SECRETARY-GENERAL'S BULLETIN

SECRETARY-GENERAL'S BULLETIN

STAFF RULES - 100 SERIES

The Secretary-General, pursuant to staff regulations 12.2, 12.3 and 12.4, hereby promulgates the following:

Section 1

Revised edition of the 100 series of the Staff Rules

1.1 The revised edition of the 100 series of the Staff Rules, applicable to all staff members except those specified in rule 100.1, is attached to the present bulletin.

1.2 For ease of reference, Articles 8, 97, 100, 101 and 105 of the Charter of the United Nations, which relate to the service of the staff, are included in the introductory part of the present revision. The text of the Staff Regulations of the United Nations, which provide the authority for the issuance of these rules, is also included in the present edition, with each article of the Regulations preceding each chapter of the related rules.

1.3 The revised edition incorporates amendments to the 100 series of the Staff Rules that have been published since the last revised edition, which was promulgated by Secretary-General's bulletin ST/SGB/1999/5 of 3 June 1999.

1.4 In addition, the revised edition attached to the present bulletin incorporates the following amendments:

- (a) Staff rule 103.20, Education grant, is amended to specify that no prorating shall be required when a staff member who has one or more children in school dies while in service after the beginning of the school year;
- (b) Staff rule 104.14, Appointment and Promotion Board, is modified to implement the managed reassignment programme for junior Professional staff in accordance with section III.D of General Assembly resolution 51/226 of 3 April 1997;
- (c) Staff rule 104.15, Competitive examinations, is amended to implement the managed reassignment programme for junior Professional staff in accordance with section III.D of General Assembly resolution 51/226 by specifying that staff members appointed to the Professional level after a competitive examination shall be subject to mandatory reassignment, under conditions established by the Secretary-General;
- (d) Staff rule 105.3, Home leave, is amended to allow greater flexibility in the application of the requirement of a minimum stay in the home country, based on the need to take into account changes that have occurred in respect of mode of travel, the composition of many families and the location of eligible family members, who often work, reside or go to school in different countries;
- (e) Staff rule 109.3, Notice of termination, is amended to clarify the computation of the amount to be paid in lieu of notice;
- (f) Staff rule 109.10, Last day for pay purposes, is amended to allow the entitlement to education grant to continue for the duration of a school year that has begun when a staff member dies while in service.

Section 2

Final provisions

2.1 Unless otherwise indicated, the effective date of all changes introduced in the present revised edition is 1 January 2002.

2.2 The following bulletins are hereby abolished:

ST/SGB/1999/5 of 3 June 1999;

ST/SGB/2000/1 of 1 January 2000;

ST/SGB/2001/1 of 1 January 2001;

ST/SGB/2001/6 of 11 June 2001, which went into effect on 1 July 2001;

ST/SGB/2001/10 of 13 November 2001, which went into effect on 15 November 2001.

CHARTER OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Provisions relating to service of the staff

Article 8

The United Nations shall place no restrictions on the eligibility of men and women to participate in any capacity and under conditions of equality in its principal and subsidiary organs.

Article 97

The Secretariat shall comprise a Secretary-General and such staff as the Organization may require. The Secretary-General shall be appointed by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the Security Council. He shall be the chief administrative officer of the Organization.

Article 100

1. In the performance of their duties the Secretary-General and the staff shall not seek or receive instructions from any Government or from any other authority external to the Organization. They shall refrain from any action which might reflect on their position as international officials responsible only to the Organization.

2. Each Member of the United Nations undertakes to respect the exclusively international character of the responsibilities of the Secretary-General and the staff and not to seek to influence them in the discharge of their responsibilities.

Article 101

1. The staff shall be appointed by the Secretary-General under regulations established by the General Assembly.

2. Appropriate staff shall be permanently assigned to the Economic and Social Council, the Trusteeship Council, and, as required, to other organs of the United Nations. These staffs shall form a part of the Secretariat.

3. The paramount consideration in the employment of the staff and in the determination of the conditions of service shall be the necessity of securing the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity. Due regard shall be paid to the importance of recruiting the staff on as wide a geographical basis as possible.

Article 105

1. The Organization shall enjoy in the territory of each of its Members such privileges and immunities as are necessary for the fulfilment of its purposes.

2. Representatives of the Members of the United Nations and officials of the Organization shall similarly enjoy such privileges and immunities as are necessary for the independent exercise of their functions in connection with the Organization.

3. The General Assembly may make recommendations with a view to determining the details of the application of paragraphs 1 and 2 of this Article or may propose conventions to the Members of the United Nations for this purpose.

The General Assembly established the Staff Regulations of the United Nations according to Article 101 of the Charter by resolution 590 (VI) of 2 February 1952 and amended them thereafter by resolutions 781 (VIII) and 782 (VIII) of 9 December 1953, resolution 882 (IX) of 14 December 1954, resolution 887 (IX) of 17 December 1954, resolution 974 (X) of 15 December 1955, resolution 1095 (XI) of 27 February 1957, resolutions 1225 (XII) and 1234 (XII) of 14 December 1957, resolution 1295 (XIII) of 5 December 1958, resolution 1658 (XVI) of 28 November 1961, resolution 1730 (XVI) of 20 December 1961, resolution 1929 (XVIII) of 11 December 1963, resolution 2050 (XX) of 13 December 1965, resolution 2121 (XX) of 21 December 1965, resolution 2369 (XXII) of 19 December 1967, resolutions 2481 (XXIII) and 2485 (XXIII) of 21 December 1968, resolution 2742 (XXV) of 17 December 1970, resolution 2888 (XXVI) of 21 December 1971, resolution 2990 (XXVII) of 15 December 1972, resolution 3008 (XXVII) of 18 December 1972, resolution 3194 (XXVIII) of 18 December 1973, resolutions 3353 (XXIX) and 3358 B (XXIX) of 18 December 1974, resolution 31/141 B of 17 December 1976, resolution 32/200 and decision 32/450 B of 21 December 1977, resolution 33/119 of 19 December 1978, decision 33/433 of 20 December 1978, resolution 35/214 of 17 December 1980, decision 36/459 of 18 December 1981, resolution 37/126 of 17 December 1982, resolution 37/235 C of 21 December 1982, resolution 39/69 of 13 December 1984, resolutions 39/236 and 39/245 of 18 December 1984, decision 40/467 of 18 December 1985, resolutions 41/207 and 41/209 of 11 December 1986, resolutions 42/221 and 42/225 of 21 December 1987, resolution 43/226 of 21 December 1988, resolution 44/185 of 19 December 1989, resolution 44/198 of 21 December 1989, resolutions 45/241 and 45/251 of 21 December 1990, resolution 45/259 of 3 May 1991, resolution 46/191 of 20 December 1991, resolution 47/216 of 12 March 1993, resolution 47/226 of 30 April 1993, resolutions 48/224 and 48/225 of 23 December 1993, resolutions 49/222 and 49/223 of 23 December 1994, resolution 49/241 of 6 April 1995, resolution 51/216 of 18 December 1996, resolution 52/252 of 8 September 1998, resolution 53/209 of 18 December 1998, resolution 53/221 of 7 April 1999, resolution 54/238 and decision 54/460 of 23 December 1999, resolution 55/223 of 23 December 2000 and resolution 55/258 of 14 June 2001.

STAFF REGULATIONS OF THE UNITED NATIONS

Scope and purpose

The Staff Regulations embody the fundamental conditions of service and the basic rights, duties and obligations of the United Nations Secretariat. They represent the broad principles of personnel policy for the staffing and administration of the Secretariat. For the purposes of these Regulations, the expressions "United Nations Secretariat", "staff members" or "staff" shall refer to all the staff members of the Secretariat, within the meaning of Article 97 of the Charter of the United Nations, whose employment and contractual relationship are defined by a letter of appointment subject to regulations promulgated by the General Assembly pursuant to Article 101, paragraph 1, of the Charter. The Secretary-General, as the chief administrative officer, shall provide and enforce such staff rules consistent with these principles as he or she considers necessary.

STAFF RULES

Rule 100.1

Applicability

Staff rules 100.1 to 112.8 are applicable to all staff members appointed by the Secretary-General except technical assistance project personnel and staff members specifically engaged for conferences and other short-term services.

Article I

DUTIES, OBLIGATIONS AND PRIVILEGES

Regulation 1.1

Status of staff

(a) Staff members are international civil servants. Their responsibilities as staff members are not national but exclusively international.

(b) Staff members shall make the following written declaration witnessed by the Secretary-General or his or her authorized representative:

“I solemnly declare and promise to exercise in all loyalty, discretion and conscience the functions entrusted to me as an international civil servant of the United Nations, to discharge these functions and regulate my conduct with the interests of the United Nations only in view, and not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of my duties from any Government or other source external to the Organization.

“I also solemnly declare and promise to respect the obligations incumbent upon me as set out in the Staff Regulations and Rules.”

(c) The Secretary-General shall ensure that the rights and duties of staff members, as set out in the Charter and the Staff Regulations and Rules and in the relevant resolutions and decisions of the General Assembly, are respected.

(d) The Secretary-General shall seek to ensure that the paramount consideration in the determination of the conditions of service shall be the necessity of securing staff of the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity.

(e) The Staff Regulations apply to all staff at all levels, including staff of the separately funded organs and staff holding appointments under the 100, 200 and 300 series of the Staff Rules.

(f) The privileges and immunities enjoyed by the United Nations by virtue of Article 105 of the Charter are conferred in the interests of the Organization. These privileges and immunities furnish no excuse to the staff members who are covered by them to fail to observe laws and police regulations of the State in which they are located nor do they furnish an excuse for non-performance of their private obligations. In any case where an issue arises regarding the application of these privileges and immunities, the staff member shall immediately report the matter to the Secretary-General, who alone may decide whether such privileges and immunities exist and whether they shall be waived in accordance with the relevant instruments.

Regulation 1.2

Basic rights and obligations of staff

Core values

(a) Staff members shall uphold and respect the principles set out in the Charter, including faith in fundamental human rights, in the dignity and worth of the human person and in the equal rights of men and women. Consequently, staff members shall exhibit respect for all cultures; they shall not discriminate against any individual or group of individuals or otherwise abuse the power and authority vested in them.

(b) Staff members shall uphold the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity. The concept of integrity includes, but is not limited to, probity, impartiality, fairness, honesty and truthfulness in all matters affecting their work and status.

General rights and obligations

(c) Staff members are subject to the authority of the Secretary-General and to assignment by him or her to any of the activities or offices of the United Nations. In exercising this authority the Secretary-General shall seek to ensure, having regard to the circumstances, that all necessary safety and security arrangements are made for staff carrying out the responsibilities entrusted to them.

(d) In the performance of their duties staff members shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any Government or from any other source external to the Organization.

(e) By accepting appointment, staff members pledge themselves to discharge their functions and regulate their conduct with the interests of the Organization only in view. Loyalty to the aims, principles and purposes of the United Nations, as set forth in its Charter, is a fundamental obligation of all staff members by virtue of their status as international civil servants.

(f) While staff members' personal views and convictions, including their political and religious convictions, remain inviolable, staff members shall ensure that those views and convictions do not adversely affect their official duties or the interests of the United Nations. They shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner befitting their status as international civil servants and shall not engage in any activity that is incompatible with the proper discharge of their duties with the United Nations. They shall avoid any action and, in particular, any kind of public pronouncement that may adversely reflect on their status, or on the integrity, independence and impartiality that are required by that status.

(g) Staff members shall not use their office or knowledge gained from their official functions for private gain, financial or otherwise, or for the private gain of any third party, including family, friends and those they favour. Nor shall staff members use their office for personal reasons to prejudice the positions of those they do not favour.

(h) Staff members may exercise the right to vote but shall ensure that their participation in any political activity is consistent with, and does not reflect adversely upon, the independence and impartiality required by their status as international civil servants.

(i) Staff members shall exercise the utmost discretion with regard to all matters of official business. They shall not communicate to any Government, entity, person or any other source any information known to them by reason of their official position that they know or ought to have known has not been made public, except as appropriate in the normal course of their duties or by authorization of the Secretary-General. These obligations do not cease upon separation from service.

Honours, gifts or remuneration

(j) No staff member shall accept any honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration from any Government.

(k) If refusal of an unanticipated honour, decoration, favour or gift from a Government would cause embarrassment to the Organization, the staff member may receive it on behalf of the Organization and then report and entrust it to the Secretary-General, who will either retain it for the Organization or arrange for its disposal for the benefit of the Organization or for a charitable purpose.

(l) No staff member shall accept any honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration from any non-governmental source without first obtaining the approval of the Secretary-General.

Conflict of interest

(m) Staff members shall not be actively associated with the management of, or hold a financial interest in, any profit-making, business or other concern, if it were possible for the staff member or the profit-making, business or other concern to benefit from such association or financial interest by reason of his or her position with the United Nations.

(n) All staff members at the assistant secretary-general level and above shall be required to file financial disclosure statements upon appointment and at intervals as prescribed by the Secretary-General, in respect of themselves and their dependent children, including any substantial transfers of assets and property to spouses and dependent children from the staff member or from any other source that might constitute a conflict of interest, after knowledge of the appointment or during its tenure, to provide certification stating that there is no conflict of interest with regard to the economic activities of spouses and dependent children, and to assist the Secretary-General in verifying the above-mentioned certification on his or her special request. The financial disclosure statements will remain confidential and will only be used, as prescribed by the Secretary-General, in making determinations pursuant to staff regulation 1.2 (m).

Outside employment and activities

(o) Staff members shall not engage in any outside occupation or employment, whether remunerated or not, without the approval of the Secretary-General.

(p) The Secretary-General may authorize staff members to engage in an outside occupation or employment, whether remunerated or not, if:

- (i) The outside occupation or employment does not conflict with the staff member's official functions or the status of an international civil servant;
- (ii) The outside occupation or employment is not against the interest of the United Nations; and
- (iii) The outside occupation or employment is permitted by local law at the duty station or where the occupation or employment occurs.

Use of property and assets

(q) Staff members shall use the property and assets of the Organization only for official purposes and shall exercise reasonable care when utilizing such property and assets.

(r) Staff members must respond fully to requests for information from staff members and other officials of the Organization authorized to investigate the possible misuse of funds, waste or abuse.

Regulation 1.3

Performance of staff

(a) Staff members are accountable to the Secretary-General for the proper discharge of their functions. Staff members are required to uphold the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity in the discharge of their functions, and their performance will be appraised periodically to ensure that the required standards of performance are met.

(b) The whole time of staff members shall be at the disposal of the Secretary-General for the performance of official functions; however, the Secretary-General shall establish a normal working week and shall establish official holidays for each duty station. Exceptions may be made by the Secretary-General as the needs of the service may require, and staff members shall be required to work beyond the normal tour of duty when requested to do so.

Chapter I

DUTIES, OBLIGATIONS AND PRIVILEGES

Rule 101.1

Status of staff

The declaration made by a staff member on appointment shall be placed in his or her official status file. A new declaration shall be made after a break in service that exceeds three months.

Rule 101.2

Basic rights and obligations of staff

General

(a) Disciplinary procedures set out in article X of the Staff Regulations and chapter X of the Staff Rules may be instituted against a staff member who fails to comply with his or her obligations and the standards of conduct set out in the Charter of the United Nations, the Staff Regulations and Rules, the Financial Regulations and Rules, and all administrative issuances.

(b) Staff members shall follow the directions and instructions properly issued by the Secretary-General and their supervisors.

(c) Staff members must comply with local laws and honour their private legal obligations, including, but not limited to, the obligation to honour orders of competent courts.

Specific instances of prohibited conduct

(d) Any form of discrimination or harassment, including sexual or gender harassment, as well as physical or verbal abuse at the workplace or in connection with work, is prohibited.

(e) Staff members shall not disrupt or otherwise interfere with any meeting or other official activity of the Organization, nor shall staff members threaten, intimidate or otherwise engage in any conduct intended, directly or indirectly, to interfere with the ability of other staff members to discharge their official duties.

(f) Staff members shall not intentionally misrepresent their functions, official title or the nature of their duties to Member States or to any entities or persons external to the United Nations.

(g) Staff members shall not intentionally alter, destroy, misplace or render useless any official document, record or file entrusted to them by virtue of their functions, which document, record or file is intended to be kept as part of the records of the Organization.

(h) Staff members shall not seek to influence Member States, principal or subsidiary organs of the United Nations or expert groups in order to obtain a change from a position or decision taken by the Secretary-General, including decisions relating to the financing of Secretariat programmes or units, or in order to secure support for improving their personal situation or the personal situation of other staff members or for blocking or reversing unfavourable decisions regarding their status or their colleagues' status.

(i) Staff members shall neither offer nor promise any favour, gift, remuneration or any other personal benefit to another staff member or to any third party with a view to causing him or her to perform, fail to perform or delay the performance of any official act. Similarly, staff members shall neither seek nor accept any favour, gift, remuneration or any other personal benefit from another staff member or from any third party in exchange for performing, failing to perform or delaying the performance of any official act.

Honours, gifts or remuneration

(j) Acceptance by staff members of any honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration from non-governmental sources requires the prior approval of the Secretary-General. Approval shall be granted only in exceptional cases and where such acceptance is not incompatible with the interests of the Organization and with the staff member's status as an international civil servant. However, staff members may occasionally accept, without prior approval, minor gifts of essentially nominal value having regard to the duty station concerned, provided that all such gifts are promptly disclosed to the head of the office, who may direct that the gift be entrusted to the Organization or returned to the donor.

(k) The Secretary-General may authorize staff members to accept from a non-governmental source or a university academic awards, distinctions and tokens of a commemorative or honorary character, such as scrolls, certificates, trophies or other items of essentially nominal monetary value.

(l) Staff members, as part of their official functions, will be expected from time to time to attend governmental or other functions such as meals and diplomatic receptions. Such attendance is not considered receipt of a favour, gift or remuneration within the meaning of the Staff Regulations and Rules.

(m) The Secretary-General may, in exceptional cases, provided that this is in the interest of the United Nations and not incompatible with the staff member's status, authorize a staff member to receive from a non-governmental source an honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration other than those referred to in staff rules 101.2 (j) to (l) above.

Conflict of interest

(n) A staff member who has occasion to deal in his or her official capacity with any matter involving a profit-making, business or other concern in which he or she holds a financial interest, directly or indirectly, shall disclose the measure of that interest to the Secretary-General and, except as otherwise authorized by the Secretary-General, either dispose of that financial interest or formally excuse himself or herself from participating with regard to any involvement in that matter which gives rise to the conflict of interest situation.

(o) The Secretary-General shall establish procedures for the filing and utilization of financial disclosure statements.

Outside activities

(p) Staff members shall not, except in the normal course of official duties or with the prior approval of the Secretary-General, engage in any of the following acts, if such act relates to the purpose, activities or interests of the United Nations:

- (i) Issue statements to the press, radio or other agencies of public information;
- (ii) Accept speaking engagements;
- (iii) Take part in film, theatre, radio or television productions;

(iv) Submit articles, books or other material for publication.

(q) Membership in a political party is permitted, provided that such membership does not entail action, or an obligation to take action, by the staff member contrary to staff regulation 1.2 (h). The payment of normal financial contributions to a political party shall not be construed as an activity inconsistent with the principles set out in staff regulation 1.2 (h).

(r) The Secretary-General shall establish procedures whereby staff may seek in confidence clarification as to whether proposed outside activities would conflict with their status as international civil servants.

Travel and per diem for outside activities

(s) Staff members who are authorized by the Secretary-General to participate in activities organized by a Government, intergovernmental organization, non-governmental organization or other private source may receive from the Government, intergovernmental organization, non-governmental organization or private source accommodation and travel and subsistence allowance generally in line with those payable by the United Nations. In such cases the travel subsistence allowance that may otherwise be payable by the United Nations shall be reduced as envisaged by staff rule 107.15 (a).

Rule 101.3

Performance of staff

(a) Staff members shall be evaluated for their efficiency, competence and integrity through performance appraisal mechanisms that shall assess the staff member's compliance with the standards set out in the Staff Regulations and Rules for purposes of accountability.

(b) The Secretary-General shall seek to ensure that appropriate learning and development programmes are available for the benefit of staff.

(c) Performance reports shall be prepared regularly for all staff members, including at the assistant secretary-general level and above, in accordance with procedures promulgated by the Secretary-General.

Rule 101.4

Hours of work and official holidays

(a) The Secretary-General shall set the normal number of working hours per week for each duty station. Exceptions may be made by the Secretary-General as the needs of service may require. A staff member shall be required to work beyond the normal tour of duty whenever requested to do so.

(b) The number of official holidays at each duty station shall be ten days in each year, including those official holidays mandated by the General Assembly, which shall be observed at all duty stations. When an official holiday falls on a non-working day, the preceding or following working day which is closest to the holiday shall be observed as an official holiday.

(c) The official holidays not mandated by the General Assembly shall be determined by the Secretary-General at Headquarters, and by the head of office at other duty stations, after staff consultation.

Rule 101.5

Official holidays

(Cancelled)

Rule 101.6

Change of official duty station

A change of official duty station shall take place when a staff member is assigned from one office of the Organization to another for a fixed period exceeding six months or transferred for an indefinite period. Detailment of a staff member from his or her official duty station for service with a United Nations mission or conference shall not constitute change of official duty station within the meaning of these Rules.

Rule 101.7

Inter-agency loans and other movements

(a) The Secretary-General may loan the services of a staff member to a specialized agency or other intergovernmental organization, provided that such loan in no way diminishes the right or entitlements of the staff member under his or her letter of appointment to the United Nations. Inter-agency movements may also take place under other arrangements, i.e., secondment or transfer.

(b) Inter-agency loans, secondments and transfers are defined in and shall be governed by the Inter-organization Agreement concerning transfer, secondment or loan of staff among the organizations applying the United Nations common system of salaries and allowances.

