invited all States ratifying or acceding to the Convention and those States that were parties to the Convention and that had not yet done so to consider joining the States parties that had already made the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention and to consider the possibility of withdrawing their reservations to article 20; urged all States parties to the Convention to notify the Secretary-General of their acceptance of the amendments to articles 17 and 18 of the Convention as soon as possible;² urged States parties to comply strictly with their obligations under the Convention, including their obligation to submit reports in accordance with article 19 of the Convention, in view of the high number of reports not submitted; called upon the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, in conformity with her mandate established in General Assembly resolution 48/141 of 20 December 1993, to continue to provide, at the request of Governments, advisory services for the preparation of national reports to the Committee and for the prevention of torture, as well as technical assistance in the development, production and distribution of teaching material for this purpose; urged States parties to take fully into account the conclusions and recommendations made by the Committee after its consideration of their reports; and requested the Secretary-General to submit to the General Assembly at its fifty-sixth session a report on the status of the Convention.

4. The Commission on Human Rights, in its resolution 2001/62 of 25 April 2001, encouraged States parties to consider limiting the extent of any reservations they lodge to the Convention, to formulate any reservations as precisely and narrowly as possible, and to ensure that no reservation is incompatible with the object and purpose of the Convention; it also encouraged States parties to review regularly any reservations made in respect of the provisions of the Convention with a view to withdrawing them.

5. As at 11 June 2001, the Convention had been ratified or acceded to by 124 States; in addition, 11 States had signed the Convention. The list of States that have signed, ratified or acceded to the Convention, as well as the dates of their signature, ratification or accession, is contained in the annex to the present report.

6. As at the same date, 43 of the States parties to the Convention (Algeria, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Bulgaria, Cameroon, Canada, Croatia, Cyprus, the Czech Republic, Denmark, Ecuador, Finland, France, Ghana, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Italy, Liechtenstein, Luxembourg, Malta, Monaco, Netherlands, New Zealand, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Russian Federation, Senegal, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Togo, Tunisia, Turkey, Uruguay, Venezuela and Yugoslavia) had made the declarations provided for in articles 21 and 22 of the Convention. In addition, three States parties (Japan, United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, United States of America) had made the declaration provided for in article 21 only, thus bringing the total number of declarations under that article to 45. Under article 21, a State party to the Convention may declare at any time that it recognizes the competence of the Committee against Torture to receive and consider communications to the effect that a State party claims that another State party is not fulfilling its obligations under the Convention. Under article 22, a State party to the Convention may declare at any time that it recognizes the competence of the Committee to receive and consider communications from or on behalf of individuals subject to its jurisdiction who claim to be victims of a violation by a State party of the provisions of the Convention.

7. The provisions of articles 21 and 22 entered into force on 26 June 1987, in accordance with paragraph 2 of article 21 and paragraph 8 of article 22.

8. The Committee against Torture held its twenty-fifth and twenty-sixth sessions at the United Nations Office at Geneva from 13 to 24 November 2000 and from 30 April to 18 May 2001, respectively. In accordance with article 24 of the Convention, the Committee will submit its annual report,³ covering its activities at the sessions referred to above, to the States parties and to the General Assembly at its fifty-sixth session.
