LETTER DATED 23 JULY 1974 FROM THE DEPUTY PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF GREECE TO THE UNITED NATIONS ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

Further to the letter of Ambassador P. Panayotacos, dated 22 July (document S/11359), I have the honour to bring to your Excellency's attention the following Turkish violations after the cease-fire took effect (4.00 p.m. Cyprus local time):

At 10.16 p.m. local time, the village of Aglangia, near Nicosia, was fired at by Turkish jets.

At 10.16 p.m. local time, the location of "Aetofolia-Masseri" was attacked, while the hill of "Aspros" was fired at by flat trajectory weapons and mortars.

At 10.16 p.m. local time, units of the Greek contingent were fired at on the green line in the locations of "Pyles" near Paphos and "Trachonas" near Nicosia.

At 10.16 p.m. local time, a unit of the National Guard in Trahona, after having been violently fired at by the Turks, was obliged to retreat.

At 10.16 p.m. local time, the Turkish air forces bombed and strafed some locations situated between "Gerolakkos" and "Aghios Vassilios" in Nicosia.

At 10.17 p.m. local time, Nicosia airport was bombed.

At 10.17 p.m. local time, units of the Greek contingent were fired at by flat trajectory weapons in the village "Tsatsos" while they were simultaneously being strafed by the Turkish air forces.

At 10.17 p.m. local time, Kyrenia Castle was fired at by flat trajectory weapons and mortars.

At 10.17 p.m. local time, Turkish jets strafed the airport of Timbou.

At 10.17 p.m. local time, the attack against "Trachonas-Kaimakli", directed from a Turkish enclave still continues.

At 10.17 p.m. local time, Turkish air forces strafed the village of "Kato Pyrgos" at Morphou.

At 10.18 p.m. local time, infantry units and tanks attacked the town of "Dikomoni".
