Introduction

1. The Preparatory Commission for the International Criminal Court, established in accordance with resolution F adopted by the United Nations Diplomatic Conference of Plenipotentiaries on the Establishment of an International Criminal Court on 17 July 1998, continued to carry out its mandate, in accordance with resolution F of the Conference and General Assembly resolution 56/85 of 12 December 2001, to discuss ways to enhance the effectiveness and acceptance of the Court.

2. In accordance with General Assembly resolution 56/85, the Preparatory Commission met at United Nations Headquarters for its tenth session from 1 to 12 July 2002.

3. The Bureau, as elected by the Preparatory Commission at its 1st and 2nd meetings, on 16 and 22 February 1999, and at its 34th and 37th meetings, on 8 and 19 April 2002, continued to act as the Bureau of the Commission at its tenth session.

4. At its fifth session, from 12 to 30 June 2000, the Preparatory Commission had adopted a report on the work of the Commission at its first to fifth sessions,¹ to which was annexed the finalized draft texts of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence (PCNICC/2000/1/Add.1) and of the Elements of Crimes (PCNICC/2000/1/Add.2).

5. At its eighth session, at the 33rd meeting, on 5 October 2001, the Preparatory Commission had adopted a report on the work of the Commission at its sixth, seventh and eighth sessions containing, in accordance with paragraph 5 of resolution F of the Conference, the draft texts of the Relationship Agreement between the Court and the United Nations, the Financial Regulations, the Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the Court, and the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of States Parties.² That report also contained as annexes two draft resolutions of the Assembly of States Parties, one on the establishment of the Committee on Budget and Finance, and the other on relevant criteria for voluntary contributions to the International Criminal Court.

6. At its ninth session, at the 37th meeting, on 19 April 2002, the Preparatory Commission had adopted a report on the work of the Commission at its ninth session, containing also in accordance with paragraph 5 of resolution F of the Conference, the draft texts of the Basic Principles Governing a Headquarters Agreement and the Financial Rules.³ That report also contained two draft resolutions of the Assembly of States Parties, one on the Secretariat of the Assembly of States Parties, and the other on crediting contributions to the United Nations Trust Fund to support the Establishment of the International Criminal Court.

7. At its tenth session, at the 42nd meeting, on 12 July 2002, the Preparatory Commission recalled that at its 36th meeting, on 15 April 2002, it had taken note of the proceedings of an intersessional meeting of experts held at The Hague in 2002 and that it had recommended that the report⁴ of the intersessional meeting should be transmitted to the Assembly of States Parties for onward transmission to the International Criminal Court,⁵ and decided to annex it to the present report (see appendix).

8. At the same meeting, the Preparatory Commission adopted the report on the work of its tenth session (PCNICC/2002/2 and Add.1-3), containing:

These documents were adopted by the Working Group on the Assembly of States Parties — Preparatory Documents;
 - Texts of (a) the draft resolution of the Assembly of States Parties on the establishment of a fund for the benefit of victims of crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court, and of the families of such victims; and (b) the draft resolution of the Assembly of States Parties on the procedure for the nominations and election of members of the Board of Directors of the Trust Fund for the benefit of victims. These documents were adopted by the Working Group on Financial Issues — Victims Trust Fund;

 - The text of a draft resolution of the Assembly of States Parties on the continuity of work in respect of the crime of aggression. This document was adopted by the Working Group on the Crime of Aggression.
9. The Preparatory Commission also agreed to include in the present report the discussion paper on the definition and elements of the crime of aggression (PCNICC/2002/WGCA/RT.1/Rev.2) prepared by the Coordinator of the Working Group on the Crime of Aggression, together with a list of all proposals and related documents on the crime of aggression issued by the Preparatory Commission as well as the historical review of developments relating to aggression prepared by the Secretariat (PCNICC/2002/WGCA/L.1 and Add.1) for transmission to the Assembly of States Parties.⁶

10. The Preparatory Commission agreed to a technical revision of article 33, paragraph 1, and article 35, paragraphs 1, 2 and 4, of the Draft Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the Court (PCNICC/2001/___/Add.3), as follows:

“Article 33

“Signature, ratification, acceptance, approval or accession

“1. The present Agreement shall be open for signature by all States, from ___ September 2002 until 30 June 2004 at United Nations Headquarters in New York.”

“Article 35

“Amendments

“1. Any State Party may, by written communication addressed to the Secretariat of the Assembly, propose amendments to the present Agreement. The Secretariat shall circulate such communication to all States Parties and the Bureau of the Assembly with a request that States Parties notify the Secretariat whether they favour a Review Conference of States Parties to discuss the proposal.

