Item 1. Election of officers

1. Rule 15 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council provides that “at the commencement of its first meeting of a regular session the Commission shall elect, from among the representatives of its members, a Chairman, one or more Vice-Chairmen and such other officers as may be required”.

Item 2. Adoption of the agenda

2. Rule 7 of the rules of procedure provides that “the Commission shall at the beginning of each session, after the election of its officers, ... adopt the agenda for that session on the basis of the provisional agenda”.

3. In its resolution 1998/84, the Commission decided to adopt the proposal for the restructuring of its agenda submitted by the Chairperson of the Commission at its fifty-fourth session, as contained in the annex to that resolution.

4. The Commission will have before it the provisional agenda (E/CN.4/2002/1) prepared by the Secretary-General in accordance with rule 5 of the rules of procedure, as well as the present annotations relating to the items included in the provisional agenda.

Item 3. Organization of the work of the session

5. At its fifty-seventh session, the Commission decided, in its decision 2001/117, that the fifty-eighth session of the Commission should be scheduled to take place from 18 March to 26 April 2002. The Economic and Social Council approved the recommendation in its decision 2001/286.

6. The attention of the Commission is drawn to the decisions it adopted at its fifty-seventh session concerning the organization of its work and the conduct of business, in particular those relating to speaking time and other arrangements (see E/2001/23-E/CN.4/2001/167, paras. 14-23).

7. Furthermore, the attention of the Commission is drawn to the relevant resolutions concerning control and limitation of documentation (inter alia, General Assembly resolutions 52/214 B, 53/208 B and 54/248 C). In this regard, it is also brought to the attention of the Commission that some documents prepared for the present session, in view of their length or late submission, cannot be issued in all official languages, the Conference Services Division of the United Nations Office at Geneva having insufficient capacity to translate documents that greatly exceed the page limits established by the General Assembly. Executive summaries of special procedures reports, if any, will, however, in all cases be translated into all the official languages.

8. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to Economic and Social Council decision 2001/287, in which the Council, taking note of Commission on Human Rights decision 2001/118, authorized, if possible from within existing financial resources, 35 fully serviced additional meetings, including summary records, in accordance with rules 29 and 31 of the rules of procedure of the functional commissions of the Economic and Social Council, for the Commission's fifty-eighth session. The Council also approved the Commission's request to the Chairperson of the Commission at its fifty-eighth session to make every effort to organize the work of the session within the times normally allotted, so that the authorized meetings would be utilized only if they proved to be absolutely necessary.

9. In connection with the present item, the Commission will have before it a note by the secretariat containing statistics relating to the fifty-seventh session of the Commission on Human Rights (E/CN.4/2002/15). The Commission will also have before it a note by the secretariat concerning the main rules and practices followed by the Commission on Human Rights in the organization of its work and the conduct of business (E/CN.4/2002/16).

10. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to Economic and Social Council resolution 1990/48 of 25 May 1990 in which the Council authorized the Commission to meet exceptionally between its regular sessions, provided that a majority of States members of the Commission so agreed. In this connection, the Economic and Social Council adopted, on 28 July 1993, decision 1993/286 on the procedure for special sessions of the Commission on Human Rights. Up to the time of preparation of the present document, the Commission has held five special sessions, the last one from 17 to 19 October 2000.

Situation of human rights in Colombia

13. In the statement on the situation of human rights in Colombia, agreed on by consensus by the Commission, made by the Chairperson on 25 April 2001, the Commission, inter alia, requested the High Commissioner for Human Rights to submit to it at its next session a detailed report containing an analysis by her Office in Bogotá of the human rights situation in Colombia, in accordance with the provisions of the agreement between the Government of Colombia and the Office of the High Commissioner on the operation of the permanent office in Bogotá (see E/2001/23-E/CN.4/2001/167, para. 54). ### Item 4. Report of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and follow-up to the World Conference on Human Rights

15. The General Assembly in its resolution 48/141 of 20 December 1993 decided to create the post of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights and, inter alia, requested the High Commissioner to report annually on her activities, in accordance with her mandate, to the Commission on Human Rights and, through the Economic and Social Council, to the General Assembly. The Commission will have before it the annual report of the High Commissioner (E/CN.4/2002/18) (see also para. 153 below).

convening of its fifty-eighth session, all information pertaining to the implementation of that resolution by the Government of Israel. It also decided to consider the situation in occupied Palestine under the present item as a matter of high priority. The Commission will have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/2002/19).

