1. In his February 1988 report to the Executive Board of the Fund on the forty-second session of the United Nations General Assembly held in New York from 15 September 1987 to 21 December 1987, the Special Representative drew the attention of Directors to General Assembly resolution 42/75 and, in particular, to the proposal contained therein "for the urgent inclusion in the agenda of the Board of Governors of the Fund an item dealing with the relationship between the Fund and South Africa".
