Union of Soviet Socialist Republics: draft resolution

The Security Council,

Having considered the development of events in Cyprus, which creates a serious threat to international peace and security,

Noting the unsatisfactory situation with regard to the implementation of its resolution 353 (1974) of 20 July 1974 which defines the basis of a political settlement in Cyprus,

1. Demands of all the States concerned that they undertake urgent and effective measures for the practical implementation of all the provisions of resolution 353 (1974);

2. Insists on the immediate cessation of firing and of all acts of violence against the Republic of Cyprus and on the speediest withdrawal of all foreign forces and military personnel present in Cyprus in violation of its sovereignty, independence and territorial integrity as a non-aligned State;

3. Decides to send immediately to Cyprus a Special Mission composed of ... members of the Security Council, to be appointed by the President of the Security Council after consultations with the Council members and with the Secretary-General, for the purpose of verifying on the spot the implementation of resolution 353 (1974) and of reporting to the Council;

4. Considers it necessary, taking into account the relevant provisions of resolution 353 (1974), that representatives of the constitutional Government of the Republic of Cyprus participate in the Geneva negotiations;

5. Decides, in the absence of progress in the implementation of its resolution 353 (1974), to consider the question of further measures to be taken by the Council to ensure the implementation of the aforementioned resolution.