(c) Movements of staff between the United Nations Secretariat and the secretariats of United Nations organs with separate powers of appointment shall also be governed generally by the Inter-organization Agreement.

ACC/1992/PER/CM/9.

Article II

CLASSIFICATION OF POSTS AND STAFF

Regulation 2.1

In conformity with principles laid down by the General Assembly, the Secretary-General shall make appropriate provision for the classification of posts and staff according to the nature of the duties and responsibilities required.

Article III

SALARIES AND RELATED ALLOWANCES

Regulation 3.1

Salaries of staff members shall be fixed by the Secretary-General in accordance with the provisions of annex I to the present Regulations.

Regulation 3.2

(a) The Secretary-General shall establish terms and conditions under which an education grant shall be available to a staff member residing and serving outside his or her recognized home country whose dependent child is in full-time attendance at a school, university or similar educational institution of a type that will, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, facilitate the child's reassimilation in the staff member's recognized home country. The grant shall be payable in respect of the child up to the end of the fourth year of post-secondary studies or the award of the first recognized degree, whichever is the earlier. The amount of the grant per scholastic year for each child shall be 75 per cent of the admissible educational expenses actually incurred, subject to a maximum grant as approved by the General Assembly. Travel costs of the child may also be paid for an outward and return journey once in each scholastic year between the educational institution and the duty station, except that in the case of staff members serving at designated duty stations where schools do not exist that provide schooling in the language or in the cultural tradition desired by staff members for their children, such travel costs may be paid twice in the year in which the staff member is not entitled to home leave. Such travel shall be by a route approved by the Secretary-General but not in an amount exceeding the cost of such a journey between the home country and the duty station.

(b) The Secretary-General shall also establish terms and conditions under which, at designated duty stations, an additional amount of 100 per cent of boarding costs subject to a maximum amount per year as approved by the General Assembly may be paid in respect of children in school attendance at the primary and secondary levels.

(c) The Secretary-General shall also establish terms and conditions under which an education grant shall be available to a staff member serving in a country whose language is different from his or her own and who is obliged to pay tuition for the teaching of the mother tongue to a dependent child attending a local school in which the instruction is given in a language other than his or her own.

(d) The Secretary-General shall also establish terms and conditions under which an education grant shall be available to a staff member whose child is unable, by reason of physical or mental disability, to attend a normal educational institution and therefore requires special teaching or training to prepare him or her for full integration into society or, while attending a normal educational institution, requires special teaching or training to assist him or her in overcoming the disability. The amount of this grant per year for each disabled child shall be equal to 100 per cent of the education expenses actually incurred, up to a maximum amount approved by the General Assembly.

(e) The Secretary-General may decide in each case whether the education grant shall extend to adopted children or stepchildren.

Regulation 3.3

(a) An assessment at the rates and under the conditions specified below shall be applied to the salaries and such other emoluments of staff members as are computed on the basis of salary, excluding post adjustments, provided that the Secretary-General may, where he or she deems it advisable, exempt from the assessment the salaries and emoluments of staff members engaged at locality rates.

- (b) (i) The assessment shall be calculated at the following rates for staff members whose salary rates are set forth in paragraphs 1 and 3 of annex I to the present Regulations:

Assessment

Total assessable payments (United States dollars)	Staff assessment rates for purposes of pensionable remuneration and pensions (percentage)
Up to 20,000 per year	11
20,001 to 40,000 per year	18
40,001 to 60,000 per year	25
60,001 and above per year	30

Staff assessment rates used in conjunction with gross base salaries (effective 1 March 2000)

A. Staff assessment rates for staff members with dependants:

Assessable payments (United States dollars)	Staff assessment rates for those with a dependent spouse or dependent child (percentage)
First 30,000 per year	18
Next 30,000 per year	28
Next 30,000 per year	34
Remaining assessable payments	38

B. Staff assessment for staff members without dependants:

Staff assessment amounts for those with neither a dependent spouse nor a dependent child would be equal to the differences between the gross salaries at different grades and steps and the corresponding net salaries at the single rate;

- (ii) The assessment shall be calculated at the following rates for staff members whose salary rates are established under paragraph 6 of annex I to the present Regulations:

Total assessable payments (United States dollars)	Assessment (percentage)
Up to 20,000 per year	19
20,001 to 40,000 per year	23
40,001 to 60,000 per year	26
60,001 and above per year	31

- (iii) The Secretary-General shall determine which of the scales of assessment set out in subparagraphs (i) and (ii) above shall apply to each of the groups of personnel whose salary rates are established under paragraph 5 of annex I to the present Regulations;
- (iv) In the case of staff members whose salary scales are established in currencies other than United States dollars, the relevant amounts to which the assessment applies shall be fixed at the local currency equivalent of the above-mentioned dollar amounts at the time the salary scales of the staff member concerned are approved.

(c) In the case of a person who is not employed by the United Nations for the whole of a calendar year or in cases where there is a change in the annual rate of payments made to a staff member, the rate of assessment shall be governed by the annual rate of each such payment made to him or her.

(d) The assessment computed under the foregoing provisions of the present regulation shall be collected by the United Nations by withholding it from payments. No part of the assessment so collected shall be refunded because of cessation of employment during the calendar year.

(e) Revenue derived from staff assessment not otherwise disposed of by specific resolution of the General Assembly shall be credited to the Tax Equalization Fund established by General Assembly resolution 973 A (X).

(f) Where a staff member is subject both to staff assessment under this plan and to national income taxation in respect of the salaries and emoluments paid to him or her by the United Nations, the Secretary-General is authorized to refund to him or her the amount of staff assessment collected from him or her provided that:

- (i) The amount of such refund shall in no case exceed the amount of his or her income taxes paid and payable in respect of his or her United Nations income;
- (ii) If the amount of such income taxes exceeds the amount of staff assessment, the Secretary-General may also pay to the staff member the amount of such excess;
- (iii) Payments made in accordance with the provisions of the present regulation shall be charged to the Tax Equalization Fund;
- (iv) A payment under the conditions prescribed in the three preceding subparagraphs is authorized in respect of dependency benefits and post adjustments, which are not subject to staff assessment but may be subject to national income taxation.

Regulation 3.4

(a) Staff members whose salary rates are set forth in paragraphs 1 and 3 of annex I to the present Regulations shall be entitled to receive dependency allowances for a dependent child, for a disabled child and for a secondary dependant at rates approved by the General Assembly as follows:

- (i) The staff member shall receive an allowance for each dependent child, except that the allowance shall not be paid in respect of the first dependent child if the staff member has no dependent spouse, in which case the staff member shall be entitled to the dependency rate of staff assessment under subparagraph (b) (i) of regulation 3.3;
- (ii) The staff member shall receive a special allowance for each disabled child. However, if the staff member has no dependent spouse and is entitled to the dependency rate of staff assessment under subparagraph (b) (i) of regulation 3.3 in respect of a disabled child, the allowance shall be the same as the allowance for a dependent child in (i) above;
- (iii) Where there is no dependent spouse, a single annual allowance shall be paid for a secondary dependant in respect of either a dependent parent, a dependent brother or a dependent sister.

(b) If both husband and wife are staff members, one may claim, for dependent children, under subparagraph (a) (i) and (ii) above, in which case the other may claim only under subparagraph (a) (iii) above, if otherwise entitled.

(c) With a view to avoiding duplication of benefits and in order to achieve equality between staff members who receive dependency benefits under applicable laws in the form of governmental grants and staff members who do not receive such dependency benefits, the Secretary-General shall prescribe conditions under which the dependency allowance for a child specified in subparagraph (a) (i) above shall be payable only to the extent that the dependency benefits enjoyed by the staff member or his or her spouse under applicable laws amount to less than such a dependency allowance.

(d) Staff members whose salary rates are set by the Secretary-General under paragraph 5 or 6 of annex I to the present Regulations shall be entitled to receive dependency allowances at rates and under conditions determined by the Secretary-General, due regard being given to the circumstances in the locality in which the office is located.

(e) Claims for dependency allowances shall be submitted in writing and supported by evidence satisfactory to the Secretary-General. A separate claim for dependency allowances shall be made each year.

Chapter III

SALARIES AND RELATED ALLOWANCES

Rule 103.0

Salary scales for Language Teachers

The Secretary-General shall set the salary scales and conditions of salary increments for staff members appointed as language teachers and these rates and conditions shall be published in appendix F to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

Rule 103.1

Salary scales for Field Service personnel

The salary scales and conditions of salary increments for staff members in the Field Service category shall be those set forth in appendix A (Field Service) to these Rules.

Rule 103.2

Salary scales for General Service personnel

The Secretary-General shall set the salary scales and conditions of salary increments for staff members in the General Service category at each established office, and these rates and conditions shall be published in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

Rule 103.3

Wage rates for Trades and Crafts personnel

The Secretary-General shall set wage rates and conditions of wage increments for staff members in the Trades and Crafts category at each established office, and these rates and conditions shall be published in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

Rule 103.4

Salary and wages for locally recruited mission personnel

The Secretary-General shall set salary or wage rates for personnel specifically recruited for service with a mission from within the general area of the mission.

Rule 103.5

Non-resident's allowance

(a) Staff members in the General Service category serving at designated duty stations who have been recruited from outside the country in which the duty station is located or in respect of whom the United Nations assumes an obligation to repatriate shall receive a non-resident's allowance under conditions determined by the Secretary-General, provided that in no case shall the allowance be paid to a staff member whose nationality within the meaning of rule 104.8 is that of the country of the duty station or to a staff member while he or she is excluded under rule 104.7. The non-resident's allowance shall be payable at the rate of $2,400 a year for a staff member with no dependent spouse or child and at the rate of $3,000 a year for a staff member with a dependent spouse or child. The allowance shall be paid for a maximum period of five years at the duty station. Where both husband and wife are staff members entitled to the non-resident's allowance, the allowance will be paid to each at the single rate. If they have a dependent child or children, the allowance will be paid at the dependency rate to the spouse having the higher salary level and at the single rate to the other spouse.

(b) Members of the Field Service and staff members recruited specifically for service with a mission shall not be eligible for the non-resident's allowance.

(c) The non-resident's allowance shall not be taken into account in determining Joint Staff Pension Fund, medical and group insurance contributions; overtime and night differential compensation; and payments and indemnities on separation.

(d) As a transitional measure, staff members who were in receipt of a non-resident's allowance on 31 August 1983 may continue, while eligible, to receive the non-resident's allowance at the rate and in accordance with the provisions in effect before 1 September 1983.

Rule 103.6

Language allowance

(a) A staff member in the General Service, Security Service or Trades and Crafts category, or in the Field Service category up to and including level 5, shall be paid a language allowance if he or she has demonstrated proficiency in any two official United Nations languages, unless the entitlement is specifically excluded in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station or in the conditions of service for locally recruited staff at special missions. Staff members whose mother tongue is an official language of the Organization must pass the prescribed examination in another official language, which may be the language in which proficiency is required for their job, in which case the language proficiency examination in the mother tongue may be waived. Staff members whose mother tongue is not an official language must pass the examination in a language other than that in which proficiency is required for their job. A second language allowance shall be paid for proficiency demonstrated by passing the prescribed test in a third official language. No staff member shall be paid a language allowance for more than two official languages.

(b) Proficiency tests in the use of official languages shall be held not less than once each year.

(c) Staff members in receipt of a language allowance may be required to undergo further tests at intervals of not less than five years in order to demonstrate their continued proficiency in the use of two or more official languages.

(d) The amount of the allowance payable at each duty station shall be determined by the Secretary-General, provided that the amount payable for a second language shall be half the amount payable for the first additional language. The amount of the allowance payable to staff in the General Service category shall be shown in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

(e) The language allowance shall be taken into account in determining Joint Staff Pension Fund, medical and group insurance contributions; overtime and night differential compensation; and payments and indemnities on separation.

Rule 103.7

Post adjustment

(a) Subject to paragraph (d) below, post adjustments under annex I, paragraph 8, to the Staff Regulations shall be applied in accordance with paragraph (b) below in the case of staff members in the Professional and higher categories and in the Field Service category who are assigned to a duty station for one year or more.

(b) (i) The amount of post adjustment for each level and step of the Professional and higher categories and in the Field Service category shall be determined for each duty station by applying the multiplier of the post adjustment classification for the duty station to 1 per cent of the corresponding net base salary rates;

(ii) A staff member who is entitled to salary at the dependency rate shall be paid post adjustment calculated on the basis of such salary regardless of where the dependants reside.

(c) (Cancelled)

(d) While the salary of a staff member is normally subject to the post adjustment of his or her duty station during assignments for one year or more, alternative arrangements may be made by the Secretary-General under the following circumstances:

(i) A staff member who is assigned to a duty station classified lower in the schedule of post adjustments than the duty station in which he or she has been serving may continue to receive for up to six months the post adjustment applicable to the former duty station while the members of his or her immediate family (spouse and children) remain at that duty station;

(ii) When a staff member is assigned to a duty station for less than one year, the Secretary-General shall decide at that time whether to apply the post adjustment applicable to the duty station and, if appropriate, to pay an assignment grant under rule 107.20 and the hardship and non-removal elements of the mobility and hardship allowance under rule 103.22 or, in lieu of the above, to authorize appropriate subsistence payments;

(iii) When the Secretary-General designates an assignment as a special mission assignment under rule 103.21 (a), with provision for mission subsistence allowance, the post adjustment for the mission area will not be applicable.

(e) At duty stations where the average rental cost used in calculating the post adjustment index is based on the cost of housing provided by the United Nations, by the Government or by a related institution, staff members who have to rent housing accommodation at substantially higher commercial rates will be paid a supplement to the post adjustment in the form of a rental subsidy under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Rule 103.8

Salary and wage increments

(a) Satisfactory service for the purpose of awarding a salary increment shall be defined, unless otherwise decided by the Secretary-General in any particular case, as satisfactory performance and conduct of staff members in their assignments as evaluated by their supervisors.

(b) Notwithstanding paragraph (a) of this rule, in the absence of exceptional circumstances, salary increments falling due within a month of the date on which a review of a probationary appointment is due shall be withheld until a permanent appointment has been granted or the probationary period extended. Salary increments granted under this paragraph shall become effective in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) below.

(c) Salary and wage increments shall be effective on the first day of the pay period in which the service requirements are completed, provided that the period of service may be shortened to meet the requirements of rule 103.9 and that such increments shall not be effective earlier than the first day of the pay period in which a staff member returns to pay status from a period of leave without pay. No increment shall be paid in the case of staff members whose services will cease during the month in which the increment would otherwise have been due.

(d) If a staff member with satisfactory service is changed to a lower salary level, the period of service since the last increment shall be credited towards the next increment within the lower level. If a staff member whose service has not been satisfactory is changed to a lower salary level, the staff member's eligibility for salary increment in the lower level will be based on satisfactory service in the lower level.

Rule 103.9

Salary policy in promotions

(a) On promotion, a staff member shall be placed at the lowest step in the level to which he or she has been promoted that provides an increase in net base salary equal to at least the amount that would have resulted from the granting of two steps at the lower level.

(b) If promotion is effective on the month in which an increment at the lower level is due, such increment will be included in the salary at the lower level, to which two steps will then be added to determine the staff member's salary on promotion in accordance with paragraph (a) above.

(c) The date of the first salary increment at the higher level shall be the anniversary date of promotion, except that:

(i) In the case of those increments that require two years of satisfactory service, the first increment at the higher level will become due two years from the date of promotion; and

(ii) In the case of accelerated increments, the first increment at the higher level will become due ten or twenty months from the date of promotion, as appropriate.

(d) On promotion from the General Service and related categories to the Professional category and in order to determine, in accordance with paragraph (a) above, the step that should be granted within the level to which the staff member is promoted, the following emoluments shall also be taken into account:

(i) The net amount of any pensionable allowance that the staff member received at the lower level; and

(ii) The post adjustment that, at the duty station where the staff member was serving prior to promotion, corresponds to the net base salary at the single rate for the level and step in the Professional category to which the staff member is promoted.

(e) Where the total net remuneration before promotion of a staff member in the General Service and related categories exceeds that at the Professional level before promotion, established in accordance with subparagraph (d) above, a personal transitional allowance in an amount sufficient to meet the requirements of subparagraph (a) will be paid until such time as it is overtaken by increases in net remuneration at the Professional level.

Rule 103.10

(Cancelled)

Rule 103.11

Special post allowance

(a) Staff members shall be expected to assume temporarily, as a normal part of their customary work and without extra compensation, the duties and responsibilities of higher level posts.

(b) Without prejudice to the principle that promotion under staff rule 104.14 shall be the normal means of recognizing increased responsibilities and demonstrated ability, a staff member who is called upon to assume the full duties and responsibilities of a post at a clearly recognizable higher level than his or her own for a temporary period exceeding three months may, in exceptional cases, be granted a non-pensionable special post allowance from the beginning of the fourth month of service at the higher level.

(c) In the case of a staff member assigned to serve on a mission, or when a staff member in the General Service category is required to serve in a higher level post in the Professional category, or when a staff member in any category is required to serve in a post which is classified more than one level above his or her level, the allowance may be paid immediately when the staff member assumes the higher duties and responsibilities.

(d) The amount of the special post allowance shall be equivalent to the salary increase (including post adjustment and dependency allowances, if any) which the staff member would have received had the staff member been promoted to the next higher level.

Rule 103.12

Overtime and compensatory time off

(a) Staff members serving at established offices in the Trades and Crafts category, in the General Service category or in the Field Service who are required to work in excess of the working week established for this purpose shall be given compensatory time off or may receive additional payment, under conditions established by the Secretary-General. In the case of staff members in the Trades and Crafts category and in the General Service category, these conditions shall be set forth in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

(b) Should the exigencies of service permit, and subject to the prior approval of the Secretary-General, occasional compensatory time off may be granted to staff members serving at established offices in the Professional category who have been required to work substantial or recurrent periods of overtime.

(c) The Secretary-General may set the conditions for overtime work or compensatory time off for staff members serving on missions or on other assignments away from their duty stations.

Rule 103.13

Night differential

- (a) Staff members serving at established offices who are assigned to night-time tours of duty shall receive a night differential at a rate and under conditions set forth in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station.
- (b) When members of the Field Service are serving at an established office they may be paid a night differential under conditions established by the Secretary-General.
- (c) Unless otherwise specifically provided in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station, night differential shall not be paid for the same work for which overtime payment or compensatory time off is allowed or for any hours when the staff member is on leave or in travel status.
- (d) The Secretary-General shall set the conditions regarding night-time tours of duty in respect of missions.

Rule 103.14

Salary advances

- (a) Salary advances may be made to staff members under the following circumstances and conditions:
 - (i) Upon departure on extended official travel or on approved leave involving absence from duty for seventeen or more calendar days, including the end-month pay day, for staff members who work at duty stations where salary payments are still paid by cheque rather than direct deposit, in the amount that would fall due for payment during the anticipated pay period(s) occurring during the staff member's absence;
 - (ii) In cases where staff members have not received their regular pay cheque through no fault of their own, in the amount due;
 - (iii) Upon separation from service, where final settlement of pay accounts cannot be made at the time of departure, subject to the advance not exceeding 80 per cent of the estimated final net payments due;
 - (iv) In cases where new staff members arrive without sufficient funds, in such amount as the Secretary-General may deem appropriate;
 - (v) Upon change of official duty station or detail to mission duty, in such amounts as the Secretary-General may deem appropriate.
- (b) The Secretary-General may, in exceptional and compelling circumstances, and if the request of the staff member is supported by a detailed justification in writing, authorize an advance for any reason other than those enumerated above.
- (c) Salary advances other than those referred to in subparagraphs (a) (i), (ii) and (iii) above shall be liquidated at a constant rate as determined at the time the advance is authorized, in consecutive pay periods, commencing not later than the period following that in which the advance is made.

Rule 103.15

Retroactivity of payments

A staff member who has not been receiving an allowance, grant or other payment to which he or she is entitled shall not receive retroactively such allowance, grant or payment unless the staff member has made written claim:

- (i) In the case of the cancellation or modification of the staff rule governing eligibility, within three months following the date of such cancellation or modification;
- (ii) In every other case, within one year following the date on which the staff member would have been entitled to the initial payment.

Rule 103.16

Pensionable remuneration

(a) The pensionable remuneration of a staff member shall, except as provided in paragraph (c) below, be in accordance with articles 1 (q) and 54 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund.

(b) The pensionable remuneration of staff members in the Field Service category shall be established in the same manner as for staff in the Professional and higher categories.

(c) Where a promotion from the General Service category to the Professional category would result in a reduction of the pensionable remuneration used for computing the final average remuneration, the level of pensionable remuneration reached prior to the promotion shall be maintained until it is surpassed by that applicable to the staff member's grade and step in the Professional category. Contributions payable in accordance with article 25 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund shall be based on either:

- (i) The pensionable remuneration of the staff member used to determine such contributions at the time of promotion; or
- (ii) The pensionable remuneration applicable to the staff member's grade and step in the Professional category, whichever is higher.

Rule 103.17

Staff assessment

(a) In application of the staff assessment plan under staff regulation 3.3:

- (i) Salaries for staff members in the Professional and higher categories and for Field Service personnel shall be subject to the assessment rates specified in subparagraph (b) (i) of that regulation;
- (ii) Salaries or wages for staff members in the General Service category, for Trades and Crafts and for locally recruited mission personnel shall be subject to the assessment rates specified in subparagraph (b) (ii) of that regulation.

