COMMISSION DES DROITS DE L'HOMME
Cinquante-neuvième session
Point 8 de l'ordre du jour provisoire

QUESTION DE LA VIOLATION DES DROITS DE L'HOMME DANS LES TERRITOIRES ARABES OCCUPÉS, Y COMPRIS LA PALESTINE

Lettre datée du 14 octobre 2002, adressée au Haut-Commissaire des Nations Unies aux droits de l'homme par l'Observateur permanent de la Palestine auprès de l'Office des Nations Unies à Genève

Au cours des deux dernières semaines, les forces d'occupation israéliennes ont ajouté au moins deux nouveaux massacres à la liste de leurs tueries, dans le cadre de la campagne de crimes de guerre, de terrorisme d'État et de violations systématiques des droits de l'homme du peuple palestinien qu'elles mènent en permanence dans le territoire palestinien occupé, au mépris de toutes les résolutions des Nations Unies et en violation de tous les principes du droit international et du droit international humanitaire, de la Déclaration universelle des droits de l'homme et des dispositions de la quatrième Convention de Genève relative à la protection des personnes civiles en temps de guerre.

Le dimanche 13 octobre, les forces d'occupation israéliennes, appuyées par des chars et des véhicules blindés, ont envahi la ville de Rafah, dans le sud de la bande de Gaza, tuant deux civils, dont un jeune garçon âgé de quatre ans, qui a péri lors de l'explosion de sa maison. L'enfant a été écrasé par la chute d'éléments de maçonnerie, lorsque les soldats israéliens ont dynamité une maison voisine à l'aide d'une charge tellement puissante qu'elle a détruit également sa maison et une autre maison voisine. Vingt-cinq autres personnes ont été blessées lorsque les troupes israéliennes ont dynamité un quartier du sud de Gaza alors que ses habitants dormaient.

L'armée israélienne, appuyée par des véhicules blindés, a imposé un couvre-feu sur les quartiers réoccupés, menaçant d'abattre toute personne qui désobéirait aux ordres. Les bulldozers israéliens ont démolé un certain nombre de maisons, quelquefois alors même que leurs occupants s'y trouvaient encore, et des militaires ont ouvert le feu sans discernement sur des maisons et des biens appartenant à des civils. Des dizaines de francs-tireurs israéliens ont été déployés sur les toits de bâtiments civils et ont tiré sur tout ce qui bougeait dans la rue. Les militaires israéliens ont également occupé des dizaines de maisons pour les transformer en postes militaires avancés.

Le deuxième massacre a eu lieu tôt dans la matinée du lundi 7 octobre, lorsque des chars israéliens, appuyés par des hélicoptères de combat, ont envahi la ville de Khan Yunis. Les forces d'occupation israéliennes ont bombardé plusieurs quartiers de la ville, tiré à l'aveuglette sur les habitants et fini par tirer un missile sur une foule compacte dans le quartier d'Al-Amal, tuant au moins 13 Palestiniens et blessant 110 autres personnes, dont 25 très grièvement. Ce comportement criminel et terroriste a atteint un tel point que les troupes israéliennes ont ouvert le feu sur un hôpital de Khan Yunis, dans lequel les blessés étaient soignés.

Les pertes les plus lourdes ont été subies dans la nuit du lundi 7 octobre, alors que les troupes israéliennes se retiraient après leur raid sur Khan Yunis. Lorsque les habitants sont sortis dans les rues pour évaluer les dégâts et porter assistance aux blessés, un hélicoptère Apache est soudain apparu et a tiré des missiles sur la foule, tuant instantanément au moins huit personnes.

Outre ces tueries et ces massacres, les forces d'occupation israéliennes continuent à perpétrer tous les jours des crimes odieux contre les groupes les plus vulnérables de la population palestinienne, à savoir les personnes âgées, les femmes et les enfants. Ces derniers sont souvent pris pour cible et poursuivis par les chars et les soldats israéliens lorsqu'ils se rendent à l'école ou qu'ils en reviennent. Chaque jour, plusieurs enfants sont tués ou blessés. Ils n'ont plus aucun lieu sûr où vivre en paix, fût-ce dans leur propre maison. Maisa Inad Zanun, une jeune fille âgée de 12 ans, était en train d'étudier dans sa chambre dans la soirée du mardi 8 octobre lorsque des militaires israéliens ont tiré des obus d'artillerie lourde sur sa maison, la blessant mortellement à la poitrine.

J'ai le regret de vous informer que, depuis le 28 septembre 2000, au moins 1 947 Palestiniens ont été tués par la machine de guerre israélienne; environ 21 000 autres ont été blessés, nombre d'entre eux souffrant de blessures ou d'un handicap permanent.

Une fois de plus, nous vous lançons un appel et vous prions d'intervenir directement auprès du Gouvernement israélien, de condamner publiquement cette politique de terrorisme d'État, d'assassinats systématiques et délibérés et de démolition et de saccage des maisons, mise en œuvre par les autorités d'occupation israéliennes et constitutive de crimes de guerre et de crimes contre l'humanité, de tenir le Gouvernement israélien pour responsable aux yeux du monde entier des crimes commis contre la population civile palestinienne en violation des droits de l'homme les plus fondamentaux, dont le droit à la vie et le droit de vivre en paix et dans la dignité, et de demander une protection internationale pour la population civile palestinienne jusqu'au retrait israélien de tous les territoires palestiniens occupés.

Je vous serais reconnaissant de bien vouloir faire distribuer aux membres de la Commission des droits de l'homme le texte de la présente lettre, avec son annexe *, en tant que document officiel de la cinquante-neuvième session de la Commission au titre du point 8 de l'ordre du jour.