The use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination

18. At its forty-third session, the Commission, in resolution 1987/16, decided to appoint for one year a special rapporteur to examine the question of the use of mercenaries as a means of violating human rights and of impeding the exercise of the right of peoples to self-determination. Subsequently, Mr. Enrique Bernales Ballesteros (Peru) was appointed as Special Rapporteur of the Commission. In its resolution 2001/3, the Commission decided to renew for a period of three years the mandate of the Special Rapporteur. The Economic and Social Council endorsed that decision in its decision 2001/244. In its resolution the Commission requested the Special Rapporteur to report, with specific recommendations, his findings on the use of mercenaries to undermine the right to self-determination to the Commission at its fifty-eighth session. 21. In its Programme of Action, the Conference, inter alia:

(b) Requested the High Commissioner for Human Rights, in follow-up to the World Conference, to cooperate with five independent eminent experts, one from each region, appointed by the Secretary-General from among candidates proposed by the Chairperson of the Commission on Human Rights, after consultation with the regional groups, to follow the implementation of the provisions of the Declaration and Programme of Action. An annual progress report on the implementation of these provisions will be presented by the High Commissioner to the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly, taking into account information and views provided by States, relevant human rights treaty bodies, special procedures and other mechanisms of the Commission on Human Rights of the United Nations, international, regional and non-governmental organizations and national human rights institutions;

(c) Invited the Commission on Human Rights to include in mandates of the special rapporteurs and working groups of the Commission on Human Rights, in particular the Special Rapporteur on contemporary forms of racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance recommendations to consider the relevant provisions of the Declaration and the Programme of Action in the exercise of their mandates, in particular reporting to the General Assembly and the Commission on Human Rights, and also to consider any other appropriate means to follow up on the outcome on the World Conference;

(d) Recommended that the Commission on Human Rights prepare complementary international standards to strengthen and update international instruments against racism, racial discrimination, xenophobia and related intolerance in all their aspects.*

25. The attention of the Commission is also drawn to paragraph 2 of resolution 2001/1 adopted by the Sub-Commission on the Promotion and Protection of Human Rights at its fifty-third session.

Item 7. The right to development

26. The Declaration on the Right to Development was proclaimed by the General Assembly in its resolution 41/128 of 4 December 1986. The Commission decided to include this question under a separate item on its agenda in its resolution 1989/45.

27. In its resolution 1993/22, the Commission decided to establish a working group on the right to development composed of 15 experts with a mandate to identify obstacles to the implementation and realization of the Declaration on the Right to Development and to recommend ways and means towards the realization of the right to development by all States. In its resolution 1996/15, the Commission decided to establish, for a two-year period, an intergovernmental working group composed of 10 experts with the mandate to elaborate a strategy for the implementation and promotion of the right to development in its integrated and multidimensional aspects. The working group held two sessions in the period 1996-1997.

29. Upon the recommendation of the Commission in its resolution 1998/72, the Economic and Social Council, in its decision 1998/269, approved the establishment of a follow-up mechanism, initially for a period of three years, consisting of:

(a) The establishment of an open-ended working group to meet for a period of five working days each year, after the fifty-fifth and fifty-sixth sessions of the Commission, with a mandate:

- (i) To monitor and review progress made in the promotion and implementation of the right to development as elaborated in the Declaration on the Right to Development, at the national and international levels, providing recommendations thereon and further analysing obstacles to its full enjoyment, focusing each year on specific commitments in the Declaration;
- (ii) To review reports and any other information submitted by States, United Nations agencies, other relevant international organizations and non-governmental organizations on the relationship between their activities and the right to development;
- (iii) To present for the consideration of the Commission on Human Rights a sessional report on its deliberations, including, inter alia, advice to the Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights with regard to the implementation of the right to development, and suggesting possible programmes of technical assistance at the request of interested countries with the aim of promoting the implementation of the right to development;

(b) The appointment by the Chairman of the Commission on Human Rights of an independent expert with high competence in the field of the right to development, with a mandate to present to the working group at each of its sessions a study on the current state of progress in the implementation of the right to development as a basis for a focused discussion, taking into account, inter alia, the deliberations and suggestions of the working group. Mr. Arjun Sengupta (India) was subsequently appointed as the independent expert.