- (b) The dependency rates of staff assessment under staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i) shall apply when:
- (i) The staff member's spouse is recognized as a dependant under rule 103.24; or
 - (ii) The staff member provides substantial and continuing support to one or more of his or her children.
- (c) Where both husband and wife are staff members whose salaries are subject to the staff assessment rates specified in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i), and taking into account rule 104.10 (d), staff assessment shall apply to each at the single rate. If they have a dependent child or children, the dependency rate shall apply to the spouse having the higher salary level and the single rate to the other spouse.

Rule 103.18

Deductions and contributions

- (a) There shall be deducted, each pay period, from the total payments due to each staff member:
- (i) Staff assessment, at the rates and subject to the conditions prescribed in staff regulation 3.3 and rule 103.17;
 - (ii) Contributions to the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund in accordance with article 25 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund and rule 103.16.
- (b) Deductions from salaries, wages and other emoluments may also be made for the following purposes:
- (i) For contributions, other than to the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, for which provision is made under these Rules;
 - (ii) For indebtedness to the United Nations;
 - (iii) For indebtedness to third parties when any deduction for this purpose is authorized by the Secretary-General;
 - (iv) For lodging provided by the United Nations, by a Government or by a related institution;
 - (v) For contributions to a staff representative body established pursuant to staff regulation 8.1, provided that each staff member has the opportunity to withhold his or her consent to, or at any time to discontinue, such deduction, by notice to the Secretary-General.

Rule 103.19

(Cancelled)

Rule 103.20

Education grant

Definitions

- (a) For the purposes of this rule:
 - (i) “Child” means a child of a staff member who is dependent on the staff member for main and continuing support;
 - (ii) “Disabled child” means a child who is unable, by reasons of physical or mental disability, to attend a normal educational institution and requires special teaching or training to prepare him or her for full integration into society or, while attending a normal educational institution, requires special teaching or training to assist him or her in overcoming the disability;
 - (iii) “Home country” means the country of home leave of the staff member under rule 105.3. If both parents are eligible staff members, “home country” means the country of home leave of either parent;
 - (iv) “Duty station” means the country, or area within commuting distance notwithstanding national boundaries, where the staff member is serving.

Eligibility

- (b) Subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General, a staff member shall be entitled to an education grant in respect of each child, provided that:
 - (i) The staff member is regarded as an international recruit under rule 104.7 and resides and serves at a duty station which is outside his or her home country;
 - (ii) The child is in full-time attendance at a school, university or similar educational institution; and
 - (iii) The appointment or assignment of the staff member is for a minimum of six months or, if initially for a period of less than six months, is extended so that total continuous service is at least six months.
- (c) If a staff member eligible under paragraph (b) is reassigned to a duty station within his or her home country in the course of a school year, he or she may receive the education grant for the balance of that school year.
- (d) The Secretary-General may also authorize payment of the education grant during mission service of not less than six months to a staff member regarded under rule 104.6 as a local recruit at his or her normal duty station.

Duration

- (e) (i) The grant shall be payable up to the end of the school year in which the child completes four years of post-secondary studies or is awarded the first recognized degree, whichever is earlier;

- (ii) The grant will not normally be payable beyond the school year in which the child reaches the age of twenty-five years. If the child's education is interrupted for at least one school year by national service, illness or other compelling reasons, the period of eligibility shall be extended by the period of interruption.

Amount of the grant

(f) The amounts to which a staff member may be entitled under the grant are set out in appendix G to these Rules.

(g) The amount of the grant to be paid when the staff member's period of service or the child's school attendance does not cover the full school year shall be prorated under conditions to be defined by the Secretary-General. No prorating shall be required when the staff member dies while in service after the beginning of the school year.

Travel

(h) A staff member to whom an education grant is payable under paragraphs (i), (ii) or (iv) of appendix G in respect of the child's attendance at an educational institution shall be entitled to travel expenses for the child of one return journey each scholastic year between the educational institution and the duty station, under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

(i) Two return journeys may be paid for children of eligible staff serving at designated duty stations, under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Tuition in the mother tongue

(j) Tuition in the mother tongue under staff regulation 3.2(c) may be reimbursed subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Special education grant for disabled children

(k) A special education grant for disabled children shall be available to staff members of all categories, whether or not serving in their home country, provided that they have an appointment of six months or longer or have completed six months of continuous service. The amounts to which a staff member is entitled under the grant are set out in appendix G to these Rules, under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Claims

(l) Claims for the education grant shall be made in accordance with conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Rule 103.21

Salary and allowances during mission assignments

(a) The Secretary-General may designate special mission assignments, including assignments for periods of one year or more, during which a mission subsistence allowance shall be authorized in lieu of the mobility and hardship allowance under rule 103.22, the assignment grant under rule 107.20 and any post adjustment to the area applicable under rule 103.7 (a). Where such a designation has been made, the mission subsistence allowance shall be payable to staff members recruited or assigned from outside the area of the mission, and the salaries of staff members assigned from another duty station shall continue to be subject to the post adjustment and allowances, if any, applicable at the duty station from which the staff members were assigned.

(b) The Secretary-General shall set the rates and conditions for the mission subsistence allowance payable on each such assignment. Eligible staff members who have a dependent spouse or one or more dependent children may be authorized to receive a higher rate of mission subsistence allowance than staff members not having such dependants. Where both husband and wife are staff members who are entitled to mission subsistence allowance, and taking into account rule 104.10 (d), the allowance will be paid to each at the single rate. If they have a dependent child or children, the allowance will be paid at the dependency rate to the spouse having the higher salary level and at the single rate to the other spouse. The allowance may be paid wholly or partially in the currency of the mission area or in the form of provision of food and/or lodging in kind.

(c) The Secretary-General may pay a clothing allowance to staff members who are assigned to service with a mission in a tropical or arctic area. The United Nations shall provide uniforms and accessories, but no clothing allowance, to members of the Field Service who are required to wear them.

Rule 103.22

Assignment allowance

(Cancelled)

Rule 103.22

Mobility and hardship allowance

General provisions

(a) As an incentive to mobility and to compensate for hardship and non-removal of personal effects and household goods, a non-pensionable allowance composed of three elements - mobility, hardship and non-removal - shall be payable to staff members at rates approved by the General Assembly, under conditions set out in this rule and supplemented by the Secretary-General.

(b) Staff in the Professional category and above and in the Field Service category, and internationally recruited staff in the General Service category, shall be eligible for payment of the allowance when they have been initially appointed under these Rules to a duty station, or reassigned to a new duty station, under conditions which normally involve payment of the assignment grant.

Mobility element

(c) The mobility element of the allowance shall be payable provided that:

(i) The staff member is eligible under paragraph (b) above and has served in the United Nations common system for a period of five consecutive years; and

(ii) The staff member is assigned to a second or subsequent duty station. However, in the case of staff serving at headquarters duty stations or other duty stations classified in the same category for the purpose of this rule, three previous assignments shall be required, of which at least two must have been at duty stations classified at hardship levels established by the Secretary-General.

(d) The mobility element of the allowance may be adjusted under terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Hardship element

(e) The hardship element of the allowance shall be payable to eligible staff members who are assigned to duty stations which carry a hardship entitlement, as determined by the Secretary-General. This element shall be payable at the level of the hardship classification of the duty station for the duration of the staff member's assignment.

Non-removal element

(f) The non-removal element of the allowance shall be payable to eligible staff members who, on assignment to a duty station, did not have an entitlement to removal costs under rule 107.27, provided that an entitlement to the assignment grant exists.

(g) Where the assignment is for two years or longer, removal costs under rule 107.27 shall normally be paid in the case of service at headquarters duty stations or other duty stations classified in the same category; the non-removal element shall normally be paid in the case of service at all other duty stations.

(h) Payment of the non-removal element shall be limited to a period of five years at one duty station, with a possible extension of up to two years on an exceptional basis.

Rule 103.23

Dependency allowances

(a) The dependency rates applicable to the Field Service category shall be set out in appendix A to these Rules. The rates of dependency allowances applicable to the General Service and Trades and Crafts categories shall be set out in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station. The rates of dependency allowances applicable to Language Teachers shall be set out in appendix F to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

(b) Subject to the provisions of staff regulation 3.4 (a), the full amount of the dependency allowance provided under that regulation and the Staff Rules in respect of a dependent child shall be payable, except where the staff member or his or her spouse receives a direct governmental grant in respect of the same child. Where such a governmental grant is made, the dependency allowance payable under this rule shall be the approximate amount by which the governmental grant is less than the dependency allowance set out under the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules. In no case shall the sum of the two payments be less than the rate set out under the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules.

(c) Staff members shall be responsible for notifying the Secretary-General in writing of claims for dependency allowance and may be required to support such claims by documentary evidence satisfactory to the Secretary-General. They shall be responsible for reporting to the Secretary-General any change in the status of a dependant affecting the payment of this allowance.

(d) A dependency allowance shall be paid in respect of not more than one dependent parent, brother or sister, and such payment shall not be made when a payment is being made for a dependent spouse.

Rule 103.24

Definition of dependency

For the purposes of the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules:

(a) A dependent spouse shall be a spouse whose occupational earnings, if any, do not exceed the lowest entry level of the United Nations General Service gross salary scales in force on 1 January of the year concerned for the duty station in the country of the spouse's place of work, provided that, in the case of staff in the Professional category or above, the amount shall not at any duty station be less than the equivalent of the lowest entry level at the base of the salary system (G-2, step I, for New York).

(b) A "dependent child" shall be:

- (i) A staff member's natural or legally adopted child; or
- (ii) A staff member's stepchild, if residing with the staff member, under the age of eighteen years or, if the child is in full-time attendance at a school or university (or similar educational institution), under the age of twenty-one years, for whom the staff member provides main and continuing support. The Secretary-General shall establish special conditions under which other children, who fulfil the age, school attendance and support requirements indicated above, may be regarded as dependent children of a staff member. If a child over the age of eighteen years is physically or mentally incapacitated for substantial gainful employment, either permanently or for a period expected to be of long duration, the requirements as to school attendance and age shall be waived.

(c) A staff member claiming a child as a dependant must certify that he or she provides main and continuous support. This certificate must be supported by documentary evidence satisfactory to the Secretary-General, if a child:

- (i) Does not reside with the staff member;
- (ii) Is married; or
- (iii) Is regarded as a dependant under the special conditions referred to above.

(d) A secondary dependant shall be the father, mother, brother or sister of whose financial support the staff member provides one half or more, and in any case at least twice the amount of the dependency allowance, provided that the brother or sister fulfils the same age and school attendance requirements established for a dependent child. If the brother or sister is physically or mentally incapacitated for substantial gainful employment, either permanently or for a period expected to be of long duration, the requirements as to school attendance and age shall be waived.

Article IV

APPOINTMENT AND PROMOTION

Regulation 4.1

As stated in Article 101 of the Charter, the power of appointment of staff members rests with the Secretary-General. Upon appointment, each staff member, including a staff member on secondment from government service, shall receive a letter of appointment in accordance with the provisions of annex II to the present Regulations and signed by the Secretary-General or by an official in the name of the Secretary-General.

Regulation 4.2

The paramount consideration in the appointment, transfer or promotion of the staff shall be the necessity of securing the highest standards of efficiency, competence and integrity. Due regard shall be paid to the importance of recruiting the staff on as wide a geographical basis as possible.

Regulation 4.3

In accordance with the principles of the Charter, selection of staff members shall be made without distinction as to race, sex or religion. So far as practicable, selection shall be made on a competitive basis.

Regulation 4.4

Subject to the provisions of Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter, and without prejudice to the recruitment of fresh talent at all levels, the fullest regard shall be had, in filling vacancies, to the requisite qualifications and experience of persons already in the service of the United Nations. This consideration shall also apply, on a reciprocal basis, to the specialized agencies brought into relationship with the United Nations. The Secretary-General may limit eligibility to apply for vacant posts to be filled by staff members appointed for one year or longer under the 100 series of the Staff Rules to internal candidates, as defined by the Secretary-General. If so, other candidates shall be allowed to apply, under conditions to be defined by the Secretary-General, when no internal candidate meets the requirements of Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter as well as the requirements of the post.

Regulation 4.5

(a) Appointment of Under-Secretaries-General and of Assistant Secretaries-General shall normally be for a period of five years, subject to prolongation or renewal. Other staff members shall be granted either permanent or temporary appointments under such terms and conditions consistent with the present Regulations as the Secretary-General may prescribe.

(b) The Secretary-General shall prescribe which staff members are eligible for permanent appointments. The probationary period for granting or confirming a permanent appointment shall normally not exceed two years, provided that in individual cases the Secretary-General may extend the probationary period for not more than one additional year.

Regulation 4.6

The Secretary-General shall establish appropriate medical standards that staff members shall be required to meet before appointment.

Chapter IV

APPOINTMENT AND PROMOTION

Rule 104.1

Letter of appointment

The letter of appointment granted to every staff member contains expressly or by reference all the terms and conditions of employment. All contractual entitlements of staff members are strictly limited to those contained expressly or by reference in their letters of appointment.

Rule 104.2

Effective date of appointment

(a) The appointment of every locally recruited staff member shall take effect from the date on which the staff member starts to perform his or her duties.

(b) The appointment of every staff member internationally recruited shall take effect from the date on which the staff member enters into official travel status to assume his or her duties or, if no official travel is involved, from the date on which the staff member starts to perform his or her duties.

Rule 104.3

Re-employment

(a) A former staff member who is re-employed shall be given a new appointment or, if re-employed within twelve months of being separated from service or within any longer period following retirement or disability under the Joint Staff Pension Fund Regulations, he or she may be reinstated in accordance with paragraph (b) below. If the former staff member is reinstated, it shall be so stipulated in his or her letter of appointment. If he or she is given a new appointment, its terms shall be fully applicable without regard to any period of former service, except that such former service may be counted for the purpose of determining seniority in grade. However, where a staff member of the United Nations common system is granted a new appointment within twelve months of separation, any entitlement, benefit or accrual the staff member may have when separated for a second time should be adjusted in such a way that the total payments for the first and second separation do not exceed the amounts which would have been paid had the service been continuous.

(b) On reinstatement the staff member's services shall be considered as having been continuous, and the staff member shall return to the United Nations any moneys he or she received on account of separation, including termination indemnity under rule 109.4, repatriation grant under rule 109.5 and payment for accrued annual leave under rule 109.8. The interval between separation and reinstatement shall be charged, to the extent possible and necessary, to annual leave, with any further period charged to special leave without pay. The staff member's sick leave credit under rule 106.2 at the time of separation shall be re-established; the staff member's participation, if any, in the Joint Staff Pension Fund shall be governed by the Regulations of that Fund.

Notification by staff members and obligation to supply information

(a) Staff members shall be responsible on appointment for supplying the Secretary-General with whatever information may be required for the purpose of determining their status under the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules or of completing administrative arrangements in connection with their appointments.

(b) Staff members shall also be responsible for promptly notifying the Secretary-General, in writing, of any subsequent changes affecting their status under the Staff Regulations or Staff Rules.

(c) A staff member who intends to acquire permanent residence status in any country other than that of his or her nationality or who intends to change his or her nationality shall notify the Secretary-General of that intention before the change in residence status or in nationality becomes final.

(d) A staff member who is arrested, charged with an offence other than a minor traffic violation or summoned before a court as a defendant in a criminal proceeding, or convicted, fined or imprisoned for any offence other than a minor traffic violation shall immediately report the fact to the Secretary-General.

(e) A staff member may at any time be required by the Secretary-General to supply information concerning facts anterior to his or her appointment and relevant to his or her suitability, or concerning facts relevant to his or her integrity, conduct and service as a staff member.

Rule 104.5

Geographical distribution

Recruitment on as wide a geographical basis as possible, in accordance with the requirements of staff regulation 4.2, shall not apply to posts in the General Service category or in similar salary levels.

Rule 104.6

Local recruitment

(a) The conditions under which staff members shall be regarded as local recruits for the purposes of these Rules at each duty station, including missions, are set forth in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

(b) A staff member regarded as having been locally recruited shall not be eligible for the allowances or benefits indicated under rule 104.7.

Rule 104.7

International recruitment

(a) Staff members other than those regarded under rule 104.6 as having been locally recruited shall be considered as having been internationally recruited. The allowances and benefits in general available to internationally recruited staff members include: payment of travel expenses upon initial appointment and on separation for themselves and their spouses and dependent children, removal of household effects, non-resident's allowance, home leave, education grant and repatriation grant.

(b) Members of the Field Service and staff members recruited specifically for mission service shall not be eligible for non-resident's allowance or removal of household effects.

(c) A staff member who has changed his or her residential status in such a way that he or she may, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, be deemed to be a permanent resident of any country other than that of his or her nationality may lose entitlement to non-resident's allowance, home leave, education grant, repatriation grant and payment of travel expenses upon separation for the staff member and his or her spouse and dependent children and removal of household effects, based upon place of home leave, if the Secretary-General considers that the continuation of such entitlement would be contrary to the purposes for which the allowance or benefit was created. Conditions governing entitlement to international benefits in the light of residential status are shown in appendix B to these Rules applicable to the duty station.

Rule 104.8

Nationality

(a) In the application of Staff Regulations and Staff Rules, the United Nations shall not recognize more than one nationality for each staff member.

(b) When a staff member has been legally accorded nationality status by more than one State, the staff member's nationality for the purposes of the Staff Regulations and these Rules shall be the nationality of the State with which the staff member is, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, most closely associated.

Rule 104.9

(Cancelled)

Rule 104.10

Family relationships

(a) Except where another person equally well qualified cannot be recruited, appointment shall not be granted to a person who bears any of the following relationships to a staff member: father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister.

(b) The husband or wife of a staff member may be appointed provided that he or she is fully qualified for the post for which he or she is being considered and that the spouse is not given any preference by virtue of the relationship to the staff member.

(c) A staff member who bears to another staff member any of the relationships specified in (a) and (b) above:

(i) Shall not be assigned to serve in a post which is superior or subordinate in the line of authority to the staff member to whom he or she is related;

(ii) Shall disqualify himself or herself from participating in the process of reaching or reviewing an administrative decision affecting the status or entitlements of the staff member to whom he or she is related.

(d) The marriage of one staff member to another shall not affect the contractual status of either spouse, but their entitlements and other benefits shall be modified as provided in the relevant Staff Regulations and Rules. The same modifications shall apply in the case of a staff member whose spouse is a staff member of another organization participating in the United Nations common system. Where both husband and wife are staff members and maintain separate households because they are assigned to different duty stations, the Secretary-General may decide to maintain such separate entitlements and benefits, provided that this is not inconsistent with any staff regulation or other decision of the General Assembly.

Internal candidates and internal vacancies

For the purpose of staff regulation 4.4, the expression "internal candidates" means staff members previously recruited under rules 104.14 and 104.15. Vacancies for which eligibility to apply is restricted to such internal candidates shall be referred to as "internal vacancies". The conditions under which persons other than internal candidates may apply for vacancies shall be defined by the Secretary-General.

Rule 104.12

Temporary appointments

On recruitment, staff members may be granted one of the following types of temporary appointments: probationary appointment, fixed-term appointment or indefinite appointment.

(a) Probationary appointment

(i) The probationary appointment may be granted to persons under the age of fifty years who are recruited for career service. The period of probationary service under such an appointment shall normally be two years. In exceptional circumstances, it may be reduced or extended for not more than one additional year.

At the end of the probationary service, the holder of a probationary appointment shall either be granted a permanent appointment or be separated from service.

The probationary appointment shall have no specific expiration date and shall be governed by the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules applicable to temporary appointments which are not for a fixed term.

(ii) Without prejudice to the provisions of subparagraph (b) (ii) below, the Secretary-General may, in appropriate cases, reduce or waive the required period of probationary service following an equivalent period of continuous service on a fixed-term appointment.

(b) Fixed-term appointment

(i) The fixed-term appointment, having an expiration date specified in the letter of appointment, may be granted for a period not exceeding five years to persons recruited for service of a prescribed duration, including persons temporarily seconded by national Governments or institutions for service with the United Nations;

(ii) The fixed-term appointment does not carry any expectancy of renewal or of conversion to any other type of appointment;

(iii) Notwithstanding subparagraph (ii) above, upon completion of five years of continuous service on fixed-term appointments, a staff member who has fully met the criteria of staff regulation 4.2 and who is under the age of fifty-three years will be given every reasonable consideration for a permanent appointment, taking into account all the interests of the Organization.

(c) Indefinite appointment

The indefinite appointment may be granted to:

(i) Persons specifically recruited for mission service who are not granted a fixed-term or regular appointment;

(ii) Persons specifically recruited for service with the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees or any other agency or office of the United Nations as may be designated by the Secretary-General.

The indefinite appointment does not carry any expectancy of conversion to any other type of appointment. The indefinite appointment shall have no specific expiration date and, except as provided in staff rule 106.2 (b) (iii), shall be governed by the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules applicable to temporary appointments which are not for a fixed term.

Rule 104.13

Permanent appointments

(a) The permanent appointment may be granted, in accordance with the needs of the Organization, to staff members who, by their qualifications, performance and conduct, have fully demonstrated their suitability as international civil servants and have shown that they meet the high standards of efficiency, competence and integrity established in the Charter, provided that:

(i) They have completed the period of probationary service required by rule 104.12 (a) (i);

(ii) The period of probationary service has been waived in accordance with rule 104.12 (a) (ii); or

(iii) They have completed five years of continuous service under fixed-term appointments and have been favourably considered under the terms of rule 104.12 (b) (iii).

(b) Recommendations proposing the grant of permanent appointments on the ground that a staff member whose probationary period has been either completed or waived under the terms of rule 104.12 (a) (ii) or (b) (iii) has met the requirements of this rule may be made to the Secretary-General by agreement between the Office of Human Resources Management and the department or office concerned. Such agreements shall be reported to the Appointment and Promotion Board before submission to the Secretary-General.