“2. If, within three months from the date of circulation by the Secretariat of the Assembly, a majority of States Parties notify the Secretariat that they favour a Review Conference, the Secretariat shall inform the Bureau of the Assembly with a view to convening such a Conference in connection with the next regular or special session of the Assembly.

“4. The Bureau of the Assembly shall immediately notify the Secretary-General of any amendment that has been adopted by the States Parties at a Review Conference. The Secretary-General shall circulate to all States Parties and signatory States any amendment adopted at a Review Conference.”

11. With regard to the composition of the Bureau at the first meeting of the Assembly of States Parties, the Preparatory Commission took note of the following understanding:

- That the initial composition of the Bureau would be as follows:
 - African Group, five seats
 - Asian Group, three seats
 - Eastern European Group, three seats
 - Group of Latin American and Caribbean States, four seats
 - Western European and Other States Group, six seats;

- That broad support existed for a suggestion that the Permanent Representative of the Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan to the United Nations, H.R.H. Prince Zeid Ra’ad Zeid Al-Husseini, be elected President of the Assembly;
- That agreement on the distribution of the “core functions” within the Bureau would be based on the idea of bringing the number of core functions within the Bureau into line with the number of regional groups. As such, as a first step, the core functions within the Bureau, other than the President, would comprise the two Vice-Presidents explicitly provided for in the Statute, and a Bureau member performing the functions of Rapporteur which is not mentioned in the Statute, but which would be generally welcome. In the Bureau’s initial composition, these three core functions would be assigned to the Western European and Other States Group, the African Group and the Group of Latin American and Caribbean States. The attribution of any of these core functions to any of the regional groups still needs to be determined;
- In addition, it was suggested that the Chairman of the Credentials Committee, who will be appointed by the Assembly on the proposal of the President, in accordance with rule 25 of the Rules of Procedure of the Assembly of States Parties, should also be considered a core function. As such, it was suggested that that post would be held by a member from the regional group that has not yet been attributed a core function. Such a proposal would grant all regional groups access to the core functions of the Assembly, which would be in the interests of fairness and of good communication between the Bureau and the regional groups;
- Finally, the Group took note of the fact that there existed a widely held expectation that the principle of fair rotation of core Bureau functions between regional groups should be respected in the future.

12. At its 38th and 42nd meetings, on 1 and 12 July 2002, respectively, the Preparatory Commission took note of the oral report of Silvia Fernández de Gurmendi (Argentina), Chair of the Bureau’s subcommittee acting as an interlocutory with the host country, on the progress made by the advance team of experts working to ensure the early and effective establishment of the Court and on review meetings, which had included members of the subcommittee, representatives of the host country and the coordinator of the advance team.

13. At the 42nd meeting, on 12 July 2002, the Preparatory Commission also took note of the oral report of Patricio Ruedas (Spain), focal point on the creation of a position of a Director of Common Services to be appointed by the Assembly of States Parties, that a job description for the post had been prepared for advertisement.

14. Concerning an international criminal bar, the Preparatory Commission took note of the holding in Montreal, from 13 to 15 June 2002, of a conference on an international criminal bar for the International Criminal Court, and of its conclusions. The Commission welcomed this development and encouraged the process of creating an independent representative body of counsel and legal associations. The Commission recommends that the Assembly of States Parties await any further developments on this issue, including the finalization of the constitution of this body, before taking further steps in accordance with rule 20(3) of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, and to this end to include this item on its agenda at the appropriate time.

15. To facilitate the tasks of the Preparatory Commission, the Chairman, in consultation, with the Bureau, had designated the following as coordinators of the working groups:

(a) Saeid Mirzaee-Yengejeh (Islamic Republic of Iran), Coordinator for the Working Group on the Assembly of States Parties — Preparatory Documents;

(b) Valentin Zellweger (Switzerland), Coordinator for the Working Group on a Budget for the First Financial Period;

(c) Gaile Ramoutar (Trinidad and Tobago), Coordinator for the Working Group on the Victims Trust Fund;

(d) John Holmes (Canada), Coordinator for the Working Group on the Remuneration of Judges, the Prosecutor and the Registrar;

(e) Silvia Fernández de Gurmendi (Argentina), Coordinator for the Working Group on the Crime of Aggression.

16. In addition, the Chairman also appointed Irene Gartner (Austria) as focal point for consultation on outstanding technical issues relating to the Draft Agreement on the Privileges and Immunities of the Court; Patricio Ruedas (Spain) as focal point on the creation of a position of Director of Common Services to be appointed by the Assembly of States Parties; and Hans Bevers (Netherlands) as focal point on issues related to an international criminal bar.

