RESOLUTION ON TOPIC 20 "THE QUESTION OF THE MALVINAS ISLANDS"

(Resolution adopted at the eighth plenary session, held on November 20, 1982)

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY,

HAVING SEEN:

That the serious events that occurred in 1982 in the South Atlantic area, within the security region defined in Article 4 of the Inter-American Treaty of Reciprocal Assistance, have given rise to a situation that affected and still seriously affects the peace and security of the American hemisphere;

That the Permanent Council of the Organization of American States and the Twentieth Meeting of Consultation of Ministers of Foreign Affairs considered these events thoroughly and also urged the parties to the dispute in the South Atlantic to seek a peaceful solution; and

CONSIDERING:

That at the request of 20 American States, the thirty-seventh General Assembly of the United Nations recently adopted resolution 37/9 of November 4, 1982, with regard to this sovereignty dispute, and

That the aforementioned resolution of the United Nations also urges a peaceful solution to the dispute,

RESOLVES:

1. To express its support of resolution 37/9 of November 4, 1982, of the thirty-seventh General Assembly of the United Nations, in which the Governments of Argentina and the United Kingdom are requested to resume negotiations aimed at seeking a peaceful solution to the sovereignty dispute as soon as possible, and the Secretary-General is requested to use his good offices to assist the parties in carrying out the aforementioned resolution.
2. To exhort the parties to the dispute to carry out that resolution.
3. To transmit this resolution to the President of the General Assembly and to the Secretary-General of the United Nations, so that note may be taken of the opinion of the American States regarding a situation that affects the peace and security of the hemisphere.