(c) Permanent appointments limited to service with one of the programmes, funds or subsidiary organs referred to in rule 104.14 (a) (i) may be granted by its corresponding heads with the assistance of such boards as may be established in accordance with the provisions of the last sentence of rule 104.14 (a) (i).

Rule 104.14

Appointment and Promotion Board

- (a) (i) An Appointment and Promotion Board shall be established by the Secretary-General to give advice on the appointment, promotion and review of staff in the General Service and related categories and in the Professional category, and on the appointment and review of staff at the Principal Officer level, except those specifically recruited for service with any programme, fund or subsidiary organ of the United Nations to which the Secretary-General has delegated appointment and promotion functions. However, advice on the appointment and promotion of candidates having successfully passed a competitive examination shall be given by Boards of Examiners, in accordance with staff rule 104.15. The Secretary-General shall also establish appointment and promotion committees and such other subsidiary panels as may be necessary to assist the Appointment and Promotion Board in the performance of its functions. The heads of the organs referred to above may establish boards whose composition and functions are generally comparable to those of the Appointment and Promotion Board to advise them in the case of staff members recruited specifically for service with those programmes, funds or subsidiary organs;
- (ii) Subject to the criteria of Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter and to the provisions of staff regulations 4.2 and 4.4, the Appointment and Promotion Board shall, in filling vacancies, normally give preference, where qualifications are equal, to staff members already in the Secretariat and staff members in other international organizations.

(b) Composition and procedures of the Appointment and Promotion Board

- (i) The Appointment and Promotion Board shall consist of seven members and an appropriate number of alternates to be determined by the Secretary-General, at the Principal Officer level and above. The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management, or an authorized representative, shall serve ex officio as a non-voting member of the Board. The other members and alternates shall be appointed by the Secretary-General after consultation with the appropriate staff representative body. Such members and alternates shall be appointed for fixed periods, normally of one year, subject to renewal. The Secretary-General will ensure that three members and at least three alternates are appointed from nominees submitted by the appropriate staff representative body;

(ii) The Board shall elect its own Chairman and establish its own procedures.

(c) Composition and procedures of the Appointment and Promotion Committees

(i) The Appointment and Promotion Committee at Headquarters shall consist of seven members and fourteen alternates, at the Second Officer level and above. A designated official of the Office of Human Resources Management shall serve ex officio as a non-voting member of the Committee. The other members and alternates shall be appointed by the Secretary-General after consultation with the appropriate staff representative body. Such members and alternates shall be appointed for fixed periods, normally of one year, subject to renewal. The Secretary-General will ensure that three members and seven alternates are appointed from nominees submitted by the appropriate staff representative body. The Appointment and Promotion Committees established at other designated offices shall be similarly constituted and shall be composed of five or seven members and an equal number of alternates, with at least half appointed from nominees submitted by the appropriate staff representative body;

(ii) Each committee shall elect its own Chairman and, subject to such general directives as may be issued by the Board, shall establish its own procedures.

(d) Subsidiary panels

As necessary, subsidiary panels at Headquarters and in other designated offices, with functions comparable to those of the Appointment and Promotion Board and Committees, may be appointed in the same manner by the Secretary-General.

(e) For any particular review where promotion is envisaged, the rank of members or alternates serving on the committees or subsidiary panels shall not be below the level to which promotion is contemplated.

(f) Functions of the Appointment and Promotion Board

The function of the Appointment and Promotion Board shall be to make recommendations to the Secretary-General in respect of the following:

(i) Appointment

Proposed probationary appointments and other proposed appointments of a probable duration of one year or more, excluding the appointment of persons recruited specifically for service with a mission, and the appointment of candidates having successfully passed a competitive examination, in accordance with staff rule 104.15;

(ii) Review

a. The suitability for permanent appointment of staff members whose eligibility is established under the terms of rule 104.13 (a) (i). With respect to holders of probationary appointments, recommendations of the Board may include extension of the probationary period for one additional year or separation from service;

b. (Cancelled)

- c. The review of proposals for the termination of permanent appointments for unsatisfactory services under staff regulation 9.1 (a) in accordance with the special procedures established for that purpose by the Secretary-General;

(iii) Promotion

- a. The selection of staff members qualified for promotion, except for staff having successfully passed a competitive examination, in accordance with staff rule 104.15;
- b. Minimum periods of service in the grade, as a normal requirement for consideration for promotion, shall be established by the Secretary-General upon recommendation by the Appointment and Promotion Board.

(iv) Transfer or reassignment

Lateral transfers or reassignments of a probable duration of one year or more, except in cases of mandatory reassignment under staff rule 104.15 (c).

(g) The foregoing functions with respect to staff in the Professional category and at the Principal Officer level will be performed by the Appointment and Promotion Board or by the Appointment and Promotion Committees. With respect to staff in the General Service and related categories, the same functions will be performed by subsidiary panels, in accordance with the provisions establishing such panels.

(h) Cases in which an Appointment and Promotion Committee has unanimously endorsed the recommendation of the programme manager will be submitted to the Secretary-General for decision without further review by the Appointment and Promotion Board.

Rule 104.15

Competitive examinations

(a) Boards of Examiners established by the Secretary-General shall ensure the regularity of the competitive examinations administered in accordance with conditions established by the Secretary-General.

(b) Boards of Examiners shall make recommendations to the Secretary-General in respect of the following:

(i) Appointment

Appointment to P-1 and P-2 posts and to posts requiring special language competence shall be made exclusively through competitive examination. Appointment to posts at the P-3 level shall be made normally through competitive examination;

(ii) Recruitment to the Professional category of staff from the General Service and related categories

Recruitment to the Professional category of staff from the General Service and related categories having successfully passed the appropriate competitive examinations shall be made within the limits established by the General Assembly. Such recruitment shall be made exclusively through competitive examination.

(c) Staff members appointed to the Professional level after a competitive examination shall be subject to mandatory reassignment, under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Rule 104.16

Medical examination

(a) Staff members may be required from time to time to satisfy the United Nations Medical Officer, by medical examination, that they are free from any ailment likely to impair the health of others.

(b) Staff members may also be required to undergo such medical examinations and receive such inoculations as may be required by the United Nations Medical Officer before they go on or after they return from mission service.

Article V

ANNUAL AND SPECIAL LEAVE

Regulation 5.1

Staff members shall be allowed appropriate annual leave.

Regulation 5.2

Special leave may be authorized by the Secretary-General in exceptional cases.

Regulation 5.3

Eligible staff members shall be granted home leave once in every two years. However, in the case of designated duty stations having very difficult conditions of life and work, eligible staff members shall be granted home leave once in every twelve months. A staff member whose home country is either the country of his or her official duty station or the country of his or her normal residence while in United Nations service shall not be eligible for home leave.

Chapter V

ANNUAL AND SPECIAL LEAVE

Rule 105.1

Annual leave

(a) Staff members shall accrue annual leave while in full pay status at the rate of six weeks a year, subject to the provisions of paragraph (f) below and of rule 105.2 (c). No leave shall accrue while a staff member is receiving compensation equivalent to salary and allowances under rule 106.4.

(b) (i) Annual leave may be taken in units of days and half-days;

(ii) Leave may be taken only when authorized. If a staff member is absent from work without authorization, payment of salary and allowances shall cease for the period of unauthorized absence. However, if, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, the absence was caused by reasons beyond the staff member's control and the staff member has accrued annual leave, the absence will be charged to that leave;

(iii) All arrangements as to leave shall be subject to the exigencies of service, which may require that leave be taken by a staff member during a period designated by the Secretary-General. The personal circumstances and preferences of the individual staff member shall, as far as possible, be considered.

(c) Annual leave may be accumulated, provided that not more than twelve weeks of such leave shall be carried forward beyond 1 January of any year or such other date as the Secretary-General may set for a duty station. However, upon completion of service with a mission (so designated for this purpose by the Secretary-General), any accumulation of annual leave which otherwise would have become subject to forfeiture during the mission service, or within two months thereafter, may be utilized to cover all or part of an authorized period of post-mission leave. Any such leave which is not so utilized within four months following departure from the mission area shall be forfeited.

(d) (Cancelled)

(e) A staff member may, in exceptional circumstances, be granted advance annual leave up to a maximum of two weeks, provided that his or her service is expected to continue for a period beyond that necessary to accrue the leave so advanced.

(f) The Secretary-General shall set the terms and conditions under which annual leave may be allowed to staff members recruited specifically for service with a mission from within the general area of the mission and notify the staff of these terms and conditions. These terms and conditions will be set with due regard to local practices in the area of the mission concerned.

Rule 105.2

Special leave

(a) (i) Special leave may be granted at the request of a staff member for advanced study or research in the interest of the United Nations, in cases of extended illness, for child care or for other important reasons for such period as the Secretary-General may prescribe. In exceptional cases, the Secretary-General may, at his or her initiative, place a staff member on special leave with full pay if he considers such leave to be in the interest of the Organization;

(ii) Special leave is normally without pay. In exceptional circumstances, special leave with full or partial pay may be granted;

(iii) Subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General, family leave may be granted as follows:

- a. As special leave with full pay in the case of adoption of a child;
- b. As special leave without pay for a period of up to two years for a staff member who is the mother or father of a newly born or adopted child, with a possibility of extension for up to an additional two years in exceptional circumstances. The right of a staff member to be re-absorbed after the end of such special leave without pay shall be fully protected;
- c. As special leave without pay for a reasonable period, including necessary travel time, upon the death of a member of the immediate family of the staff member or in case of serious family emergency;

(iv) Special leave shall not be authorized for governmental service in a political office, in a diplomatic or other representational post or for the purpose of performing any functions that are incompatible with the staff member's continuing status as an international civil servant. In exceptional circumstances, special leave without pay may be granted to a staff member who is requested by his or her Government to render temporary services involving functions of a technical nature.

(b) A staff member, other than one recruited specifically for a mission, who has completed one year of satisfactory probationary service or who has a permanent appointment and who is called upon to serve in the armed forces of the State of which the staff member is a national, whether for training or active duty, may be granted special leave without pay for the duration of such military service, in accordance with terms and conditions set forth in appendix C to these Rules.

(c) The Secretary-General may authorize special leave without pay for pension purposes to protect the pension benefits of staff who are within two years of achieving age 55 years and 25 years of contributory service, or who are over that age and within two years of 25 years of contributory service.

(d) Staff members shall not accrue service credits towards sick, annual and home leave, salary increment, seniority, termination indemnity and repatriation grant during periods of special leave with partial pay or without pay. Periods of less than one full month of such leave shall not affect the ordinary rates of accrual. Continuity of service shall not be considered broken by periods of special leave.

Home leave

(a) Staff members regarded as international recruits under rule 104.7 (a) and not excluded from home leave under rule 104.7 (c), who are residing and serving outside their home country and who are otherwise eligible, shall be entitled once in every two years of qualifying service to visit their home country at United Nations expense for the purpose of spending in that country a reasonable period of annual leave. Leave taken for this purpose and under the terms and conditions set forth in this rule shall hereinafter be referred to as home leave.

(b) A staff member shall be eligible for home leave provided the following conditions are fulfilled:

(i) While performing his or her official duties:

- a. The staff member continues to reside in a country other than that of which he or she is a national; or
- b. In the case of a staff member who is a native of a non-metropolitan territory of the country of the duty station and who maintained his or her normal residence in such non-metropolitan territory prior to appointment, he or she continues to reside, while performing his or her official duties, outside such territory;

(ii) The staff member's service is expected by the Secretary-General to continue:

- a. At least six months beyond the date of his or her return from any proposed home leave; and
- b. In the case of the first home leave, at least six months beyond the date on which the staff member will have completed two years of qualifying service;

(iii) In the case of home leave following the return from a family visit travel under rule 107.1 (b), normally not less than nine months of continuous service have elapsed since departure on the family visit travel.

(c) Staff members whose eligibility under paragraph (b) above is established at the time of their appointment shall begin to accrue service credit towards home leave from that date. Staff members who become eligible for home leave subsequent to appointment shall begin to accrue such service credit from the effective date of their becoming eligible.

(d) The country of home leave shall be the country of the staff member's nationality, subject to the following terms, conditions and exceptions:

(i) The place of home leave of the staff member within his or her home country shall be, for purposes of travel and transportation entitlements, the place with which the staff member had the closest residential ties during the period of his or her most recent residence in the home country. In exceptional circumstances, a change in the place in the country of home leave may be authorized, under conditions established by the Secretary-General;

(ii) A staff member who has served with another public international organization immediately preceding his or her appointment shall have the place of home leave determined as though his or her entire previous service with the other international organization had been with the United Nations;

(iii) The Secretary-General, in exceptional and compelling circumstances, may authorize:

- a. A country other than the country of nationality as the home country, for the purposes of this rule. A staff member requesting such authorization will be required to satisfy the Secretary-General that the staff member maintained normal residence in such other country for a prolonged period preceding his or her appointment, that the staff member continues to have close family and personal ties in that country and that the staff member's taking home leave there would not be inconsistent with the purposes and intent of staff regulation 5.3;
 - b. Travel in a particular home leave year to a country other than the home country, subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General. In such a case, the travel expenses borne by the United Nations shall not exceed the cost of travel to the home country.
- (e)
 - (i) Except in the case of staff members serving on probationary appointment, a staff member's first home leave shall fall due in the calendar year in which the staff member completes two years of qualifying service. A staff member appointed on a probationary basis shall not be entitled to the first home leave until he or she has been granted a permanent appointment or an extension of probationary period; however, if the Secretary-General considers that it will not be possible for the Appointment and Promotion Board to review the staff member's case within six months after completion of two years' service, he or she may be granted home leave subject to the other conditions of this rule;
 - (ii) Home leave may be taken, subject to the exigencies of service and to the provisions in subparagraph (i) above in respect of probationary appointment, any time during the calendar year in which it falls due.
- (f) In exceptional circumstances, a staff member may be granted advanced home leave, provided that normally not less than twelve months of qualifying service have been completed or that normally not less than twelve months of qualifying service have elapsed since the date of return from his or her last home leave. The granting of advanced home leave shall not advance the calendar year in which the next home leave falls due. The granting of advanced home leave shall be subject to the conditions for the entitlement being subsequently met. If these conditions are not met, the staff member will be required to reimburse the costs paid by the Organization for the advanced travel.
- (g) If a staff member delays taking his or her home leave beyond the calendar year in which it falls due, such delayed leave may be taken without altering the time of his or her next and succeeding home leave entitlements, provided that normally not less than twelve months of qualifying service elapse between the date of the staff member's return from the delayed home leave and the date of his or her next home leave departure.
- (h) A staff member may be required to take his or her home leave in conjunction with travel on official business or change of official duty station, due regard being paid to the interests of the staff member and his or her family.
- (i) Subject to the conditions specified in chapter VII of these Rules, a staff member shall be entitled to claim, in respect of authorized travel on home leave, travel time and expenses for himself or herself and eligible family members for the outward and return journeys between the official duty station and the place of home leave.

(j) Travel of eligible family members shall be in conjunction with the approved home leave of the staff member, provided that exceptions may be granted if the exigencies of service or other special circumstances prevent the staff member and his or her family members from travelling together.

(k) If both husband and wife are staff members who are eligible for home leave, and taking into account rule 104.10 (d), each staff member shall have the choice either of exercising his or her own home leave entitlement or of accompanying the spouse. A staff member who chooses to accompany his or her spouse shall be granted travel time appropriate to the travel involved. Dependent children whose parents are staff members, each of whom is entitled to home leave, may accompany either parent. The frequency of travel shall not exceed the established periodicity of the home leave both with regard to staff members and to their dependent children, if any.

(l) A staff member travelling on home leave shall be required to spend no less than seven days, exclusive of travel time, in his or her home country.

(m) Under the terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General, eligible staff members serving at designated duty stations having very difficult conditions of life and work shall be granted home leave once in every twelve months.

Article VI

SOCIAL SECURITY

Regulation 6.1

Provision shall be made for the participation of staff members in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund in accordance with the regulations of that Fund.

Regulation 6.2

The Secretary-General shall establish a scheme of social security for the staff, including provisions for health protection, sick leave and maternity leave, and reasonable compensation in the event of illness, accident or death attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations.

Chapter VI

SOCIAL SECURITY

Rule 106.1

Participation in the Pension Fund

Staff members whose appointments are for six months or longer or who complete six months of service under shorter appointments without an interruption of more than thirty days shall become participants in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund, provided that participation is not excluded by their letters of appointment.

Rule 106.2

Sick leave

(a) Staff members who are unable to perform their duties by reason of illness or injury or whose attendance at work is prevented by public health requirements will be granted sick leave. All sick leave must be approved on behalf of, and under conditions established by, the Secretary-General.

Maximum entitlement

(b) A staff member's maximum entitlement to sick leave shall be determined by the nature and duration of his or her appointment in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) A staff member who holds a fixed-term appointment of less than one year shall be granted sick leave at the rate of two working days per month of contractual service;

(ii) A staff member who holds a probationary appointment or a fixed-term appointment of one year or longer but less than three years shall be granted sick leave of up to three months on full salary and three months on half salary in any period of twelve consecutive months;

(iii) A staff member who holds a permanent or indefinite appointment, a fixed-term appointment for three years or who has completed three years of continuous service shall be granted sick leave of up to nine months on full salary and nine months on half salary in any period of four consecutive years.

Uncertified sick leave

(c) A staff member may take uncertified sick leave of not more than three consecutive working days at a time, for up to seven working days in a calendar year, when incapacitated for the performance of his or her duties by illness or injury. Part or all of this entitlement may be used to attend to family-related emergencies, or for paternity leave in case of birth or adoption of a child, in which case the limitation of three consecutive working days shall not apply.

Certified sick leave

(d) Sick leave taken by a staff member in excess of the limits set in paragraph (c) above requires approval in accordance with conditions established by the Secretary-General. When those conditions are not met, the absence shall be treated as unauthorized in accordance with rule 105.1(b)(ii).

Sick leave during annual leave

(e) When sickness of more than five working days in any seven-day period occurs while a staff member is on annual leave, including home leave, sick leave may be approved subject to appropriate medical certification.

Obligations of staff members

(f) Staff members shall inform their supervisors as soon as possible of absences due to illness or injury. They shall promptly submit any medical certificate or medical report required under conditions to be specified by the Secretary-General.

(g) A staff member may be required at any time to submit a medical report as to his or her condition or to undergo a medical examination by the United Nations medical services or a medical practitioner designated by the Medical Director. When, in the opinion of the Medical Director, a medical condition impairs a staff member's ability to perform his or her functions, the staff member may be directed not to attend the office and requested to seek treatment from a duly qualified medical practitioner. The staff member shall comply promptly with any direction or request under this rule.

(h) A staff member shall immediately notify a United Nations medical officer of any case of contagious disease occurring in his or her household or of any quarantine order affecting the household. In such a case, or in the case of any other condition which may affect the health of others, the Medical Director shall decide whether the staff member should be excused from attendance at the office. If so, the staff member shall receive full salary and other emoluments for the period of authorized absence.

(i) A staff member shall not, while on sick leave, leave the duty station without the prior approval of the Secretary-General.

Review of decisions relating to sick leave

(j) Where further sick leave is refused or the unused portion of sick leave is withdrawn because the Secretary-General is satisfied that the staff member is able to return to duty and the staff member disputes the decision, the matter shall be referred, at his or her request, to an independent practitioner acceptable to both the Medical Director and the staff member or to a medical board.

(k) The medical board shall be composed of:

(i) A medical practitioner selected by the staff member;

(ii) The United Nations Medical Director or a medical practitioner designated by the Medical Director; and

(iii) A third medical practitioner, who shall be selected by agreement between the other two members and who shall not be a medical officer of the United Nations.

Rule 106.3

Maternity leave

(a) A staff member shall be entitled to maternity leave in accordance with the following provisions:

(i) The leave shall extend for a total period of sixteen weeks from the time it is granted, except as provided in subparagraph (iii) below;

(ii) The leave shall commence six weeks prior to the anticipated date of birth upon production of a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner or midwife indicating the anticipated date of birth. However, at the staff member's request and upon production of a certificate from a duly qualified medical practitioner or midwife indicating that she is fit to continue working, the absence may be permitted to commence less than six weeks but normally not less than two weeks before the anticipated date of birth. The pre-delivery leave shall extend to the actual date of birth;

(iii) The post-delivery leave shall extend for a period equivalent to the difference between sixteen weeks and the actual period of pre-delivery leave, subject to a minimum of ten weeks. However, the staff member, on request, may be permitted to return to work after the lapse of a minimum period of six weeks following delivery;

(iv) The staff member shall receive maternity leave with full pay for the entire duration of her absence under subparagraphs (ii) and (iii) above.

(b) Where both spouses are staff members of the United Nations, an unused portion of maternity leave to which the mother would otherwise have been entitled under paragraph (a) above may be used as paternity leave by the father of the child, under conditions established by the Secretary-General. Alternatively, paternity leave may be charged to the father's annual leave entitlement.

(c) Sick leave shall not normally be granted for maternity cases except where serious complications arise.

(d) (Cancelled)

(e) Annual leave shall accrue during the period of maternity leave.

(f) (Cancelled)

Rule 106.4

Compensation for death, injury or illness attributable to service

Staff members shall be entitled to compensation in the event of death, injury or illness attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations, in accordance with the rules set forth in appendix D to these Rules.

Rule 106.5

Compensation for loss or damage to personal effects attributable to service

Staff members shall be entitled, within the limits and under terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General, to reasonable compensation in the event of loss or damage to their personal effects determined to be directly attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations.

Rule 106.6

Medical insurance

Staff members may be required to participate in a United Nations medical insurance scheme under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Article VII

TRAVEL AND REMOVAL EXPENSES

Regulation 7.1

Subject to conditions and definitions prescribed by the Secretary-General, the United Nations shall in appropriate cases pay the travel expenses of staff members, their spouses and dependent children.