30. In its resolution 2001/9, the Commission decided, in view of the urgent need to make further progress towards the realization of the right to development as elaborated in the Declaration on the Right to Development, and based on the established practice of the Commission, to extend the mandate of the Open-ended working group established to monitor and review progress made in the promotion and implementation of the right to development for a further year, and to extend the mandate of the independent expert on the right to development for three years. The Economic and Social Council endorsed those decisions in its decision 2001/247.

31. In its resolutions 1998/72, 1999/79 and 2000/5, the Commission invited the High Commissioner for Human Rights to present a report to the Commission each year for the duration of the mechanism, to provide interim reports to the working group and to make those reports available to the independent expert, in each case covering:

(a) The activities of her Office relating to the implementation of the right to development as contained in her mandate;

(b) The implementation of resolutions of the Commission on Human Rights and the General Assembly with regard to the right to development;

(c) Inter-agency coordination within the United Nations system for the implementation of relevant resolutions of the Commission in that regard.

32. At the present session, the Commission will have before it the report of the High Commissioner for Human Rights (E/CN.4/2001/27).

33. The working group established under Commission resolution 1998/72 to monitor and review progress made in the promotion and implementation of the right to development is provisionally scheduled to meet from 11 to 22 February 2002. The report of the working group will be issued as document E/CN.4/2002/28.

Item 8. Question of the violation of human rights in the occupied Arab territories, including Palestine

Human rights in the occupied Syrian Golan

34. The Commission adopted resolution 2001/6 in which it requested the Secretary-General to report to the Commission at its fifty-eighth session. In this regard, the Commission will have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/2002/30).

Question of the violation of human rights in the occupied Arab territories, including Palestine

35. In its resolution 1993/2 A, the Commission decided to appoint a special rapporteur with the mandate to investigate Israel's violations of the principles and bases of international law, international humanitarian law and the Geneva Convention relative to the Protection of Civilian Persons in Time of War, of 12 August 1949, in the Palestinian territories occupied by Israel since 1967, to receive communications, to hear witnesses and to report to the Commission at its future sessions, until the end of the Israeli occupation of those territories. Following the resignation of Mr. René Felber (Switzerland) in 1995, Mr. Hannu Halinen (Finland) in 1999 and Mr. Giorgio Giacomelli (Italy) in March 2001, Mr. John Dugard (South Africa) was appointed Special Rapporteur in June 2001. The Commission will have before it the report of the Special Rapporteur (E/CN.4/2002/32).

36. At its fifty-seventh session, the Commission adopted resolution 2001/7, in which it requested the Secretary-General to report on the implementation of the resolution by the Government of Israel and to provide the Commission with all United Nations reports issued between sessions of the Commission that dealt with the conditions in which the citizens of the Palestinian and other occupied Arab territories were living under the Israeli occupation. The Commission will have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/2002/29) and a note by the Secretary-General listing the aforementioned United Nations reports (E/CN.4/2002/31).

Israeli settlements in the occupied Arab territories

37. In its resolution 2001/8, the Commission decided to continue the consideration of this question at its fifty-eighth session.

Item 9. Question of the violation of human rights and fundamental freedoms in any part of the world, including:

(a) Question of human rights in Cyprus

(b) Procedure established in accordance with Economic and Social Council resolutions 1503 (XLVIII) and 2000/3

38. In 1967, the Commission adopted resolution 8 (XXIII), in which it decided to give annual consideration to an item on the question of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms. The title of the item was later modified by the Commission. Economic and Social Council resolutions 1235 (XLII) and 1503 (XLVIII) refer to the question of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms.

