Agenda item 123
THE SITUATION IN KAMPUCHEA

SECURITY COUNCIL
Thirty-fourth year

Letter dated 26 September 1979 from the Permanent Representative of Democratic Kampuchea to the United Nations addressed to the Secretary-General

I have the honour to transmit to you herewith, for your information, a report on the people's war of national resistance against the aggression of the Le Duan clique of Hanoi (issued by the Ministry of Information of Democratic Kampuchea).

I should be grateful if you would have this text circulated as an official document of the General Assembly, under agenda item 46, and of the Security Council.

(Signed) THIOUNN Prasith
Permanent Representative of Democratic Kampuchea

ANNEX

Report on the people's war of national resistance against the aggression of the Le Duan clique of Hanoi

(issued by the Ministry of Information of Democratic Kampuchea)

I. NORTHERN ZONE: Thirty-four Soviet military advisers killed and wounded in two days at Angkor Vat (Siemreap).

1. On 2 September at Angkor Vat guerrillas threw two grenades at a group of Soviet military advisers who had come to participate in the festivities organized by the Vietnamese aggressors to celebrate their national holiday. There were five dead and 13 wounded among the Soviet military advisers and seven dead and 15 wounded among the Vietnamese soldiers.

2. On the following day, 3 September, 30 Soviet advisers escorted by a company of Vietnamese soldiers went to Angkor Vat in order to carry out an inspection there. The guerrillas greeted them with two more grenades. Six Soviet military advisers were killed and 10 others wounded. Among the Vietnamese soldiers there were three dead and approximately 10 wounded.

II. CENTRAL ZONE: Kampong Cham front: One Vietnamese major-general and one major killed.

3. During the first 10 days of September in the Sandan and Stung Trâng districts (Kampong Cham front) the guerrillas launched numerous attacks against the enemy, including attacks at Andaung Pring, Dei Krahâm and Aur Pram, killing 105 persons and wounding 118. On 13 September they intercepted an enemy jeep on the Stung Trâng road. The five passengers, including a major-general and a major, were killed.

III. NORTH-WESTERN ZONE: Battambang front.

4. According to figures that are still incomplete, the guerrillas, in engagements with the Vietnamese aggressors that they initiated during the first half of September, killed and wounded almost 700 of the enemy. In particular, they halted several search operations in the Maung, Bavel and Sisophon districts and liberated two positions along Highway No. 10 - Sdok Pravek and Thmar Pruos (1 September) - and Bang Bay in the Maung district (9 September). On 4 and 7 September they attacked the enemy in the town of Pailin itself, killing 12 and wounding eight. In the Mak Hoeun sector over a period of five consecutive days the enemy was drawn into the mine fields and lost more than 40 dead and wounded. At Prek Chik (Maung district), the enemy, attempting a sortie, lost 30 dead and wounded in three days (13-15 September) and was routed.