Regulation 7.2

Subject to conditions and definitions prescribed by the Secretary-General, the United Nations shall pay removal costs for staff members.

Chapter VII

TRAVEL AND REMOVAL EXPENSES

Rule 107.1

Official travel of staff members

(a) Subject to the conditions laid down in these Rules, the United Nations shall pay the travel expenses of a staff member under the following circumstances:

- (i) On initial appointment, provided the staff member is considered to have been internationally recruited under rule 104.7;
- (ii) When required to travel on official business;
- (iii) On change of official duty station, as defined in rule 101.6;
- (iv) On home leave, in accordance with the provisions of rule 105.3;
- (v) On family visit, in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) below;
- (vi) On separation from service, as defined by article IX of the Staff Regulations and chapter IX of the Staff Rules, and in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (c) below;
- (vii) On travel authorized for medical, safety or security reasons or in other appropriate cases, when, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, there are compelling reasons for paying such expenses.

(b) Under subparagraph (a) (v) above, and subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General, the United Nations shall pay the travel expenses of a staff member for the purpose of visiting his or her eligible family members at the place of recruitment, the place of home leave or the previous duty station when, during the preceding twelve months, no eligible family member has been present at the duty station after travel at United Nations expense, except on education grant travel. Family visit travel may be paid in respect of:

- (i) Staff members who are considered as having been internationally recruited under rule 104.7, provided that they serve and reside outside their home country; and
- (ii) Staff members who are considered as having been locally recruited under rule 104.6, when they are on mission assignment away from their parent duty station.

Family visit travel may be granted once every year in which the staff member's home leave does not fall due, except for eligible staff members serving at designated duty stations in respect of which special conditions shall apply.

(c) Under subparagraph (a) (vi) above, the United Nations shall pay the travel expenses of a staff member to the place of recruitment or, if the staff member had a probationary appointment or an appointment for a period of two years or longer or had completed not less than two years of continuous service, to the place recognized as his or her home for the purpose of home leave under rule 105.3.

Should a staff member, on separation, wish to go to any other place, the travel expenses borne by the United Nations shall not exceed the maximum amount that would have been payable on the basis of return transportation to the place of recruitment or home leave.

Official travel of family members - established offices

(a) Subject to the conditions laid down in these Rules, the United Nations shall pay, in the case of service at an established office, the travel expenses of a staff member's eligible family members under the following circumstances:

- (i) On the initial appointment of a staff member who is considered to have been internationally recruited, under the provisions of rule 104.7, provided that the appointment is for a period of one year or longer or is a probationary appointment and provided that the staff member's services are expected by the Secretary-General to continue for more than six months beyond the date on which travel of his or her family members commences;
- (ii) Following completion by the staff member of not less than one year of continuous service, provided that his or her services are expected by the Secretary-General to continue for more than six months beyond the date on which travel of his or her family members commences;
- (iii) On change of official duty station, provided that the services of the staff member at the new duty station are expected by the Secretary-General to continue for more than six months beyond the date on which travel of his or her family members commences;
- (iv) On home leave, in accordance with the provisions of rule 105.3;
- (v) On separation of a staff member from service, provided that the staff member's appointment was for a period of one year or longer or the staff member had completed not less than one year of continuous service;
- (vi) On journeys approved in connection with the education of a staff member's child;
- (vii) On travel authorized for medical, safety or security reasons or in other appropriate cases, when, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, there are compelling reasons for paying such expenses;
- (viii) On travel of the spouse to the duty station, in lieu of the staff member's family visit travel under rule 107.1 (a) (v), subject to the same conditions as specified in rule 107.1 (b).

(b) Under subparagraphs (a) (i) and (ii) above, the United Nations shall pay the travel expenses of a staff member's eligible family members either from the place of recruitment or from the place of home leave. Should a staff member wish to bring any eligible family member to the official duty station from any other place, the travel expenses borne by the United Nations shall not exceed the maximum amount that would have been payable on the basis of travel from the place of recruitment or home leave.

(c) Under subparagraph (a) (v) above, the United Nations shall pay the travel expenses of a staff member's eligible family members from the official duty station to the place to which the staff member is entitled to be returned in accordance with the provisions of rule 107.1. Where both husband and wife are staff members and either or both are entitled to the payment of travel expenses on separation from service, and taking into account rule 104.10 (d), travel expenses shall be paid for each only upon their own separation from service. Where both spouses are entitled to return travel expenses, each staff member shall have the choice either of exercising his or her own entitlement or of accompanying the other spouse, provided that in no case shall such expenses be paid for a staff member while he or she remains in the service of the Organization.

Official travel of family members - mission service

(a) Subject to the conditions laid down in these Rules, the United Nations shall pay, in the case of service with a mission, the travel expenses of a staff member's eligible family members to and from the mission area, provided that:

(i) The staff member is detailed, assigned or transferred from an established office or has been recruited specifically for the mission from outside the area of the mission;

(ii) The staff member is detailed, assigned or transferred or appointed for an anticipated continuous period of not less than one year, or the staff member's assignment after a shorter period is extended so that the total anticipated period is not less than one year;

(iii) The staff member's services are expected to continue in the mission area beyond six months after the beginning date of the family members' travel, and they are expected to remain in the mission area for the major part of the staff member's assignment;

(iv) The Secretary-General has decided that there are no special circumstances or local conditions which make it undesirable for the staff member to be accompanied by his or her family members;

(v) The staff member assumes responsibility for providing living accommodations for his or her family members.

(b) The provisions of paragraphs (b) and (c) of rule 107.2 shall apply to mission service, provided that, in the case of staff members detailed, assigned or transferred from an established office, travel shall normally be between the established office and the mission area.

Rule 107.4

Loss of entitlement to return transportation

(a) A staff member who resigns before completing one year of service or within six months following the date of his or her return from travel on home leave or family visit shall not be entitled to payment of return travel expenses for himself or herself and family members unless, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, there are compelling reasons for authorizing such payment.

(b) Entitlement to return travel expenses shall cease if travel has not commenced within two years after the date of separation. However, in accordance with rule 104.10 (d), where both husband and wife are staff members and the spouse who separates first is entitled to return travel expenses, his or her entitlement shall not cease until two years after the date of separation of the other spouse.

Eligible family members

(a) Eligible family members, for the purposes of official travel, shall be deemed to comprise a spouse and those children recognized as dependent under rule 103.24 (b). In addition, those children in respect of whom an education grant is payable, even though they are no longer recognized as dependent under staff rule 103.24 (b), shall be eligible for education grant travel.

(b) The Secretary-General may authorize payment of the travel expenses of a child for one trip either to the staff member's duty station or to his or her home country beyond the age when the dependency status of the child would otherwise cease under the relevant Staff Regulations and Staff Rules, either within one year or upon completion of the child's continuous full-time attendance at a university, when the attendance at the university commenced during the period of recognized dependency status.

(c) Notwithstanding rule 107.2 (a) (v) or rule 107.3, the Secretary-General may also authorize payment of travel expenses for repatriation purposes of a former spouse.

Rule 107.6

Authority for travel

Before travel is undertaken it shall be authorized in writing. In exceptional cases, staff members may be authorized to travel on oral orders, but such oral authorization shall require written confirmation. A staff member shall be personally responsible for ascertaining that he or she has the proper authorization before commencing travel.

Rule 107.7

Travel expenses

(a) Travel expenses that shall be paid or reimbursed by the United Nations under the relevant provisions of these Rules include:

- (i) Transportation expenses (i.e., carrier fare);
- (ii) Terminal expenses;
- (iii) Transit expenses;
- (iv) Travel subsistence allowance;
- (v) Necessary additional expenses incurred during travel.

(b) Staff members shall exercise the same care in incurring expenses that a prudent person would exercise if travelling on personal business.

Rule 107.8

Route, mode and standard of transportation

- (a) Official travel shall, in all instances, be by a route, mode and standard of transportation approved in advance by the Secretary-General.
- (b) Travel expenses or other entitlements, including travel time, shall be limited to the amount allowable for a journey by the approved route, mode and standard. Staff members who wish to make other arrangements for personal convenience must obtain permission to do so in advance and pay all additional costs.

Route and mode of travel

- (a) The normal route for all official travel shall be the most direct and economical route. An alternative route may be approved when, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, it is in the best interest of the United Nations.
- (b) The normal mode of transportation for all official travel shall be by air. An alternative mode of transportation may be approved when, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, its use is in the best interest of the United Nations.
- (c) If a staff member or family member travels by a more economical mode of transportation than the approved mode, the United Nations shall pay only for the mode of transportation actually used.

Rule 107.10

Standard of accommodation

- (a) For all official travel by air, staff members and their eligible family members shall be provided with economy class transportation in accordance with the least costly airfare structure regularly available or its equivalent. However, under conditions established by the Secretary-General, accommodation immediately below first class may be granted. In exceptional cases, the Secretary-General may allow first class travel.
- (b) The air travel accommodation under paragraph (a) above shall be provided at the most economical rate appropriate. Children under two years of age travelling by air shall be provided with a ticket giving entitlement to a seat.
- (c) For all official travel by sea approved under paragraph (b) of rule 107.9, staff members and their family members shall be provided with the standard of accommodation which is, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, appropriate to the circumstances of the case.
- (d) For all official travel by train approved under paragraph (b) of rule 107.9, staff members and their family members shall be provided with regular first class or equivalent accommodation, including sleeper and other facilities, as appropriate.
- (e) A higher standard of accommodation may be approved when, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, special circumstances warrant it.

(f) If a staff member or family member travels by more economical accommodations than the approved standard, the United Nations shall only pay for accommodations actually used at the rate paid by the traveller.

Rule 107.11

Travel by automobile

(a) Staff members who are authorized to travel by automobile shall be reimbursed by the United Nations at rates and under conditions established by the Secretary-General on the basis of operating costs in the area in which the travel is undertaken and an appropriate minimum distance for the calculation of the daily subsistence allowance.

(b) Reimbursement for travel within a radius of thirty-five miles of the official duty station shall be based on actual mileage and, for travel beyond a thirty-five-mile radius, on the mileage as shown on official road guides. Commutation between residence and place of business shall not be reimbursable.

(c) The mileage rate established by the Secretary-General shall be payable to only one of two or more persons travelling together on the same trip and in the same automobile.

(d) The total of mileage rate reimbursement and travel subsistence allowance which a staff member may claim in respect of a particular journey shall be limited to the maximum travel expenses to which he or she would have been entitled had the staff member and eligible family members travelled by the most economical route.

Rule 107.12

Purchase of tickets

(a) Unless the staff member concerned is specifically authorized to make other arrangements, all tickets for transportation involving official travel of staff members and eligible family members shall be purchased by the United Nations in advance of the actual travel or, where circumstances so require, shall be secured by the staff member.

(b) When a staff member requests a standard of accommodation in excess of his or her entitlement under rule 107.10 or is authorized to travel, for reasons of personal preference or convenience, by other than the approved route or mode of transportation as provided for under rule 107.9, the staff member shall be required to reimburse the United Nations for any additional costs thus incurred before the United Nations provides him or her with the necessary tickets.

Terminal expenses

(a) For all official travel to or from the duty station, a staff member may claim reimbursement of terminal expenses incurred for each required trip by means of public conveyance between the airport or other point of arrival or departure and the hotel or other place of dwelling in respect of himself or herself and in respect of each family member authorized to travel at United Nations expense, at rates and under conditions established by the Secretary-General. No expenses shall be reimbursable in respect of an intermediate stop that:

- (i) Is not authorized;
- (ii) Does not involve leaving the terminal; or
- (iii) Is exclusively for the purpose of making an onward connection.

(b) Terminal expenses shall be deemed to include all expenditures for transportation between the airport or other point of arrival or departure and the hotel or other place of dwelling, including transfer of accompanied baggage and other incidental charges, except the costs provided for under rule 107.19 (iii).

(c) (Cancelled)

Rule 107.14

Expenses while in transit

(a) A staff member and his or her eligible family members authorized to travel by sea shall be entitled to a fixed amount to cover transit expenses equivalent to the amount of travel subsistence allowance that would have been payable in respect of the travel if the travel had been by air.

(b) When the authorized mode of transportation is other than by sea, full travel subsistence allowance shall be payable for the time spent in transit, subject to the conditions laid down in rules 107.15 to 107.18 and provided that, in the case of travel other than on official business, a maximum of three days' travel time shall be allowed in respect of any specific journey.

Travel subsistence allowance

(a) Except as provided in rule 107.14 (a) and in paragraph (h) below, a staff member authorized to travel at United Nations expense shall receive an appropriate daily subsistence allowance in accordance with a schedule of rates established from time to time. Such established rates shall be subject to rule 107.16 and to reductions in cases where lodging or meals are provided free of charge by the United Nations, by a Government or by a related institution.

(b) The Secretary-General may, in exceptional and compelling circumstances, authorize a reasonable increase in the travel subsistence allowance to be paid to a staff member who is required to accompany a senior official and whose official duties while in travel status require that his or her additional living expense be established at a rate substantially higher than that contemplated in setting the allowance rate for his or her level.

(c) Travel subsistence allowance shall be deemed to comprise the total contribution of the United Nations towards such charges as meals, lodging, gratuities and other payments made for personal services rendered. Except as provided in rule 107.19, any expenditures incurred in excess of the allowance shall be borne by the staff member.

(d) Except as provided in rule 107.14 (a) and in paragraph (h) below, when the spouse or dependent children of a staff member are authorized to travel at United Nations expense, the staff member shall be paid an additional travel subsistence allowance in respect of each of them at half the rate applicable to the staff member.

(e) Except for leave taken at a rate not exceeding one and a half days for each completed month on which a staff member is in travel status on official business, travel subsistence allowance shall not be paid in respect of any period of annual or special leave. It shall not, in any event, be paid in respect of leave taken at the conclusion of active duty on an assignment but prior to the staff member's return to his or her official duty station.

(f) The travel subsistence allowance shall continue to be paid during periods of sick leave while in travel status, except that, if the traveller is hospitalized, only one third of the appropriate daily rate shall be paid.

(g) The appropriate travel subsistence allowance shall be paid for any days on which a staff member is required to perform official duties in connection with travel on home leave.

(h) No travel subsistence allowance shall be payable in respect of travel on home leave, family visit or education grant, provided that the allowance may be paid for stopovers actually made during such travel under conditions established by the Secretary-General. Where travel at United Nations expense is authorized for medical, safety, security or other reasons under rule 107.1 (a) (vii) or 107.2 (a) (vii), an appropriate amount of subsistence allowance may be paid at the discretion of the Secretary-General.

Rule 107.16

Special rates of travel subsistence allowance

In the event of staff members being assigned to conferences or for other extended periods of duty away from their official duty station, the Secretary-General may establish a special rate of subsistence allowance.

Rule 107.17

(Cancelled)

Rule 107.18

Computation of the travel subsistence allowance

(a) Except during travel by sea, subsistence allowance shall be paid to a staff member, at the rates and under the conditions prescribed in rule 107.15 for each calendar day or fraction thereof involving an overnight stay away from his or her residence, during which the staff member or his or her family members are in official travel status, provided that for a journey of twenty-four hours or longer a full day's allowance at the appropriate rate shall be paid for the day on which travel is begun and that no allowance shall be paid for the day on which travel is ended. Where travel does not involve an overnight stay away from the residence, no allowance shall be paid for a journey of less than ten hours, and 40 per cent of the allowance shall be paid for a journey of ten hours or more.

(b) Where travel is by sea, a full day's allowance at the appropriate rate shall be paid for the day of arrival at the port of disembarkation, provided that the traveller remains in official travel status for more than twelve hours thereafter. No allowance shall be paid for the day on which embarkation takes place.

(c) If more than one rate should apply during the course of any one day or if the traveller completes his or her travel on the same day as he or she commenced it, the rate applicable for the area of destination shall be paid for that day, except that for the last leg of a return travel on official business the allowance shall be paid at the rate applicable to the last authorized place where the staff member spent the night.

(d) When it is necessary, for the purpose of computing the amount of travel subsistence allowance payable, to specify the "hour of departure" and the "hour of arrival", these shall be considered as the time when the train, vessel or airplane used by the traveller actually leaves or arrives at its regular terminal.

Miscellaneous travel expenses

Necessary additional expenses incurred by a staff member in connection with the transaction of official business or in the performance of authorized travel shall be reimbursed by the United Nations after completion of travel, provided the necessity and nature of the expenses are satisfactorily explained and supported by proper receipts, which shall normally be required for any expenditures in excess of $20.00. Such expenses, for which advance authorization shall be obtained to the extent practicable, shall normally be limited to:

- (i) Hire of local transportation other than that provided for under rule 107.13;
- (ii) Telephone, telegraph, radio and cable messages of official business;
- (iii) Transfer of authorized baggage by railway express or other appropriate agency;
- (iv) Hire of room for official use;
- (v) Stenographic or word-processing services or rental of equipment required for the preparation of official reports or correspondence;
- (vi) Transportation or storage of baggage or property used on official business.

Rule 107.20

Installation

(Cancelled)

Rule 107.20

Assignment grant

(a) Except for special mission service, a staff member who travels at United Nations expense to a duty station for an assignment expected to be of at least one year's duration shall be paid an assignment grant, subject to the conditions set forth below.

(b) The amount of the assignment grant shall be equivalent to:

- (i) Thirty days of subsistence allowance at the daily rate applicable under subparagraph (c) (i) below; and
- (ii) Thirty days of subsistence allowance at half such daily rate in respect of each family member for whom travel expenses have been paid by the United Nations under rules 107.2 (a) (i), (ii) or (iii) and 107.3.

The above-mentioned amounts shall be calculated on the basis of the rate prevailing on the date of arrival at the duty station of the staff member or of the staff member's family member, as appropriate.

Where an assignment of less than one year, in respect of which daily subsistence allowance has been paid for six months or more under rule 103.7 (d) (ii), is extended to one year or more at the same duty station, the provisions of (i) above do not apply and only the lump sum portion under paragraph (d) will be paid.

- (c) (i) The Secretary-General may establish special rates of subsistence allowance for the purposes of the assignment grant for specific categories of staff at various duty stations and publish such rates by administrative instruction or other appropriate means. Where such special rates have not been established, the travel subsistence allowance rates under rule 107.15 shall be used in computing the assignment grant;

- (ii) Under conditions established by the Secretary-General, the limit of thirty days provided in paragraph (b) above may be extended to a maximum of ninety days. The amount of the grant during the extended period shall be up to 60 per cent of the appropriate prevailing rate.

(d) In addition to any amount of grant paid under paragraph (b) above, a lump sum calculated on the basis of the staff member's net base salary and, where appropriate, post adjustment at the duty station of assignment may be paid under conditions established by the Secretary-General. The lump sum shall be payable at the following rates:

- (i) At headquarters duty stations and other designated duty stations, a lump sum equivalent to one month's net base salary and, where appropriate, post adjustment, provided the staff member is not entitled to removal costs under staff rule 107.27;

- (ii) At all other duty stations:

- a. Where the staff member is entitled to removal costs under rule 107.27, one month's net base salary and, where appropriate, post adjustment;
 - b. Where the staff member is not entitled to removal costs under rule 107.27, one month's net base salary and, where appropriate, post adjustment if the assignment is for less than three years, and two months' net base salary and, where appropriate, post adjustment if the assignment is for three years or more.

If an assignment for less than three years is extended to three years or more, the staff member shall be paid at that time a second one-month lump sum.

(e) If a change of official duty station or a new appointment involves a return to a place at which the staff member was previously stationed, the full amount of the assignment grant shall not be payable unless the staff member has been absent from that place for at least one year. In the case of a shorter absence, the amount payable shall normally be that proportion of the full grant that the completed months of absence bear to one year.

(f) Where both husband and wife are staff members who are travelling at United Nations expense to a duty station, and taking into account rule 104.10 (d), the daily subsistence allowance portion of the assignment shall be paid to each in respect of himself or herself. If they have a dependent child or children, the assignment grant in respect of such child or children shall be paid to the staff member on whom the child is recognized to be dependent.

(g) If both husband and wife would otherwise qualify for the lump sum portion of the grant, such lump sum shall be paid only to the spouse whose lump sum portion yields the higher amount.

(h) In cases where the staff member has not completed the period of service in respect of which the assignment grant has been paid, the grant shall be adjusted proportionately and recovery made under conditions established by the Secretary-General who, in exceptional circumstances, may decide to waive recovery.

(i) The Secretary-General may, in appropriate cases, authorize payment of all or part of the assignment grant where the United Nations has not been required to pay travel expenses upon the appointment of a staff member regarded as internationally recruited under rule 104.7.

Rule 107.21

Excess baggage and unaccompanied shipments

(a) For the purpose of these rules, "excess baggage" shall mean baggage in excess of accompanied baggage carried without extra charge by transportation companies.

(b) Staff members travelling by air shall be entitled to reimbursement of the cost of excess baggage for themselves and their eligible family members to the extent of the difference between their free baggage allowance and the free baggage allowance in first class air travel, subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General.

General provisions on unaccompanied shipments

(c) For the purpose of these rules, "personal effects and household goods" shall mean effects and goods normally required for personal or household use, excluding animals and power-assisted vehicles.

(d) Unaccompanied shipments shall normally be made in one consignment, and shall be reimbursed on the basis of the maximum entitlement provided under this rule for transportation by the most economical means, as determined by the Secretary-General, between the places of departure and destination of the authorized travel of the staff member or his or her family members.

(e) The normal costs of packing, crating and lift vans, cartage, unpacking and uncrating shall be reimbursed for the unaccompanied shipments authorized under this rule, except for shipments under subparagraph (g) (i) below, for which the cost of cartage only shall be paid. Costs for the servicing, dismantling, installing or special packing of personal effects and household goods shall not be reimbursed. Storage and demurrage charges shall not be reimbursed unless, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, they are directly incidental to the transportation of the consignment.