17. Also at its tenth session, at the 41st meeting, on 8 July 2002, the Preparatory Commission decided to hold the first meeting of the Assembly of States Parties from 3 to 10 September 2002.

18. The Preparatory Commission noted with satisfaction that, during its tenth session, a total of 24 delegates had made use of the trust fund which, pursuant to paragraph 8 of General Assembly resolution 53/105 of 8 December 1998, had been established to facilitate the participation of the least developed countries in the work of the Commission. Those delegates had been provided with airline tickets and daily subsistence allowance. At the 42nd meeting, on 12 July 2002, the Commission took note of the offer made by the International Institute for Human Rights Law, of De Paul University (United States of America), to cover the travel expenses of one delegate from each least developed country interested in attending the first meeting of the Assembly of States Parties in September 2002. The Institute had previously also assisted in the participation of least developed countries at sessions of the Commission.

14. The present procedure is without prejudice to the overall composition of the Committee on Budget and Finance, the procedures for future elections or the future distribution of seats.

15. The State Party which submitted the nomination of a member of the Committee on Budget and Finance shall defray the expenses of that member while in performance of Committee duties.

Draft resolution of the Assembly of States Parties relating to the establishment of a fund for the benefit of victims of crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court, and of the families of such victims

The Assembly of States Parties,

Bearing in mind the provisions of article 79, paragraph 1, of the Rome Statute,

1. Decides to establish a trust fund for the benefit of victims of crimes within the jurisdiction of the Court, and of the families of such victims;
2. Decides also that the Trust Fund shall be funded by:
 - (a) Voluntary contributions from Governments, international organizations, individuals, corporations and other entities, in accordance with relevant criteria adopted by the Assembly of States Parties;
 - (b) Money and other property collected through fines or forfeiture transferred to the Trust Fund if ordered by the Court pursuant to article 79, paragraph 2, of the Statute;
 - (c) Resources collected through awards for reparations if ordered by the Court pursuant to rule 98 of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence;
 - (d) Such resources, other than assessed contributions, as the Assembly of States Parties may decide to allocate to the Trust Fund;
3. Decides further to request the Board of Directors established pursuant to the annex to the present resolution to develop suggestions for further criteria for the management of the Trust Fund for consideration and adoption by the Assembly of States Parties as soon as possible;
4. Adopts the annex to the present resolution relating to the management of the Trust Fund.

Annex to the resolution

1. The Assembly of States Parties hereby establishes a Board of Directors of the Trust Fund for the benefit of victims provided for in article 79 of the Rome Statute.
2. The Board shall have five members who shall be elected for a term of three years and may be re-elected once. They shall serve in an individual capacity on a pro bono basis.
3. The Assembly shall elect the members of the Board, all of whom shall be of a different nationality, on the basis of equitable geographical distribution and taking into account the need to ensure equitable gender distribution and equitable representation of the principal legal systems of the world. The members of the Board shall be of high moral character, impartiality and integrity and shall have competence in the assistance to victims of serious crimes.
4. The Board shall meet at the seat of the Court at least once a year.

The Assembly of States Parties shall, as part of such consideration, after consulting with the Board and the Registrar, consider the payment of expenses of the Trust Fund from the voluntary contributions accruing to it.
7. The Board shall, in accordance with the provisions of the Rome Statute, the Rules of Procedure and Evidence, and the criteria to be determined by the Assembly of States Parties, establish and direct the activities and projects of the Trust Fund and the allocation of the property and money available to it, bearing in mind available resources and subject to the decisions taken by the Court. Before establishing and directing the activities and projects of the Trust Fund, the Board shall consult, as far as possible, victims and their families or their legal representatives and may consult any competent expert or organization.
8. Voluntary contributions from Governments, international organizations, individuals, corporations and other entities shall be submitted to the Board for approval, in accordance with the criteria laid down in paragraphs 9 and 10.
9. The Board shall refuse such voluntary contributions envisaged in paragraph 8 that are not consistent with the goals and activities of the Trust Fund.
10. The Board shall also refuse voluntary contributions whose allocation, as requested by the donor, would result in a manifestly inequitable distribution of available funds and property among the different groups of victims.
11. The Board shall report annually to the Assembly of States Parties on the activities and projects of the Trust Fund and on all offered voluntary contributions, regardless of whether they were accepted or refused.
12. The Committee on Budget and Finance shall examine the budget of the Trust Fund annually and submit to the Assembly of States Parties a report and recommendations for the best possible financial management of the Trust Fund.
13. The Financial Regulations and Rules shall apply mutatis mutandis to the administration of the Trust Fund, except as otherwise provided in the present resolution.
