Further to my previous letters concerning the Turkish violations of cease-fire, I have the honour to bring to your knowledge the following events, which took place after the signature of the Geneva agreement:

At 9.00 a.m. a Turkish Company was moving towards the guardposts of the National Guard in Nicosia along the green line.

At 10.25 a.m. Turkish troops opened fire against the guardpost of the National Guard in Nicosia, along the green line.

At 10.45 a.m. a Turkish infantry unit was moving from Aghios Pavlos Neck heading to the village of Karavas.

At 11.00 a.m. Turkish troops attacked the villages of Lapithos and Karavas. They also attacked the villages of Aghios Ermolaos and Skylloura.

At 11.30 a.m. Turkish troops were reported continuing their attack against Greek forces at the area of the villages of Lapithos and Karavas. Other Turkish forces attacked Greek units at the area between the village of Sisklipos and the village of Agriadaki.

I would be grateful, Your Excellency, if you could kindly have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.