(f) The weight or volume of unaccompanied shipments of personal effects and household goods for which expenses are borne by the Organization under this rule shall include packing but exclude crating and lift vans.

Unaccompanied shipments on home leave, family visit or education grant travel

(g) When the authorized travel is by air or by land, charges for unaccompanied shipment of personal effects or household goods relating to travel on home leave, family visit or education grant may be reimbursed up to a maximum of:

(i) 50 kilograms, or 0.31 cubic metres, by the most economical means, per person and in respect of each journey, except as provided in subparagraph (ii) below. At the request of the staff member, this entitlement may be converted to 10 additional kilograms of accompanied excess baggage per person;

(ii) 200 kilograms, or 1.24 cubic metres, by the most economical means, for travel on education grant in regard to the first outward journey to, and the final return journey from, an educational institution.

Unaccompanied shipments for staff appointed or assigned for less than one year

(h) On travel on appointment or assignment for less than one year, or on separation from service of staff appointed for less than one year, charges for the shipment of personal effects and household goods by the most economical means may be reimbursed up to a maximum of 100 kilograms or 0.62 cubic metres. Where the appointment or assignment is extended for a total period of one year or longer, the staff member shall be paid expenses for an additional shipment of personal effects and household goods up to the maximum entitlement established in paragraph (i) below. Such additional shipment, however, shall not be paid for staff appointed or assigned to special missions and who receive a mission subsistence allowance under rule 103.21.

Unaccompanied shipments for staff appointed or assigned for one year or longer

(i) On travel on appointment or assignment for one year or longer, on transfer to another duty station or on separation from service of a staff member appointed for one year or longer, charges for the shipment of personal effects and household goods by the most economical means may be reimbursed up to a maximum of:

- (i) 1,000 kilograms or 6.23 cubic metres for the staff member;
- (ii) 500 kilograms or 3.11 cubic metres for the first family member; and
- (iii) 300 kilograms or 1.87 cubic metres for each additional family member authorized to travel at the expense of the Organization.

Unaccompanied shipment as advance removal of personal effects and household goods

(j) On travel on appointment, assignment, transfer or separation from service of a staff member for whom removal costs will be paid under staff rule 107.27, a staff member may be reimbursed the costs of advance shipment by the most economical means up to a maximum of:

- (i) 450 kilograms or 2.80 cubic metres for the staff member;
- (ii) 300 kilograms or 1.87 cubic metres for the first family member; and
- (iii) 150 kilograms or 0.93 cubic metres for each additional family member authorized to travel at the expense of the Organization. The weight or volume of any shipment under this paragraph shall be deducted from the maximum weight or volume to which the staff member is entitled under paragraph (d) of rule 107.27.

Additional shipment entitlements for international staff serving at designated duty stations

(k) Internationally recruited staff members serving at designated duty stations having difficult conditions of life and work shall be granted, under conditions established by the Secretary-General, the following special entitlements:

(i) An additional shipment entitlement once a year to the duty station by the most economical means of up to 50 kilograms or 0.31 cubic metres in respect of the staff member and each eligible family member for whom the Organization has paid travel costs to the duty station;

(ii) An additional 50-kilogram shipment entitlement in connection with the birth or adoption of a child.

Conversion of surface shipment to unaccompanied shipment by air

(l) When the most economical means of shipment is by surface, the entitlement may be converted to unaccompanied shipment by air under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Rule 107.22

Insurance

(a) Staff members shall not be reimbursed for the cost of personal accident insurance or of insurance of accompanied personal baggage. However, compensation may be paid, under arrangements in force under rule 106.5, in respect of loss or damage to such baggage determined to be directly attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations.

(b) In the case of shipments authorized under rule 107.21, except on home leave, family visit or education grant travel, and of the shipment and storage of personal effects and household goods under rule 107.27, insurance coverage will be provided by the Organization up to a maximum amount established by the Secretary-General.

(c) The United Nations shall not be responsible for the loss of or damage to unaccompanied shipments.

Rule 107.23

Travel advances

(a) Staff members authorized to travel shall provide themselves with sufficient funds for all current expenses by securing an advance of funds if necessary. A reasonable advance of funds against the estimated reimbursable travel expenses may be made to a staff member or his or her family members for expenses authorized under these Rules. An advance of funds shall be considered reasonable if it is not more than 80 per cent of the estimated reimbursable expenses. If, in the course of travel, the staff member has earned in subsistence allowance an amount equal to the amount advanced, the staff member may be advanced the balance of the estimated reimbursable expenses.

(b) However, in those cases where a staff member is authorized to travel in accordance with staff rule 107.1 (a) (ii), an advance of funds at the rate of 100 per cent of the estimated travel subsistence allowance payable in accordance with staff rule 107.15 may be made.

Rule 107.24

Illness or accident during travel

The United Nations shall pay or reimburse reasonable hospital and medical expenses, insofar as these are not covered by other arrangements, which may be incurred by staff members who become ill or are injured while in travel status on official business.

Rule 107.25

Reimbursement of travel expenses

The Secretary-General may reject any claim for payment or reimbursement of travel or removal expenses which are incurred by a staff member in contravention of any provision of these Rules.

Rule 107.26

Transportation of decedents

Upon the death of a staff member or of his or her spouse or dependent child, the United Nations shall pay the expenses of transportation of the body from the official duty station or, in the event of death having occurred while in travel status, from the place of death, to a place to which the deceased was entitled to return transportation under rule 107.1 or 107.2. These expenses shall include reasonable costs for preparation of the body. If local interment is elected, reasonable expenses incurred for the interment may be reimbursed.

Rule 107.27

Removal costs

Eligibility for payment of removal costs

(a) An entitlement to payment of removal costs of personal effects and household goods, as defined in staff rule 107.21 (c), shall arise with respect to internationally recruited staff members, under the following circumstances and in accordance with conditions established by the Secretary-General:

- (i) On initial appointment to an established office for a period of two years or longer;
- (ii) On change of duty station to an established office, provided that the staff member is expected to serve at the new duty station for a period of two years or longer;
- (iii) On separation from service from an established office, provided that the staff member had an appointment for a period of two years or longer or had completed not less than two years of continuous service and:
 - a. Had been granted removal to the duty station or to a prior duty station in the course of a period of uninterrupted service; or
 - b. Had been recruited at the duty station from which he or she is separating and is repatriating to the place of home leave or other location, in accordance with rule 107.1(c).

(b) No entitlement to payment of removal costs shall arise with respect to service at a special mission.

Relationship with non-removal element of mobility and hardship allowance

(c) When an entitlement to payment of removal costs arises under paragraph (a) above, it shall normally be paid in case of service at headquarters duty stations or other duty stations classified in the same category. The non-removal element of the mobility and hardship allowance under rule 103.22, and the appropriate unaccompanied shipment under rule 107.21, shall normally be paid in lieu of removal costs in case of service at established offices classified in other categories.

Maximum entitlements

(d) Payment by the United Nations of removal costs shall be on the basis of the following:

(i) 4,890 kilograms or 30.58 cubic metres, including packing but excluding crating and lift vans, for a staff member without a spouse or dependent child, and 8,150 kilograms or 50.97 cubic metres for a staff member with a spouse or dependent child residing at the official duty station. Higher maxima may be authorized if the staff member presents convincing evidence that his or her normal and necessary personal effects and household goods to be removed exceed those limits;

(ii) The normal costs of packing, crating and lift vans, cartage, unpacking and uncrating shall be reimbursed. Storage and demurrage charges shall not be reimbursed unless, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, they are directly incidental to the transportation of the consignment;

(iii) Transportation of personal effects and household goods shall be by the most economical means, as determined by the Secretary-General;

(iv) In addition to the removal expenses under this rule, the cost of transporting a privately owned automobile to one of the duty stations designated for that purpose may be partially reimbursed under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

(e) Payment of removal expenses shall be on the basis of shipment from and to the following destinations:

(i) On appointment, from the place of recruitment or the place recognized as the staff member's home for purposes of home leave under rule 105.3, to the official duty station;

(ii) Upon separation from service, from the official duty station to any one place to which the staff member is entitled to be returned in accordance with the provisions of rule 107.1;

(iii) Payment of removal expenses from or to a place other than those specified may be authorized under terms and conditions defined by the Secretary-General. No expenses shall be paid for removing a staff member's personal effects and household goods from one residence to another at the same duty station.

Storage of personal effects and household goods

(f) When a staff member is assigned to a new duty station without payment of removal costs or from a duty station to which he or she had a removal entitlement under paragraph (a) above or would have had such entitlement on appointment from outside the duty station, the United Nations shall pay the costs of storage of personal effects and household goods, subject to conditions established by the Secretary-General and provided that the staff member is expected to return to the same duty station within five years.

Adjustments to entitlements

(g) Where both husband and wife are staff members and each is entitled to removal of personal effects and household goods under this rule or to unaccompanied shipment under rule 107.21, and taking into account rule 104.10 (d), the maximum entitlement to removal at United Nations expense for both spouses shall be that provided for a staff member with a spouse or dependent child residing at the official duty station.

(h) In cases where, for reasons not attributable to the Organization, the staff member has not completed the period of service in respect of which removal costs have been paid, these costs may be adjusted proportionately and recovery made under conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Rule 107.28

Loss of entitlement to unaccompanied shipment or removal expenses

(a) A staff member who resigns before completing two years of service shall not normally be entitled to payment of removal expenses under rule 107.27 above.

(b) Entitlement to removal expenses under rule 107.27 (a) (i), (ii) and (iii) shall normally cease if removal has not commenced within two years after the date on which the staff member became entitled to removal expenses or if the staff member's services are not expected to continue for more than six months beyond the proposed date of arrival of the personal effects and household goods.

(c) On separation from service, entitlement to unaccompanied shipment expenses under rule 107.21 (h) and (i) or removal expenses under rule 107.27 shall cease if the shipment or removal has not commenced within two years after the date of separation. However, in accordance with rule 104.10 (d), where both husband and wife are staff members and the spouse who separates first is entitled to unaccompanied shipment or removal expenses, his or her entitlement shall not cease until two years after the date of separation of the other spouse.

Article VIII

STAFF RELATIONS

Regulation 8.1

(a) The Secretary-General shall establish and maintain continuous contact and communication with the staff in order to ensure the effective participation of the staff in identifying, examining and resolving issues relating to staff welfare, including conditions of work, general conditions of life and other personnel policies.

(b) Staff representative bodies shall be established and shall be entitled to initiate proposals to the Secretary-General for the purpose set forth in paragraph (a) above. They shall be organized in such a way as to afford equitable representation to all staff members, by means of elections that shall take place at least biennially under electoral regulations drawn up by the respective staff representative body and agreed to by the Secretary-General.

(c) (Cancelled)

Regulation 8.2

The Secretary-General shall establish joint staff-management machinery at both local and Secretariat-wide levels to advise him or her regarding personnel policies and general questions of staff welfare as provided in regulation 8.1.

Chapter VIII

STAFF RELATIONS

Rule 108.1

Staff representative bodies

Definition

The term "staff representative bodies", as used in the present chapter of the Staff Rules, shall be deemed to include staff councils, as referred to in other chapters of the Rules, as well as other corresponding staff representative bodies established in accordance with staff regulation 8.1 (b).

(a) Staff representative bodies shall be established at the following duty stations: Addis Ababa, Baghdad, Bangkok, Geneva, Jerusalem, Nairobi, New York, Santiago and Vienna. Staff representative bodies may also be established at other duty stations, each of which may affiliate with a staff representative body at one of the duty stations specified above. Staff members serving in duty stations where no staff representative body exists may decide to be represented through a staff representative body at one of the specified duty stations.

(b) Each member of the staff may participate in elections to a staff representative body, and all staff serving at a duty station where a staff representative body exists shall be eligible for election to it, subject to any exceptions as may be provided in the electoral regulations drawn up by the staff representative body concerned and meeting the requirements of regulation 8.1 (b).

(c) Polling officers selected by the staff shall conduct the election of the members of each staff representative body, on the basis of the electoral regulations of the staff representative body concerned, in such a way as to ensure the complete secrecy and fairness of the vote. The polling officers shall also conduct other elections of staff members as required by the Staff Regulations or Staff Rules.

(d) The staff representative bodies shall be entitled to effective participation, through their duly elected executive committees, in identifying, examining and resolving issues relating to staff welfare, including conditions of work, general conditions of life and other personnel policies, and shall be entitled to make proposals to the Secretary-General on behalf of the staff.

(e) In accordance with the principle of freedom of association, staff members may form and join associations, unions or other groupings. However, formal contact and communication on the matters referred to in paragraph (d) shall be conducted at each duty station through the executive committee of the staff representative body, which shall be the sole and exclusive representative body for such purpose.

(f) General administrative instructions or directives on questions within the scope of paragraph (d) shall be transmitted in advance, unless emergency situations make this impracticable, to the executive committees of the staff representative bodies concerned for consideration and comment before being placed in effect.

Rule 108.2

Joint staff-management machinery

- (a) The joint staff-management machinery provided for in regulation 8.2 shall consist of:
 - (i) Joint advisory committees or corresponding staff-management bodies, at designated duty stations, normally composed of not less than three and not more than seven staff representatives and an equal number of representatives of the Secretary-General;
 - (ii) A Secretariat-wide joint staff-management body composed of equal numbers of representatives of the staff and representatives of the Secretary-General.
- (b) The President of the staff-management bodies referred to in paragraph (a) above shall be selected by the Secretary-General from a list proposed by the staff representatives.
- (c) Instructions or directives embodying recommendations made by the bodies referred to in paragraph (a) above shall be regarded as having satisfied the requirements of rule 108.1 (d) and (f).
- (d) The joint staff-management bodies referred to in paragraph (a) shall establish their own rules and procedures.
- (e) The Secretary-General shall designate secretaries of the joint staff-management bodies referred to in paragraph (a) and shall arrange for such services as may be necessary for their proper functioning.

Article IX

SEPARATION FROM SERVICE

Regulation 9.1

(a) The Secretary-General may terminate the appointment of a staff member who holds a permanent appointment and whose probationary period has been completed if the necessities of service require abolition of the post or reduction of the staff, if the services of the individual concerned prove unsatisfactory or if he or she is, for reasons of health, incapacitated for further service.

The Secretary-General may also, giving the reasons therefor, terminate the appointment of a staff member who holds a permanent appointment:

- (i) If the conduct of the staff member indicates that the staff member does not meet the highest standards of integrity required by Article 101, paragraph 3, of the Charter;
- (ii) If facts anterior to the appointment of the staff member and relevant to his or her suitability come to light that, if they had been known at the time of his or her appointment, should, under the standards established in the Charter, have precluded his or her appointment.

No termination under subparagraphs (i) and (ii) shall take place until the matter has been considered and reported on by a special advisory board appointed for that purpose by the Secretary-General.

Finally, the Secretary-General may terminate the appointment of a staff member who holds a permanent appointment if such action would be in the interest of the good administration of the Organization and in accordance with the standards of the Charter, provided that the action is not contested by the staff member concerned.

(b) The Secretary-General may terminate the appointment of a staff member with a fixed-term appointment prior to the expiration date for any of the reasons specified in paragraph (a) above, or for such other reason as may be specified in the letter of appointment.

(c) In the case of all other staff members, including staff members serving a probationary period for a permanent appointment, the Secretary-General may, at any time, terminate the appointment if, in his or her opinion, such action would be in the interest of the United Nations.

Regulation 9.2

Staff members may resign from the Secretariat upon giving the Secretary-General the notice required under the terms of their appointment.

Regulation 9.3

(a) If the Secretary-General terminates an appointment, the staff member shall be given such notice and such indemnity payment as may be applicable under the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules. Payments of termination indemnity shall be made by the Secretary-General in accordance with the rates and conditions specified in annex III to the present Regulations.

(b) The Secretary-General may, where the circumstances warrant and he or she considers it justified, pay to a staff member terminated under the final paragraph of staff regulation 9.1 (a) a termination indemnity payment not more than 50 per cent higher than that which would otherwise be payable under the Staff Regulations.

Regulation 9.4

The Secretary-General shall establish a scheme for the payment of repatriation grants within the maximum rates and under the conditions specified in annex IV to the present Regulations.

Regulation 9.5

Staff members shall not be retained in active service beyond the age of sixty years or, if appointed on or after 1 January 1990, beyond the age of sixty-two years. The Secretary-General may, in the interest of the Organization, extend this age limit in exceptional cases.

Chapter IX

SEPARATION FROM SERVICE

Rule 109.1

Special Advisory Board, definition of termination, and abolition of posts and reduction of staff

(a) Special Advisory Board

The Special Advisory Board under staff regulation 9.1 (a) shall be composed of a Chairman appointed by the Secretary-General on the nomination of the President of the International Court of Justice and of four members appointed by the Secretary-General in agreement with the Staff Council.

(b) Definition of termination

A termination within the meaning of the Staff Regulations is a separation from service initiated by the Secretary-General, other than retirement at the age of sixty years or more or summary dismissal for serious misconduct.

Abandonment of post is a separation initiated by the staff member other than by way of resignation and is not considered a termination initiated by the Secretary-General within the meaning of staff regulation 9.1 (a).

(c) Abolition of posts and reduction of staff

(i) Except as otherwise expressly provided in subparagraph (ii) b below, if the necessities of service require abolition of a post or reduction of the staff and subject to the availability of suitable posts in which their services can be effectively utilized, staff members with permanent appointments shall be retained in preference to those on all other types of appointments, and staff members with probationary appointments shall be retained in preference to those on fixed-term or indefinite appointments, provided that due regard shall be had in all cases to relative competence, to integrity and to length of service. Due regard shall also be had to nationality in the case of staff members with no more than five years of service and in the case of staff members who have changed their nationality within the preceding five years when the suitable posts available are subject to the principle of geographical distribution;

- (ii) a. The provisions of subparagraph (i) above insofar as they relate to locally recruited staff members shall be deemed to have been satisfied if such locally recruited staff members have received consideration for suitable posts available at their duty stations;
- b. Staff members specifically recruited for service with any programme, fund or subsidiary organ of the United Nations which enjoys a special status in matters of appointment under a resolution of the General Assembly or as a result of an agreement entered by the Secretary-General have no entitlement under this rule for consideration for posts outside the organ for which they were recruited.

Resignation

(a) A resignation, within the meaning of the Staff Regulations, is a separation initiated by a staff member.

(b) Unless otherwise specified in their letters of appointment, three months' written notice of resignation shall be given by staff members having permanent appointments and thirty days' written notice of resignation by those having temporary appointments. The Secretary-General, however, may accept resignations on shorter notice.

(c) The Secretary-General may require the resignation to be submitted in person in order to be acceptable.

Rule 109.3

Notice of termination

(a) A staff member whose permanent appointment is to be terminated shall be given not less than three months' written notice of such termination.

(b) A staff member whose temporary appointment is to be terminated shall be given not less than thirty days' written notice of such termination or such written notice as may otherwise be stipulated in his or her letter of appointment.

(c) In lieu of the notice period, the Secretary-General may authorize compensation equivalent to salary, applicable post adjustment and allowances corresponding to the relevant notice period, at the rate in effect on the last day of service.

Rule 109.4

Termination indemnity

(a) Payment of termination indemnity under staff regulation 9.3 and annex III to the Staff Regulations shall be calculated:

(i) For staff in the Professional and higher categories, on the basis of the staff member's gross salary less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i);

(ii) For staff in the Field Service category, on the basis of the staff member's gross salary less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i), plus language allowance, if any;

(iii) For staff in the General Service and related categories, on the basis of the staff member's gross salary, including:

a. Language allowance, if any; and

- b. In respect of staff in receipt of non-resident's allowance under rule 103.5 (d), such non-resident's allowance less staff assessment, according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (ii) applied to the gross salary alone.

(b) Length of service shall be deemed to comprise the total period of a staff member's full-time continuous service with the Secretariat, regardless of types of appointment. Continuity of such service shall not be considered as broken by periods of special leave. However, service credits shall not accrue during periods of special leave with partial pay or without pay of one full month or more.

(c) Termination indemnity shall not be paid to any staff member who, upon separation from service, will receive a retirement benefit under article 28 of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund Regulations or compensation for total disability under rule 106.4.

(d) Upon application of a staff member who is to be separated as a result of an agreed termination of appointment or because of abolition of post or reduction in staff and who is within two years of age 55 years and 25 years of contributory service in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund or who is over that age and within two years of 25 years of contributory service, the Secretary-General may place such staff member on special leave without pay for pension purposes pursuant to staff rule 105.2 (c) under conditions to be established by the Secretary-General. Such special leave shall commence from the date on which the separation would otherwise have taken effect for a period of up to two years for the sole purpose of enabling the staff member to remain a participant in the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund during this period.

(e) The Organization will, on the written request of the staff member prior to being placed on special leave pursuant to the preceding paragraph, pay the pension contribution of the Organization and/or the staff member during this period of special leave. The total amount of these contributions will be deducted from the termination indemnity otherwise payable.

(f) A staff member selecting the option of special leave described in paragraph (d) of this rule shall sign an undertaking acknowledging that his or her status on special leave is solely for pension purposes and that his or her entitlements and those of any dependants to all other emoluments and benefits under the Staff Regulations and Rules is determined finally as of the date of commencement of such special leave.

Rule 109.5

Repatriation grant

Purpose

(a) The purpose of the repatriation grant provided by staff regulation 9.4 is to facilitate the relocation of expatriate staff members to a country other than the country of the last duty station, provided that they meet the conditions contained in annex IV to the Staff Regulations and in this rule.

