COMISIÓN DE DERECHOS HUMANOS
59º período de sesiones
Tema 8 del programa provisional

CUESTIÓN DE LA VIOLACIÓN DE LOS DERECHOS HUMANOS EN LOS TERRITORIOS ÁRABES OCUPADOS, INCLUIDA PALESTINA

Carta de fecha 4 de noviembre de 2002 dirigida al Alto Comisionado de las Naciones Unidas para los Derechos Humanos por el Observador Permanente de Palestina ante la Oficina de las Naciones Unidas en Ginebra

Las fuerzas de ocupación israelíes continúan su escalada de crímenes, haciendo un uso excesivo de la fuerza, cometiendo asesinatos extrajudiciales, realizando detenciones, destruyendo casas y confiscando tierras, arrasando tierras de cultivo y arrancando árboles frutales en los territorios palestinos ocupados, lo que ha hecho que aumente el número de mártires, heridos y personas sin hogar entre los civiles palestinos inocentes. Al menos 2.000 palestinos han muerto a manos de las fuerzas de ocupación israelíes desde septiembre de 2000. Muchas zonas controladas por los palestinos siguen sometidas a un régimen de toque de queda. Tulkarem lleva bajo un toque de queda constante 13 días y Yenín, 8. En total, hace ya 130 días que la Ribera Occidental está sometida a este régimen de toque de queda.

En Yenín, un niño de 15 años murió la semana pasada de resultas de los disparos que recibió cuando salió a pasear durante el toque de queda. En la misma ciudad, también durante el toque de queda, un francotirador israelí mató de un disparo en la cabeza a un hombre de 21 años.

El lunes 28 de octubre, las fuerzas israelíes mataron de un disparo a Ahmad Anbad, de 17 años en Tulkarem. Le dispararon a una distancia de no más de 150 metros sin razón aparente.

Esas matanzas deliberadas constituyen una violación flagrante de las disposiciones del derecho internacional y el derecho internacional humanitario, en particular de las relativas al derecho a la vida, y una grave infracción con arreglo a lo dispuesto en los artículos 3 y 147 del Cuarto Convenio de Ginebra relativo a la protección de personas civiles en tiempo de guerra, de 1949.

Israel, la Potencia ocupante, también prosigue su política de demolición de casas, como medida punitiva contra civiles palestinos inocentes.

El jueves 31 de octubre, las fuerzas israelíes rodearon las casas de cuatro familias en el campamento de refugiados de Yenín y obligaron a esas familias a abandonarlas, sin darles tiempo de recoger sus pertenencias. Colocaron explosivos en cuatro casas, donde vivían seis familias. De resultas de esa medida punitiva quedaron sin hogar 37 personas, entre ellas 14 niños. Las viviendas fueron destruidas por completo y no se pudo salvar nada de lo que había en su interior. Además varias viviendas cercanas resultaron dañadas.

Desde septiembre de 2000, al menos se han destruido 1.046 viviendas, lo que ha dejado sin hogar a 7.844 personas.

Las demoliciones de viviendas y la destrucción de propiedades que ha llevado a cabo Israel como medida de castigo colectivo no sólo son ilegales, sino que constituyen una violación flagrante de los artículos 53 y 33 del Cuarto Convenio de Ginebra. También constituyen un castigo extrajudicial y una injerencia arbitraria en el domicilio y las propiedades de palestinos.

Además, las fuerzas israelíes han asesinado a cuatro palestinos tan sólo en la última semana.

El 30 de octubre, Ayed Baker Mansour, de 35 años, procedente de Kufar Qalil, cerca de Naplusa, fue asesinado por las fuerzas israelíes. El incidente tuvo lugar cuando Mansour se dirigía en su coche hacia su casa. Mansour ha dejado tres hijos.

El 29 de octubre, las fuerzas israelíes asesinaron a Issam Sawafteh, de 19 años, procedente de Tubas, cerca de Yenín. Numerosos soldados rodearon la casa donde se encontraba Issam y se llevaron a su hermano y su padre por la fuerza y los utilizaron como escudo humano. A continuación, las fuerzas de ocupación israelíes, sin previo aviso, empezaron a efectuar disparos contra la casa de dos pisos, destruyendo partes de ella, y después dispararon a Issam a una distancia de no más de un metro.

El 27 de octubre, dos palestinos, Ahmad Jawdatallah, de 23 años, y Alaa Khadayriyyeh, de 24, procedentes de Naplusa, fueron víctimas de una ejecución extrajudicial.

En Ras al-Ein, Naplusa, cuatro hombres armados de las Fuerzas Especiales de Israel, que son más bien "escuadrones de la muerte", apuntaron sus armas hacia dos hombres y abrieron fuego contra ellos a una distancia no superior a 20 metros. Ambos murieron en el acto, con más de 20 balas en el cuerpo. Después de ejecutar a esos dos hombres, las Fuerzas Especiales huyeron en sus coches disparando indiscriminadamente contra los civiles. Un niño, Yazan Fatayir, de 7 años, resultó gravemente herido al alcanzarle una bala en la cabeza.

Desde septiembre de 2000, las fuerzas israelíes han asesinado al menos a 176 palestinos de los cuales 63 se encontraban por casualidad en los lugares donde se produjeron incidentes. Todos esos asesinatos constituyen una grave violación del Cuarto Convenio de Ginebra y, por consiguiente, son considerados crímenes de guerra. Ese Convenio tiene por objeto proteger las vidas de la población civil y las normas de derechos humanos que afirman el derecho a la vida y prohíben la ejecución de civiles.

Para dar más ejemplos de las violaciones de los derechos humanos de civiles que cometen a diario las fuerzas de ocupación israelíes en los territorios palestinos ocupados, se adjuntan a la presente carta memorandos hechos públicos por la Autoridad Nacional Palestina, que corresponden al período comprendido entre el lunes 28 de octubre y el domingo 3 de noviembre de 2002.

Hacemos un llamamiento a Vuestra Excelencia para que condene la política sistemática de asesinatos y demoliciones llevada a cabo por Israel, haga responsable al Gobierno de ese país de esas violaciones de los derechos humanos y lo inste a respetar las normas internacionales, cumplir las obligaciones que le incumben en virtud del derecho internacional humanitario y no cometer crímenes contra civiles inocentes. Asimismo pedimos a Vuestra Excelencia que solicite el despliegue inmediato de una presencia de protección internacional para evitar que se cometan violaciones de los derechos humanos y proteger a la población palestina hasta que Israel se retire de todos los territorios palestinos ocupados.

Le agradecería que hiciera distribuir la presente carta y su anexo* a los distinguidos miembros de la Comisión de Derechos Humanos, como documento oficial del 59º período de sesiones de la Comisión, en relación con el tema 8 del programa.
