Financing of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January and 31 December 1994First performance report of the International Tribunal for Rwanda for the biennium 2002-2003*Report of the Secretary-General*Summary*

The first performance report of the International Tribunal for Rwanda for the biennium 2002-2003 is presented pursuant to General Assembly resolution 56/248 A. The report reflects a requirement for net additional appropriations of $2.2 million based upon positive experience in respect of exchange rates ($13.3 million) and standard costs ($0.3 million), which are offset by adverse experience in respect of inflation ($12 million) and other expenses for defence counsel ($3.7 million). The General Assembly is requested to revise the appropriations for 2002-2003 and to approve financing for 2003.

* The delayed submission of the present report is due to the extensive consultations required for its finalization.

I. Introduction

1. The General Assembly, in its resolution 56/248 A of 24 December 2001, requested the International Tribunal for Rwanda to submit to the Assembly, on an annual basis, a financial and programme performance report.

2. The present performance report identifies adjustments to the budget required because of variations in the rates of inflation and exchange and in the standards assumed in the calculation of the initial appropriations. In compliance with the recommendation contained in the report of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions (A/56/666, para. 3), the present report also includes performance information concerning benchmarks used to estimate resources. The performance indicators provided in annex II to the present report reflect the outputs of the Tribunal as at the end of September 2002. The Tribunal is making steady progress towards meeting its biennial performance projections and remains committed to achieving its projected targets during the remainder of the biennium.

3. During the year under review, the Tribunal has been actively engaged in nine trials of 22 accused persons in its three Trial Chambers. Each Trial Chamber is conducting three trials contemporaneously, in phases of two to six weeks for each trial.

4. The nine trials in progress are at various stages in their proceedings: two cases involving three accused have reached completion, deliberations are under way in both cases; in three trials of three accused, the Prosecution has closed presentation of its case and the defence case is in progress; in the sixth case of three accused, the Prosecution is expected to close its case shortly.

5. To date, the Tribunal has indicted 80 persons, of which 60 are in custody and 20 are still at large. Warrants of arrest have been issued for the remaining 20 persons and the cooperation of States has been sought to secure their arrest. Of the 60 people already arrested, eight have been sentenced, one has been acquitted, 22 are involved in ongoing trials and 29 are in custody, awaiting the commencement of their trials. By the end of 2002, three judgments in respect of four accused persons are likely to be rendered.

6. The Prosecutor has indicated that she is ready for trial in seven cases, involving 13 of the 29 persons in custody. The Trial Chambers are, however, fully engaged in the ongoing trials of 22 accused persons. In view of the expiration of the mandate of a number of judges on 23 May 2003, some of the seven cases and the prosecution of the remaining 16 detainees currently awaiting trial will have to await the arrival of replacements for those judges as well as the ad litem judges.

7. The Tribunal's operations regarding the contact and travel of witnesses from various countries has remained efficient. However, during the period under review, the Tribunal experienced problems with the flow of witnesses from Rwanda. The call for non-cooperation with the Tribunal by some groups of Rwandan survivors resulted in a number of witnesses refusing to testify. In two such cases, the Trial Chambers ordered that the witnesses be removed from the witness list and that the trial proceed without their testimony.

8. Relations between the Tribunal and the Government of Rwanda have remained positive. In June 2002, however, Witness and Victims Support Services

(Prosecution) encountered serious difficulties regarding the travel of witnesses from Rwanda, after the Rwandan authorities, without advance warning to the Tribunal, changed the requirements for the issuance of travel documents. Witnesses were now required to personally obtain three clearance certificates from various local offices. These offices were often unknown or inaccessible, and witnesses could not obtain these documents. They also faced risks of exposing their identities, which are protected by witness protection orders issued by Trial Chambers. This prevented the Tribunal from bringing witnesses out of Rwanda and, as a consequence, two trials had to be suspended resulting in valuable court days being lost and costs incurred unnecessarily. The Registrar took immediate steps to seek restoration of cooperation with the Rwandan authorities. He served the decisions of the two Trial Chambers addressed to the Government and held discussions with the Head of State and other authorities.

9. The report also contains additional adjustments to reflect the need for additional defence counsel resources ($3.7 million) based on current expenditure patterns and revised budgetary assumptions brought about by the activities related to investigations and trial proceedings at the Tribunal.

10. Increased net requirements of $879,200 are presented as follows (in thousands of United States dollars):

	Appropriation^a	Revised estimate	Increase/decrease
			Amount	Percentage
Expenditure	197 127.3	199 305.0	2 177.7	1.10

Total net requirements	177 739.4	178 618.6	879.2	0.49

^a As approved in resolution 56/248 B.

11. Explanation of the variations in the costing parameters assumed in the calculation of the initial appropriations is detailed in paragraphs 12 to 17 below. In addition, the attached schedules and annexes provide the costing parameters used in the initial appropriation and the proposed revisions for the biennium 2002-2003:

(a) Annex I contains schedule 1, the summary of projected expenditures by Tribunal organ and main determining factors, and schedule 2, the summary of projected expenditures by object of expenditure and main determining factors;

(b) Annex II contains performance indicators;

(c) Annex III reflects the changes in the budgetary parameters contained in the present report;

(d) Annex IV contains a draft resolution on the financing of the Tribunal for 2003.