39. In resolution 32/130, the General Assembly decided that, in approaching human rights questions within the United Nations system, the international community should accord, or continue to accord, priority to the search for solutions to the mass and flagrant violations of human rights of peoples and persons affected by various situations referred to in the resolution. The Assembly reiterated those views in subsequent resolutions. In resolution 34/175, entitled "Effective action against mass and flagrant violations of human rights", the Assembly urged the appropriate United Nations bodies, within their mandates, particularly the Commission, to take timely and effective action in existing and future cases of mass and flagrant violations of human rights. In resolution 37/200, the General Assembly urged all States to cooperate with the Commission in its study of violations of human rights and fundamental freedoms in any part of the world and requested the Commission to continue its efforts to improve the capacity of the United Nations system to take urgent action in cases of serious violations of human rights.

Human rights situation of the Lebanese detainees in Israel

40. At its fifty-seventh session, the Commission adopted resolution 2001/10, in which it requested the Secretary-General to bring that resolution to the attention of the Government of Israel and to call upon it to comply with its provisions, and to report to the General Assembly at its fifty-sixth session and to the Commission at its fifty-eighth session on the results of his efforts in this regard. The Economic and Social Council, in its decision 2001/248, approved the requests of the Commission. The Commission will therefore have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/2002/34).

Cooperation with representatives of United Nations human rights bodies

41. In its resolution 2001/11, the Commission invited the Secretary-General to submit a report at its fifty-eighth session containing a compilation and analysis of any available information, from all appropriate sources, on alleged reprisals against those who seek to cooperate or have cooperated with representatives of United Nations human rights bodies, or who have provided testimony or information to them; those who avail or have availed themselves of procedures established under United Nations auspices for the protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms and all those who have provided legal assistance to them for this purpose; those who submit or have submitted communications under procedures established by human rights instruments; and those who are relatives of victims of human rights violations. The Commission will have before it the report of the Secretary-General (E/CN.4/2002/36).

The situation of human rights in parts of South-Eastern Europe

42. Pursuant to Commission resolution 1992/S-1/1, Mr. Tadeusz Mazowiecki (Poland) was appointed Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in the territory of the former Yugoslavia. Following the resignation of Mr. Mazowiecki in July 1995, the Chairperson of the Commission appointed Ms. Elisabeth Rehn (Finland) Special Rapporteur. Following the resignation of Ms. Rehn in January 1998, Mr. Jiri Dienstbier (Czech Republic) was appointed Special Rapporteur, in March 1998.

43. In its resolution 2000/26, the Commission decided to renew the mandate of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights in Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Republic of Croatia and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia for one year and requested him to report to the Commission at its fifty-seventh session on the work conducted in fulfilment of the mandate and to submit an interim report to the General Assembly at its fifty-fifth session. The Commission recommended, if the commitment to and progress made on human rights and democratic principles in Croatia continued, that Croatia be considered at its fifty-seventh session under the agenda item on technical assistance and advisory services.

44. In its resolution 2001/12, the Commission:

(a) Requested the Chairperson of the Commission to appoint for one year a special representative of the Commission with a mandate to examine the situation of human rights in Bosnia and Herzegovina and the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia; in reporting on the human rights situation in Kosovo, the Special Representative should:

- (i) Consult closely with the international civilian presence, particularly representatives of the Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe;
- (ii) Closely monitor the situation, paying particular attention to those areas that remain a source of concern, including cooperation with the International Criminal Tribunal for the Former Yugoslavia, the release of unjustly detained prisoners, including Kosovar Albanians, the identification of persons missing as a result of conflict, the protection of minorities, trafficking in persons and the right of return of refugees and internally displaced persons;
- (iii) Cooperate closely with the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights offices in Belgrade and Sarajevo and with her Special Envoy on persons deprived of liberty in connection with the Kosovo crisis in the Federal Republic of Yugoslavia to avoid duplication of effort;

(b) Requested the Special Representative to submit an interim report on his/her findings to the General Assembly at its fifty-sixth session and a report to the Commission at its fifty-eighth session.

45. The Economic and Social Council, in its decision 2001/219, approved the above decisions of the Commission. At the present session, the Commission will therefore have before it the report of the Special Representative (E/CN.4/2002/41).

The documentation pertaining to the procedure is also confidential.