Definitions

(b) The following definitions shall be used in ascertaining whether the conditions contained in annex IV to the Staff Regulations and this rule are met:

- (i) "Country of nationality" shall mean the country of nationality recognized by the Secretary-General;

- (ii) "Dependent child" shall mean a child recognized as dependent under rule 103.24(b) at the time of the staff member's separation from service;
- (iii) "Home country" shall mean the country of home leave entitlement under rule 105.3 or such other country as the Secretary-General may determine;
- (iv) "Obligation to repatriate" shall mean the obligation to return a staff member and his or her spouse and dependent children, upon separation, at the expense of the United Nations, to a place outside the country of the last duty station;
- (v) "Qualifying service" shall mean one year or more of continuing service and residence away from the home country and the country of nationality of a staff member, or the country where the staff member has acquired permanent resident status.

Eligibility

(c) Staff members who are internationally recruited shall be eligible for payment of the repatriation grant in accordance with annex IV to the Staff Regulations if they meet the following conditions:

- (i) The Organization had the obligation to repatriate the staff member upon separation after qualifying service of one year or longer;
- (ii) The staff member resided outside his or her country of nationality while serving at the last duty station;
- (iii) The staff member has not been summarily dismissed or separated from service on grounds of abandonment of post.

(d) No repatriation grant shall be paid to:

- (i) A staff member locally recruited under rule 104.6;
- (ii) A staff member who has permanent resident status in the country of the duty station at the time of separation.

Evidence of relocation

(e) Payment of the repatriation grant after separation of an eligible staff member shall require prior submission of documentary evidence satisfactory to the Secretary-General that the former staff member has relocated away from the country of the last duty station.

Amount and computation of the grant

(f) The amount of repatriation grant for eligible staff members shall be computed on the basis of annex IV to the Staff Regulations and in accordance with terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General for determining the length of qualifying service for repatriation grant purposes.

(g) When both husband and wife are staff members and each is entitled to payment of a repatriation grant on separation from service, the amount of the grant paid to each shall be calculated in accordance with terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Time limitation for submission of the claim

(h) Entitlement to the repatriation grant shall cease if no claim has been submitted within two years after the effective date of separation. However, when both husband and wife are staff members and the spouse who separates first is entitled to the repatriation grant, the claim for payment of the grant by that spouse shall be considered receivable if made within two years of the date of separation of the other spouse.

Payment in case of the death of an eligible staff member

(i) In the event of the death of an eligible staff member, no payment shall be made unless there is a surviving spouse or one or more dependent children whom the United Nations is obligated to repatriate. If there are one or more such survivors, payment shall be made under terms and conditions established by the Secretary-General.

Rule 109.6

Retirement

Retirement under article 28 of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund Regulations shall not be regarded as a termination within the meaning of the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules.

Rule 109.7

Expiration of fixed-term appointments

(a) A temporary appointment for a fixed term shall expire automatically and without prior notice on the expiration date specified in the letter of appointment.

(b) Separation as a result of the expiration of any such appointment shall not be regarded as a termination within the meaning of the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules.

Rule 109.8

Commutation of accrued annual leave

If, upon separation from service, a staff member has accrued annual leave, the staff member shall be paid a sum of money in commutation of the period of such accrued leave up to a maximum of sixty working days. The payment shall be calculated:

(i) For staff in the Professional and higher categories, on the basis of the staff member's net base salary plus post adjustment;

(ii) For staff in the Field Service category, on the basis of the staff member's net base salary plus post adjustment;

(iii) For staff in the General Service and related categories, on the basis of the staff member's gross salary, including:

a. Language allowance, if any; and

- b. In respect of staff in receipt of non-resident's allowance under rule 103.5 (d), such non-resident's allowance, less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (ii) applied to the gross salary alone.

Rule 109.9

Restitution of advance annual and sick leave

On separation, a staff member who has taken advance annual or sick leave beyond that which he or she has subsequently accrued shall make restitution for such advance leave by means of a cash refund or an offset against moneys due to the staff member from the United Nations, equivalent to the remuneration received, including allowances and other payments, in respect of the advance leave period. The Secretary-General may waive this requirement if in his or her opinion there are exceptional or compelling reasons for so doing.

Rule 109.10

Last day for pay purposes

(a) When a staff member is separated from service, the date on which entitlement to salary, allowances and benefits shall cease shall be determined according to the following provisions:

- (i) On resignation, the date shall be either the date of expiration of the notice period under rule 109.2 or such other date as the Secretary-General accepts. Staff members will be expected to perform their duties during the period of notice of resignation, except when the resignation takes effect upon the completion of maternity leave or following sick or special leave. Annual leave will be granted during the notice of resignation only for brief periods;
- (ii) On expiration of a fixed-term appointment, the date shall be the date specified in the letter of appointment;
- (iii) On termination, the date shall be the date provided in the notice of termination;
- (iv) On retirement, the date shall be the date approved by the Secretary-General for retirement;
- (v) In the case of summary dismissal, the date shall be the date of dismissal;
- (vi) In the case of death, the date on which entitlement to salary, allowances and benefits shall cease shall be the date of death, unless there is a surviving spouse or dependent child. In this event, the date shall be determined in accordance with the following schedule:

Completed years of service in the Secretariat (as defined in rule 109.4)	Months of extension beyond date of death
9 or more	9

Payment related to the period of extension beyond the date of death may be made in a lump sum as soon as the pay accounts and related matters can be closed. Such payment shall be made only to the surviving spouse and dependent children. For staff in the Professional and higher categories, the payment shall be calculated on the basis of the staff member's gross salary less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i). For staff in the Field Service category, the payment shall be calculated on the basis of the staff member's gross salary, less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (i), plus language allowance, if any. For staff in the General Service and related categories, the payment shall be calculated on the basis of the staff member's gross salary, including:

- a. Language allowance, if any; and
- b. In respect of staff in receipt of non-resident's allowance under rule 103.5 (d), such non-resident's allowance,

less staff assessment according to the schedule of rates set forth in staff regulation 3.3 (b) (ii) applied to the gross salary alone. All other entitlements and accrual of benefits shall cease as of the date of death, except as provided by staff rule 103.20 (g) for payment of education grant when the staff member dies while in service after the beginning of the school year.

(b) When an internationally recruited staff member has an entitlement to return travel under rule 107.1 (a) (vi), this shall not affect the determination of the last day for pay purposes in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a) above. In the case of resignation, expiration of fixed-term appointment, termination or retirement, the staff member shall be paid, on separation, an additional amount for days of authorized travel estimated on the basis of uninterrupted travel by an approved route and mode from the duty station to the place of entitlement to return travel. Such amount shall be calculated as is done for commutation of accrued annual leave under staff rule 109.8.

Certification of service

Any staff member who so requests shall, on leaving the service of the United Nations, be given a statement relating to the nature of his or her duties and the length of service. On the staff member's written request, the statement shall also refer to the quality of his or her work and his or her official conduct.

Article X

DISCIPLINARY MEASURES

Regulation 10.1

The Secretary-General may establish administrative machinery with staff participation which will be available to advise him or her in disciplinary cases.

Regulation 10.2

The Secretary-General may impose disciplinary measures on staff members whose conduct is unsatisfactory.

The Secretary-General may summarily dismiss a member of the staff for serious misconduct.

Chapter X

DISCIPLINARY MEASURES AND PROCEDURES

Rule 110.1

Misconduct

Failure by a staff member to comply with his or her obligations under the Charter of the United Nations, the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules or other relevant administrative issuances, or to observe the standards of conduct expected of an international civil servant, may amount to unsatisfactory conduct within the meaning of staff regulation 10.2, leading to the institution of disciplinary proceedings and the imposition of disciplinary measures for misconduct.

Suspension during investigation and disciplinary proceedings

- (a) If a charge of misconduct is made against a staff member and the Secretary-General so decides, the staff member may be suspended from duty during the investigation and pending completion of disciplinary proceedings for a period which should normally not exceed three months. Such suspension shall be with pay unless, in exceptional circumstances, the Secretary-General decides that suspension without pay is appropriate. The suspension shall be without prejudice to the rights of the staff member and shall not constitute a disciplinary measure.
- (b) A staff member suspended pursuant to paragraph (a) shall be given a written statement of the reason for the suspension and its probable duration.
- (c) If a suspension pursuant to paragraph (a) is without pay and the charge of misconduct is subsequently not sustained, any salary withheld shall be restored.

Rule 110.3

Disciplinary measures

- (a) Disciplinary measures may take one or more of the following forms:
 - (i) Written censure by the Secretary-General;
 - (ii) Loss of one or more steps in grade;
 - (iii) Deferment, for a specified period, of eligibility for within-grade increment;
 - (iv) Suspension without pay;
 - (v) Fine;
 - (vi) Demotion;

(vii) Separation from service, with or without notice or compensation in lieu thereof, notwithstanding rule 109.3;

(viii) Summary dismissal.

(b) The following measures shall not be considered to be disciplinary measures, within the meaning of this rule:

(i) Reprimand, written or oral, by a supervisory official;

(ii) Recovery of moneys owed to the Organization;

(iii) Suspension pursuant to rule 110.2.

Rule 110.4

Due process

(a) No disciplinary proceedings may be instituted against a staff member unless he or she has been notified of the allegations against him or her, as well as of the right to seek the assistance in his or her defence of another staff member or retired staff member, and has been given a reasonable opportunity to respond to those allegations.

(b) No staff member shall be subject to disciplinary measures until the matter has been referred to a Joint Disciplinary Committee for advice as to what measures, if any, are appropriate, except that no such advice shall be required:

(i) If referral to the Joint Disciplinary Committee is waived by mutual agreement of the staff member concerned and the Secretary-General;

(ii) In respect of summary dismissal imposed by the Secretary-General in cases where the seriousness of the misconduct warrants immediate separation from service.

(c) In cases of summary dismissal imposed without prior submission of the case to a Joint Disciplinary Committee in accordance with subparagraphs (b) (i) and (ii), the staff member or former staff member concerned may, within two months of having received written notification of the measure, request that the measure be reviewed by such a Committee. A request shall not have the effect of suspending the measure. After the advice of the Committee has been received, the Secretary-General shall decide as soon as possible what action to take in respect thereof. An appeal in respect of such a decision may not be submitted to the Joint Appeals Board.

(d) An appeal in respect of a disciplinary measure considered by a Joint Disciplinary Committee pursuant to either paragraph (b) or (c) may be submitted directly to the United Nations Administrative Tribunal.

Rule 110.5

Joint Disciplinary Committees

(a) A standing Joint Disciplinary Committee is established and shall be available to advise the Secretary-General at his or her request in disciplinary matters at Headquarters; comparable standing committees may be established in the United Nations Office at Geneva, the United Nations Office at Vienna and such other offices as may be designated by the Secretary-General.

(b) The Secretary-General may also establish ad hoc Joint Disciplinary Committees at these or other duty stations for a particular case or series of cases, or may substitute an alternate procedure that conforms to the requirements of due process at duty stations or missions where there is no established staff representative body.

Rule 110.6

Composition of Joint Disciplinary Committees

- (a) Each standing Joint Disciplinary Committee shall be composed of:
- (i) Chairpersons, appointed by the Secretary-General after consultation with the staff representative body or bodies at the duty station at which the Committee is established;
 - (ii) Members appointed by the Secretary-General;
 - (iii) Members elected by the staff at the duty station at which the Committee is established.
- (b) If necessary, additional members may be selected at any time in the same manner as indicated in paragraph (a).
- (c) The chairpersons and members of the Joint Disciplinary Committee shall be appointed or elected for two years, shall be eligible for reappointment or re-election and shall remain in office until their successors are appointed or elected as long as they are staff members assigned to the duty station of the Committee.
- (d) A chairperson may be removed from the Joint Disciplinary Committee by the Secretary-General after consultation with the staff representative body or bodies at the duty station at which the Committee is established. The members appointed by the Secretary-General may be removed by him or her. The members elected by the staff may be recalled by a majority vote of the staff at the duty station at which the Committee is established, taken at the initiative of any staff representative body at that duty station.
- (e) The Secretary-General shall, in consultation with the staff representative body or bodies at the duty station at which a Joint Disciplinary Committee is established, appoint a Presiding Officer from among the panel of chairpersons.
- (f) For the consideration of each case, a panel of the Joint Disciplinary Committee shall be constituted by the Presiding Officer as follows:
- (i) A chairperson;
 - (ii) A member from among those appointed by the Secretary-General;
 - (iii) A member from among those elected by the staff.

The Presiding Officer, at the request of either party, may disqualify the chairperson or any member from the consideration of a specific case if in the opinion of the Presiding Officer the action is warranted by the relation of that member to the staff member whose case is to be considered or by any possible conflict of interest. The Presiding Officer may also excuse any member at that member's request from the consideration of a specific case.

- (g) Ad hoc Joint Disciplinary Committees shall be composed as follows:
- (i) At duty stations where there is an established staff representative body or bodies, ad hoc Joint Disciplinary Committees shall be composed, by the Secretary-General or an official designated by him or her, in a manner similar to that of standing Joint Disciplinary Committees, except that staff-appointed members may be substituted for staff-elected members. If no appointments are made within a period set by the Secretary-General, the designated official may make the appointments after consultation with the staff representative body or bodies;
 - (ii) At duty stations or missions where there is no established staff representative body, the head of office or mission, after reporting the matter to the Secretary-General, shall constitute a panel from among staff present at the duty station to investigate the allegations and to recommend what, if any, disciplinary measure should be imposed. The panel members shall be selected with a view to ensuring that the rights of all parties are respected.
- (h) Any case relating to a staff member serving at a duty station where a standing Joint Disciplinary Committee is established shall be referred to that Committee, unless the Secretary-General considers there is a good reason to refer the case to a standing Committee at a different duty station or to an ad hoc Committee at the same or another duty station.

Rule 110.7

Joint Disciplinary Committee procedure

- (a) In considering a case, the Joint Disciplinary Committee shall act with maximum dispatch and shall make every effort to provide its advice to the Secretary-General within four weeks after the case has been submitted to it.
- (b) Proceedings before a Joint Disciplinary Committee shall normally be limited to the original written presentation of the case, together with brief statements and rebuttals, which may be made orally or in writing, but without delay. If the Committee considers that it requires the testimony of the staff member concerned or of other witnesses, it may, at its sole discretion, obtain such testimony by written deposition, by personal appearance before the Committee, before one of its members or before another staff member acting as a special master, or by telephone or other means of communication.
- (c) Each standing Joint Disciplinary Committee shall adopt its own rules of procedure, which shall be consistent with these Staff Rules and with any applicable administrative instructions, as well as with the requirements of due process. An ad hoc Committee shall apply the rules of procedure of the Headquarters Joint Disciplinary Committee, except to the extent that it decides, consistent with the requirements of due process, to apply other such rules.
- (d) A Joint Disciplinary Committee shall permit a staff member to arrange to have his or her case presented before it by any other staff member or retired staff member at the same duty station where the Committee is established.

Article XI

APPEALS

Regulation 11.1

The Secretary-General shall establish administrative machinery with staff participation to advise him or her in case of any appeal by staff members against an administrative decision alleging the non-observance of their terms of appointment, including all pertinent regulations and rules.

Regulation 11.2

The United Nations Administrative Tribunal shall, under conditions prescribed in its statute, hear and pass judgement upon applications from staff members alleging non-observance of their terms of appointment, including all pertinent regulations and rules.

Chapter XI

JOINT APPEALS BOARDS

Rule 111.1

Establishment

(a) Joint appeals boards shall be established in New York, Geneva, Vienna and Nairobi and at such other duty stations as may be designated by the Secretary-General to consider and advise the Secretary-General regarding appeals filed under the terms of staff regulation 11.1.

(b) Each Joint Appeals Board shall be composed of:

- (i) Chairpersons appointed by the Secretary-General from among a list presented by the joint staff-management machinery in respect of the staff representative body or bodies at the duty station at which the Board is established;
- (ii) Members appointed by the Secretary-General;
- (iii) An equal number of members elected by ballot of the staff under the jurisdiction of the Board.

The number of chairpersons and members of each Board shall be determined by the Secretary-General upon recommendation of the joint staff-management machinery in respect of the staff representative body or bodies at the duty station at which the Board is established.

(c) The chairpersons and members of the Joint Appeals Board shall be appointed or elected for two years, shall be eligible for reappointment or re-election and shall remain in office until their successors are appointed or elected.

(d) A chairperson may be removed from a Joint Appeals Board by the Secretary-General upon recommendation of the joint staff-management machinery in respect of the staff representative body or bodies of the duty station at which the Board is established. The members appointed by the Secretary-General may be removed by him or her. The members elected by the staff may be recalled by a majority vote of the staff under the jurisdiction of the Board concerned, taken at the initiative of any staff representative body at the duty station at which that Board is established.

(e) Each Joint Appeals Board shall establish its own rules of procedure, which shall specify how its presiding officer and, where necessary, any alternate presiding officers shall be selected from among the chairpersons.

(f) Each Joint Appeals Board may, by a majority vote of all its chairpersons and members, recommend to the Secretary-General changes in the present chapter of the Staff Rules.

(g) The secretariat of each Joint Appeals Board shall consist of a secretary and such other staff as may be required for its proper functioning.

Rule 111.2

Appeals

(a) A staff member wishing to appeal an administrative decision pursuant to staff regulation 11.1 shall, as a first step, address a letter to the Secretary-General requesting that the administrative decision be reviewed; such letter must be sent within two months from the date the staff member received notification of the decision in writing.

- (i) If the Secretary-General replies to the staff member's letter, he or she may appeal against the answer within one month of the receipt of such reply;
- (ii) If the Secretary-General does not reply to the letter within one month in respect of a staff member stationed in New York or within two months in respect of a staff member stationed elsewhere, the staff member may appeal against the original administrative decision within one month of the expiration of the time limit specified in this subparagraph for the Secretary-General's reply.

(b) At any time after a request for review has been submitted, but before a panel of the Joint Appeals Board has been constituted to hear an appeal, conciliation may be sought on the issues involved at the initiative of the Secretary-General, the staff member or the presiding officer of the Joint Appeals Board. The presiding officer shall refer the matter for that purpose to a chairperson or member of the Joint Appeals Board. This procedure is without prejudice to the right of the staff member to pursue an appeal under the provisions of this rule if the issues cannot be resolved through conciliation.

(c) Neither a request for administrative review under paragraph (a) above nor the filing of an appeal under paragraph (d) below shall have the effect of suspending action on the contested decision.

- (i) However, the staff member concerned may request a suspension of action on such decision by writing to the Secretary of the appropriate Joint Appeals Board under paragraph (d) below. The request shall set forth the relevant facts and indicate how implementation would directly and irreparably injure the staff member's rights;
- (ii) Upon receipt of such a request, a panel of the Board shall be promptly constituted and shall act expeditiously. If the panel, after considering the views of both parties, determines that the decision has not been implemented and that its implementation would result in irreparable injury to the appellant, it may recommend to the Secretary-General the suspension of action on that decision:
 - a. Until the time limits specified in subparagraph (a) (i) or (ii) have passed without an appeal having been filed; or
 - b. If an appeal is filed, until a decision on the appeal is taken;
- (iii) The Secretary-General's decision on such a recommendation is not subject to appeal.

(d) An appeal pursuant to paragraph (a) or a request for suspension of action pursuant to paragraph (c) above shall be filed with the Secretary of the appropriate Joint Appeals Board, to be determined as follows:

- (i) With respect to staff members serving at a duty station at which a Board has been established or who are administered by organizational units located at such duty station, it shall be the Board;
 - (ii) With respect to former staff members who last served at a duty station at which a Board has been established or who were administered by organizational units located at such a duty station, it shall be that Board;
 - (iii) With respect to all other staff members and all other former staff members, it shall be the Board established in New York, provided that the Secretary-General may decide, at the request of the staff member, to refer the appeal to another one of the Boards or to establish an appropriate ad hoc body. Such staff members or former staff members may meet the time limits specified in subparagraph (a) (i) or (ii) by delivering the requisite submissions within such limits to any office of the United Nations for transmission to the appropriate Board.
- (e) (i) For the consideration of each appeal, the presiding officer of the appropriate Joint Appeals Board shall constitute a panel of the Board, composed as follows:
- a. A panel chairperson from among the chairpersons of the Board;
 - b. A member selected from among those appointed by the Secretary-General;
 - c. A member selected from among those elected by the staff;
- (ii) In constituting such panels, the maximum possible rotation of chairpersons and members of the Board shall be observed: the modalities of such rotation shall be specified in the rules of procedure of the Board. No person who has assisted the Secretary-General in a conciliation procedure referred to in paragraph (b) shall serve on a panel established to consider an appeal relating to the same case;
- (iii) Before a panel undertakes consideration of an appeal, the parties shall be notified of the proposed composition thereof. The presiding officer of the Board may, at the request of either party, disqualify the chairperson or either member if, in the opinion of the presiding officer, such action is warranted to ensure impartiality. He or she may also excuse the chairperson or either member from serving on the panel;
- (iv) Subject to the principles set out in subparagraphs (i) to (iii), the presiding officer of the Board shall fill any vacancies arising on the panel.
- (f) An appeal shall not be receivable unless the time limits specified in paragraph (a) above have been met or have been waived, in exceptional circumstances, by the panel constituted for the appeal.
- (g) At the duty station where the appeal is considered, the designated representative of the Secretary-General shall submit a written reply within two months following the date of receipt of the appeal.
- (h) Proceedings before a panel shall normally be limited to the original written presentation of the case, together with brief statements and rebuttals, which may be made orally or in writing, in one of the working languages of the Secretariat.

(i) A staff member may arrange to have his or her appeal presented to the panel on his or her behalf by another serving or retired staff member. The staff member may not, however, be represented before the panel by any other person.

(j) Where the competence of the Joint Appeals Board is in doubt, the panel constituted for the appeal shall decide.