II. Explanation of the changes in net requirements

12. The adjustments to the budget required as a result of the factors mentioned above would necessitate an increase of $2,177,700 for a total of $199,305,000. Details are as follows (in thousands of United States dollars):

Appropriation 2002-2003 ^a		197 127.3
A. Variations in budgetary assumptions
1. Changes in exchange rates	(13 237.8)	Based on United Nations operational rates of exchange
2. Changes in inflation assumptions	11 983.9	Based on consumer price indices, post adjustment multipliers promulgated and actual versus budgeted cost-of-living adjustments
3. Adjustments to standard salary costs	(268.4)	Based on analysis of actual payroll data, vacancies, common staff costs, recommendations of the International Civil Service Commission and staff assessment provisions consequent upon consolidation of post adjustment
B. Other requirements	3 700.0	Based on projections for defence counsel requirements at the Tribunal
Revised total	199 305.0

^a As approved in resolution 56/248 B.

A. Variations in budgetary assumptions

Changes in exchange rates (decrease $13,237,800)

13. The reduction of $13,237,800 reflects favourable exchange rates, primarily realized against the Tanzanian shilling and Rwandan franc, during the period from January to October 2002 and the application of the October 2002 exchange rate for the period from November 2002 to December 2003.

Changes in inflation assumptions (increase $11,983,900)

14. Inflation rates affect all objects of expenditure and are based on promulgated post adjustment multipliers, the latest available information on consumer price indices and actual versus budgeted cost-of-living adjustments. The revised rates proposed are derived from the period from January 2002 to October 2002 and projections are based on data used by the International Civil Service Commission.

Adjustments to standard salary costs (decrease $268,400)

15. The decrease ($268,400) under this heading reflects the net effect of changes to standard costs, common staff costs, vacancy rates and staff assessment rates. Common staff costs, expressed as a ratio of net salaries, take into account costs related to allowances and benefits and the appointment, transfer and separation of staff. The revised common staff cost ratio used in the present report is based on experience from the biennium 2000-2001.

B. Other requirements

Provision for defence counsel (increase $3,700,000)

16. In the Tribunal's financial performance reports for 2000 (A/56/500) and 2001 (A/57/368), the reported increases in expenditure for defence counsel were $3,539,500 and $5,967,300, respectively. Although appropriations for defence counsel during the biennium 2002-2003 total $16,593,500, representing an increase of $4,903,900, current expenditure patterns at the Tribunal indicate a further increase in requirements for defence counsel estimated at $3,700,000.

17. The increase is due in part to the fact that pre-trial estimates for defence counsel teams were lower than what is being experienced. Initial estimates were based on 20 per cent of the defence teams being active at the pre-trial phase. However, current practice has seen almost 100 per cent of trial teams being active during the initial phase of trials. Furthermore initial estimates made provision for 50 per cent of trial teams requiring co-counsel, while in fact as many as 60 per cent of these teams have retained co-counsel. The increasing number of investigators and assistants in defence teams has also had an impact on defence counsel resources. During the biennium 2000-2001, defence teams exceeded projected numbers for investigators and assistant investigators. While the use of 45 investigators was projected, 108 investigators were in fact retained. The investigators, who are based in Europe and North America, are required to travel frequently, a factor which has contributed to additional costs.

III. Financing for the Tribunal

18. As noted in the report of the Board of Auditors (A/57/5/Add.11, statement II), there is an unencumbered balance of $5,507,000 in the Special Account for the International Criminal Tribunal for Rwanda which can be utilized to finance the additional requirements of $2,177,700 gross ($879,200 net) proposed in the present report. In addition, the unassessed expenditures in the amount of $2,664,500 gross ($1,880,000 net) for 2001 could be financed from the unencumbered balance referred to above.

19. It is further noted that, pursuant to Security Council resolution 1431 (2002), a proposal has been made for the establishment of ad litem judges at the International Tribunal for Rwanda. Accordingly, an additional appropriation of $5,060,100 gross ($4,605,400 net) would be needed, as indicated in the proposed draft resolution (see annex IV).

IV. Conclusion

20. The General Assembly may wish to: (a) take note of the first performance report for the International Tribunal for Rwanda for the biennium 2002-2003; and (b) consider adoption of a draft resolution, in line with that contained in annex IV, to revise the appropriation for the biennium 2002-2003 to take into account additional requirements arising from the recosting, the additional need for defence counsel resources and the establishment of ad litem judges.

Draft resolution

Financing of the International Criminal Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January and 31 December 1994

The General Assembly,

Having considered the reports of the Secretary-General presenting the first performance report of the International Tribunal for the Prosecution of Persons Responsible for Genocide and Other Serious Violations of International Humanitarian Law Committed in the Territory of Rwanda and Rwandan Citizens Responsible for Genocide and Other Such Violations Committed in the Territory of Neighbouring States between 1 January and 31 December 1994 for the biennium 2002-2003,¹ and the financial performance report of the Tribunal for the period from 1 January to 31 December 2001,²

Having also considered the revised estimates arising in respect of the Security Council resolution 1431 (2002) on the establishment of ad litem judges for the International Tribunal for Rwanda,³

Having considered further the related reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions,⁴

Recalling its resolutions A/56/248 A of 24 December 2001 and A/56/248 B of 27 March 2002 on the financing of the International Tribunal for Rwanda for the period from 1 January 2002 to 31 December 2003,

Taking note of Security Council resolution 1431 (2002) on the establishment of ad litem judges for the Tribunal,

1. Endorses the conclusions and recommendations contained in the reports of the Advisory Committee on Administrative and Budgetary Questions;

2. Decides to appropriate to the Special Account for the International Tribunal for Rwanda a total amount of 204,365,100 dollars gross (183,224,000 dollars net) for the biennium 2002-2003, inclusive of the amount of 5,060,100 dollars gross (4,605,400 dollars net) for the revised estimates arising in respect of Security Council resolution 1431 (2002) on the establishment of ad litem judges for the International Tribunal for Rwanda;

3. Decides also that unassessed expenditure for 2001 in the amount of 2,664,500 dollars gross (1,880,000 dollars net) for 2001 shall be financed from the
