Dear Sir,

Our local chapter of the United Nations Association (where I serve on the Executive Board) together with other local groups have become concerned about the United States administration of its trusteeship over the Marshall Islands, Belau, the Carolines and the Northern Marianas. Is the United States fulfilling its obligations under the United Nations Charter and if not, how can we bring pressure? To this end we are planning an educational forum with a local Catholic university on the issues. ... We are planning the forum for mid-March. ...

Sincerely,

(Signed) Bertha CROWELL