(k) In the case of termination or other action on grounds of inefficiency or relative efficiency, the panel shall not consider the substantive question of efficiency but only evidence that the decision was motivated by prejudice or by some other extraneous factor.

(l) The panel shall have authority to call members of the Secretariat who may be able to provide information concerning the issues before it and shall have access to all documents pertinent to the case. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, should the panel wish to have information or documents relating to the proceedings of the appointment and promotion bodies in questions involving appointment and promotion, it shall request such information or documents from the Chairperson of the Appointment and Promotion Board, who shall decide on the panel's request, taking into account the interests of confidentiality. This decision of the Chairperson is not subject to appeal. The Chairperson of the panel shall determine which documents are to be transmitted to all members of the panel and the parties.

(m) In considering an appeal, the panel shall act with the maximum dispatch consistent with a fair review of the issues before it.

(n) Within one month of the date on which the consideration of an appeal has been completed, the panel shall, by majority vote, adopt and submit a report to the Secretary-General. The report shall be considered as constituting a record of the proceedings in the appeal and may include a summary of the matter as well as all recommendations that the panel considers appropriate. Votes on the recommendations shall be recorded, and any member of the panel may have his or her dissenting opinion included in the report.

(o) Notwithstanding the above, if the appeal involves a claim having a cumulative maximum value not in excess of one thousand and five hundred dollars ($1,500) on account of salary, emoluments or any other entitlement under the Staff Regulations and Staff Rules, such claim shall be considered a "small claim" and shall be dealt with accordingly under appropriate rules of procedure which the Joint Appeals Board competent to hear the appeal may have adopted. Such rules may require the designated representative of the Secretary-General to submit comments within thirty days of receipt of the claim from the Joint Appeals Board secretariat.

(p) The final decision on the appeal will normally be taken by the Secretary-General within one month after the panel has forwarded its report, and shall be communicated to the staff member, together with a copy of the panel's report. The Secretary-General's decision and a copy of the panel's report shall also be transmitted to a designated officer of the staff representative body or bodies at the duty station at which the Joint Appeals Board is established, unless the staff member objects.

(q) To enable staff members to exercise their right to make application to the Administrative Tribunal under article 7, paragraphs 2 (b) and (c), of its statute, the Secretary of the Joint Appeals Board concerned shall, at the request of the staff member, communicate to him or her the report of the panel if the Secretary-General has not made a decision on the report within a period of one month after the date on which the report was submitted to him or her.

Article XII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Regulation 12.1

The present Regulations may be supplemented or amended by the General Assembly, without prejudice to the acquired rights of staff members.

Regulation 12.2

Such staff rules and amendments as the Secretary-General may make to implement the present Regulations shall be provisional until the requirements of regulations 12.3 and 12.4 below have been met.

Regulation 12.3

The full text of provisional staff rules and amendments shall be reported annually to the General Assembly. Should the Assembly find that a provisional rule and/or amendment is inconsistent with the intent and purpose of the Regulations, it may direct that the rule and/or amendment be withdrawn or modified.

Regulation 12.4

The provisional rules and amendments reported by the Secretary-General, taking into account such modifications and/or deletions as may be directed by the General Assembly, shall enter into full force and effect on 1 January following the year in which the report is made to the Assembly.

Regulation 12.5

Staff rules shall not give rise to acquired rights within the meaning of regulation 12.1 while they are provisional.

Chapter XII

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Rule 112.1

Gender of terms

In the French text of these Rules reference to staff members in the masculine gender shall apply to staff members of both sexes, unless it is clearly inappropriate from the context.

Rule 112.2

Amendment of, and exceptions to, Staff Rules

(a) Subject to regulations 12.1, 12.2, 12.3, 12.4 and 12.5, these Rules may be amended by the Secretary-General in a manner consistent with the Staff Regulations.

(b) Exceptions to the Staff Rules may be made by the Secretary-General, provided that such exception is not inconsistent with any staff regulation or other decision of the General Assembly and provided further that it is agreed to by the staff member directly affected and is, in the opinion of the Secretary-General, not prejudicial to the interests of any other staff member or group of staff members.

Rule 112.3

Financial responsibility

Any staff member may be required to reimburse the United Nations either partially or in full for any financial loss suffered by the United Nations as a result of the staff member's negligence or of his or her having violated any regulation, rule or administrative instruction.

Rule 112.4

Liability insurance

In accordance with General Assembly resolution 22 (E) (I) of 13 February 1946, staff members who own or drive motor cars shall carry public liability and property damage insurance in an amount adequate to insure them against claims arising from injury or death to other persons or from damage to the property of others caused by their cars.

Rule 112.5

Staff member's beneficiaries

(a) At the time of appointment, each staff member shall nominate a beneficiary or beneficiaries in writing in a form prescribed by the Secretary-General. It shall be the responsibility of the staff member to notify the Secretary-General of any revocations or changes of beneficiaries.

(b) In the event of the death of a staff member, all amounts standing to the staff member's credit will be paid to his or her nominated beneficiary or beneficiaries, subject to application of the Staff Rules and of the Joint Staff Pension Fund Regulations. Such payment shall afford the United Nations a complete release from all further liability in respect of any sum so paid.

(c) If a nominated beneficiary does not survive, or if a designation of beneficiary has not been made or has been revoked, the amount standing to the credit of a staff member will, upon the staff member's death, be paid to his or her estate.

Rule 112.6

(Cancelled)

Rule 112.7

Proprietary rights

All rights, including title, copyright and patent rights, in any work performed by a staff member as part of his or her official duties, shall be vested in the United Nations.

Rule 112.8

Effective date and authentic texts of rules

Except as otherwise indicated and subject always to the provisions of regulations 12.1, 12.2, 12.4 and 12.5, rules 100.1 to 112.8 as published in the present edition (ST/SGB/2002/1) shall be effective 1 January 2002. The English and French texts of these Rules are equally authoritative.

ANNEXES TO THE STAFF REGULATIONS

Annex I

SALARY SCALES AND RELATED PROVISIONS

1. The Secretary-General shall establish the salary of the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme and the salaries of United Nations officials in the Director category and above, in accordance with amounts determined by the General Assembly, subject to the staff assessment plan provided in staff regulation 3.3 and to post adjustments wherever applied. If otherwise eligible, they shall receive the allowances that are available to staff members generally. With effect from 1 January 1998, the Administrator of the United Nations Development Programme shall receive a gross salary of US$ 175,344 per annum.
2. The Secretary-General is authorized, on the basis of appropriate justification and/or reporting, to make additional payments to United Nations officials in the Director category and above to compensate for such special costs as may be reasonably incurred, in the interests of the Organization, in the performance of duties assigned to them by the Secretary-General. Similar additional payments in similar circumstances may be made to heads of offices away from Headquarters. The maximum total amount of such payments is to be determined in the programme budget by the General Assembly.
3. Except as provided in paragraph 5 of the present annex, the salary scales and the scales of post adjustment for staff members in the Professional and higher categories shall be as shown in the present annex.
4. Subject to satisfactory service, salary increments within the levels set forth in paragraph 3 of the present annex shall be awarded annually, except that any increments above step XI of the Associate Officer level, step XIII of the Second Officer level, step XII of the First Officer level, step X of the Senior Officer level and step IV of the Principal Officer level shall be preceded by two years at the previous step. The Secretary-General is authorized to reduce the interval between salary increments to ten months and twenty months, respectively, in the case of staff subject to geographical distribution who have an adequate and confirmed knowledge of a second official language of the United Nations.
5. The Secretary-General shall determine the salary rates to be paid to personnel specifically engaged for short-term missions and conference and other short-term service, to consultants, to Field Service personnel and to technical assistance experts.
6. The Secretary-General shall fix the salary scales for staff members in the General Service and related categories, normally on the basis of the best prevailing conditions of employment in the locality of the United Nations office concerned, provided that the Secretary-General may, where he or she deems it appropriate, establish rules and salary limits for payment of a non-resident allowance to General Service staff members recruited from outside the local area. The gross pensionable remuneration of such staff shall be determined in accordance with the methodology specified in article 54 (a) of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund and are shown in the salary scales applicable to such staff.
7. The Secretary-General shall establish rules under which a language allowance may be paid to staff members in the General Service category who pass an appropriate test and demonstrate continued proficiency in the use of two or more official languages.

8. In order to preserve equivalent standards of living at different offices, the Secretary-General may adjust the basic salaries set forth in paragraphs 1 and 3 of the present annex by the application of non-pensionable post adjustments based on relative costs of living, standards of living and related factors at the office concerned as compared to New York. Such post adjustments shall not be subject to staff assessment.

9. No salary shall be paid to staff members in respect of periods of unauthorized absence from work unless such absence was caused by reasons beyond their control or duly certified medical reasons.

^a The scale will be implemented in conjunction with a consolidation of 5.1 per cent of post adjustment. There will be consequential adjustments in post adjustment indices and multipliers at all duty stations effective 1 March 2001. Thereafter, changes in post adjustment classifications will be implemented on the basis of the movements of the consolidated post adjustment indices.

D = Rate applicable to staff members with a dependent spouse or child.

S = Rate applicable to staff members with no dependent spouse or child.

* The normal qualifying period for in-grade movement between consecutive steps is one year, except at those steps marked with an asterisk, for which a two-year period at the preceding step is required.

Annex II

LETTERS OF APPOINTMENT

- (a) The letter of appointment shall state:
- (i) That the appointment is subject to the provisions of the Staff Regulations and of the Staff Rules applicable to the category of appointment in question and to changes which may be duly made in such regulations and rules from time to time;
 - (ii) The nature of the appointment;
 - (iii) The date at which the staff member is required to enter upon his or her duties;
 - (iv) The period of appointment, the notice required to terminate it and period of probation, if any;
 - (v) The category, level, commencing rate of salary and, if increments are allowable, the scale of increments, and the maximum attainable;
 - (vi) Any special conditions which may be applicable.
- (b) A copy of the Staff Regulations and the Staff Rules shall be transmitted to the staff member with the letter of appointment. In accepting appointment the staff member shall state that he or she has been acquainted with and accepts the conditions laid down in the Staff Regulations and in the Staff Rules.
- (c) The letter of appointment of a staff member on secondment from government service signed by the staff member and by or on behalf of the Secretary-General, and relevant supporting documentation of the terms and conditions of secondment agreed to by the Member State and the staff member, shall be evidence of the existence and validity of secondment from government service to the Organization for the period stated in the letter of appointment.

Annex III

TERMINATION INDEMNITY

Staff members whose appointments are terminated shall be paid an indemnity in accordance with the following provisions:

(a) Except as provided in paragraphs (b), (c) and (e) below and in regulation 9.3 (b), the termination indemnity shall be paid in accordance with the following schedule:

Completed years of service	Months of gross salary, less staff assessment, where applicable
	Permanent appointments	Temporary appointments which are not for a fixed term	Temporary appointments for a fixed term exceeding six months

(b) A staff member whose appointment is terminated for reasons of health shall receive an indemnity equal to the indemnity provided under paragraph (a) of the present annex reduced by the amount of any disability benefit that the staff member may receive under the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund for the number of months to which the indemnity rate corresponds;

(c) A staff member whose appointment is terminated for unsatisfactory services or who for disciplinary reasons is dismissed for misconduct other than by summary dismissal may be paid, at the discretion of the Secretary-General, an indemnity not exceeding one half of the indemnity provided under paragraph (a) of the present annex;

(d) No indemnity payments shall be made to:

A staff member who resigns, except where termination notice has been given and the termination date agreed upon;

A staff member who has a temporary appointment that is not for a fixed term and that is terminated during the first year of service;

A staff member who has a temporary appointment for a fixed term that is completed on the expiration date specified in the letter of appointment;

A staff member who is summarily dismissed;

A staff member who abandons his or her post;

A staff member who is retired under the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund;

(e) Staff members specifically engaged for conference and other short-term service or for service with a mission, as consultants or as experts, and staff members who are locally recruited for service in established offices away from Headquarters may be paid termination indemnity if and as provided in their letters of appointment.

Annex IV

REPATRIATION GRANT

In principle, the repatriation grant shall be payable to staff members whom the Organization is obligated to repatriate and who at the time of separation are residing, by virtue of their service with the United Nations, outside their country of nationality. The repatriation grant shall not, however, be paid to a staff member who is summarily dismissed. Eligible staff members shall be entitled to a repatriation grant only upon relocation outside the country of the duty station. Detailed conditions and definitions relating to eligibility and requisite evidence of relocation shall be determined by the Secretary-General.

Increments: salary increments within the levels shall be awarded annually on the basis of satisfactory service.

* Long-service step:

Step XI at levels G-3 to G-7, step X at level G-2 and step IX at level G-1 are long-service steps.

The qualifying criteria for in-grade increases to the long-service step are as follows:

- (a) The staff member should have had at least 20 years of service within the United Nations common system and 5 years of service at the top regular step of the current grade;
- (b) The staff member's service should have been satisfactory.

Gross: Gross salaries have been derived through the application of staff assessments to total net salaries. Gross salaries are established for purposes of separation payments and as the basis for calculating tax reimbursements whenever United Nations salaries are taxed.

Gross pension: Gross pensionable salaries have been derived through the application of staff assessment to net pensionable salaries. Gross pensionable salary is the basis for determining Pension Fund contributions under article 25 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund and for determining pension benefits.

Net pension: Net pensionable salary is that part of net salary that is used to derive the gross pensionable salary. Net pensionable salary is the total net salary less the non-pensionable component, that is to say, 100 per cent of total net salary.

Total net: Total net remuneration is the sum of the non-pensionable component and the net pensionable salary.

NPC: The non-pensionable component is that part of net salary excluded from application of staff assessment in determination of the gross pensionable salary. The non-pensionable component has been established at 0 per cent.

- (b) The staff member's service should have been satisfactory.

Gross: Gross salaries have been derived through the application of staff assessments to total net salaries. Gross salaries are established for purposes of separation payments and as the basis for calculating tax reimbursements whenever United Nations salaries are taxed.

Gross pension: Gross pensionable salaries have been derived through the application of staff assessment to net pensionable salaries. Gross pensionable salary is the basis for determining Pension Fund contributions under article 25 of the Regulations of the United Nations Joint Staff Pension Fund and for determining pension benefits.

Net pension: Net pensionable salary is that part of net salary that is used to derive the gross pensionable salary. Net pensionable salary is the total net salary less the non-pensionable component, that is to say, 100 per cent of total net salary.

Total net: Total net remuneration is the sum of the non-pensionable component and the net pensionable salary.

NPC: The non-pensionable component is that part of net salary excluded from application of staff assessment in determination of the gross pensionable salary. The non-pensionable component has been established at 0 per cent.

HEADQUARTERS

Conditions governing compensation for overtime work

Pursuant to staff rule 103.12, staff members in the General Service category or in the Trades and Crafts category who are required to work overtime at Headquarters shall be given compensatory time off or may receive additional payment in accordance with the following provisions:

- (i) Overtime at Headquarters means time worked in excess of the scheduled workday or in excess of the scheduled workweek or time worked on official holidays, provided that such work has been authorized by the proper authority.
- (ii) The scheduled workday at Headquarters means the duration of the working hours in effect at the time on any day of the scheduled workweek, less one hour for a meal.
- (iii) The scheduled workweek at Headquarters consists of the five working days assigned to the staff member during seven consecutive calendar days.
- (iv) Compensation shall take the form of an equal amount of compensatory time off for overtime in excess of the scheduled workday up to a total of eight hours of work on the same day. Subject to the exigencies of service, such compensatory time off may be given at any time during the four months following the month in which the overtime takes place.
- (v) Compensation shall take the form of payment at the straight-time rate in respect of each hour in excess of forty hours if, at the time of a review to be conducted three times a year, it is ascertained that a staff member has accumulated more than forty hours of compensatory time off which could not be authorized because of the exigencies of service. The remaining entitlement to forty hours of compensatory time off will be counted as part of the staff member's accumulated entitlement at the time of the next review.
- (vi) Compensation shall take the form of an additional payment for overtime in excess of a total of eight hours of work of any day of the scheduled workweek, or when it takes place on the sixth or seventh day of the scheduled workweek.
- (vii) Compensation for overtime shall take the form of an additional payment when it takes place on an official holiday, provided that the Secretary-General may require all staff members at Headquarters to work on a holiday that falls during a period of exigency. In that event, the Secretary-General shall set another working day to be observed as the holiday, and the holiday falling during the period of exigency shall be treated as a normal working day.
- (viii)
 - a. The additional payment referred to in subparagraph (vi) above shall be made at the rate of one and one half times the aggregate of the staff member's base salary or wage and language allowance, if any, except that if the overtime takes place on a Sunday or on the seventh day of the scheduled workweek, the rate of the additional payment shall be twice the aggregate. In the latter case, overtime which takes place on a Sunday will be subject to compensation at the straight or one-and-a-half-time rate, as appropriate;
 - b. The additional payment referred to in subparagraph (vii) above shall be made at the rate of twice the aggregate of the staff member's base salary or wage and language allowance, if any;

- c. In respect of staff who are in receipt of non-resident's allowance under rule 103.5 (d), this allowance shall be taken into account in determining the payments under a. and b. above.
- (ix) Subject to the exigencies of service, compensatory time off may be granted, as appropriate, at a time-and-a-half rate or at twice the normal rate in lieu of compensation by additional payment at the time-and-a-half rate or at twice the normal rate under subparagraphs (vi) and (vii) above if the staff member so requests.
- (x) Compensation for overtime shall be reckoned to the nearest half-hour; casual overtime of less than one half-hour on any day during the scheduled workweek shall be disregarded. A staff member who is required to work on the sixth or seventh day of the week or on an official holiday shall receive no less than four hours of overtime compensation.
- (xi) In the interests of the health of the staff and the efficiency of the service, supervisors shall not require a staff member to work more than forty hours of overtime during any one month, except where unusual exigencies of service so require.

Conditions governing night differential

- (i) Pursuant to rule 103.13, staff members at Headquarters shall receive, for any regular working hours between 6 p.m. and 9.30 a.m., a night differential at the rate of 10 per cent of the aggregate of their salary or wage and their language allowance and post adjustment, if any, provided that no such differential shall be paid for any part of the tour of duty that begins between 6 a.m. and 9.30 a.m. In respect of staff in receipt of non-resident's allowance under rule 103.5 (d), this allowance shall be taken into account in determining the night differential.
- (ii) Payments shall be reckoned to the nearest hour, and work periods of less than one half-hour shall not be taken into consideration.
- (iii) The average amount of night differential received by a staff member during the six months immediately preceding the period in which he or she takes annual or sick leave shall be reflected in the emoluments he or she receives during the leave period, provided that one hundred and twenty hours or more were compensated by night differential during the preceding six-month period.
- (iv) A staff member whose regular working hours entitle him or her to receive night differential in accordance with subparagraph (i) above, and who works overtime during hours for which night differential is payable, shall receive both night differential and overtime compensation for such overtime work.

Conditions governing local recruitment

Pursuant to rule 104.6:

- (i) Staff members who have been recruited to serve in posts classified in the Trades and Crafts category or in the General Service category shall be regarded as having been locally recruited unless:
 - a. They have been recruited from outside the area of the duty station;

Appendix C

ARRANGEMENTS RELATING TO MILITARY SERVICE

(a) In accordance with section 18 (c) of the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations, staff members who are nationals of those Member States which have acceded to that Convention shall be "immune from national service obligations" in the armed services of the country of their nationality.

(b) Any requests to Governments which have not acceded to the Convention to defer or exempt staff members from military service by reason of their employment with the United Nations shall be made by the Secretary-General and not by the staff member concerned.

(c) Staff members who have completed one year of satisfactory probationary service or who have a permanent appointment may, if called by a Member Government for military service, whether for training or active duty, be placed on special leave without pay for the duration of their required military service. Other staff members, if called for military service, shall be separated from the Secretariat according to the terms of their appointments.

(d) A staff member called for military service who is placed on special leave without pay shall have the terms of appointment maintained as they were on the last day of service before the staff member went on leave without pay. The staff member's re-employment in the Secretariat shall be guaranteed, subject only to the normal rules governing necessary reductions in force or abolition of posts.

(e) In the interpretation of rule 109.1 (c), the period of special leave without pay for military service shall be counted for the purpose of establishing seniority.

(f) A staff member on special leave without pay for military service shall be required to advise the Secretary-General within ninety days after release from military service if the staff member wishes to be restored to active duty with the Secretariat. The staff member shall also be required to submit a certificate of completion of military service.

(g) If a staff member, after the period of required military service, elects to continue such service or if the staff member fails to obtain a certified release therefrom, the Secretary-General will determine, on the merits of the particular case, whether further special leave without pay will be granted and whether re-employment rights shall be maintained.

(h) If the staff member's absence on special leave without pay appears likely to last six months or more, the United Nations will pay, if so requested, for transporting the staff member's spouse and dependent children to the staff member's place of entitlement and for their return travel after the staff member's return to active duty with the Secretariat, provided that the expenses involved will be counted as travel expenses related to the next home leave entitlement of the staff member.

(i) The United Nations shall not continue its contribution to the Joint Staff Pension Fund on behalf of the staff member during the staff member's absence on special leave without pay for military service.

(j) The provisions of rule 106.4 relating to illness, accident or death attributable to the performance of official duties on behalf of the United Nations shall not be applicable during periods of military service.

(k) The Secretary-General may, if the circumstances of the military service appear to warrant it, credit the staff member's period on special leave without pay for military service in fixing the salary step upon the staff member's return to active duty with the Secretariat.

(l) The Secretary-General may apply such of the foregoing provisions as are appropriate in the case of a staff member who, with the advance approval of the Secretary-General, volunteers for military service or requests a waiver of immunity under section 18 (c) of the Convention on Privileges and Immunities of the United Nations.
