Guinea, Kenya, Sudan and Yugoslavia: draft resolution

The Security Council,

Having heard the statement of the Permanent Representative of Zambia to the United Nations,

Recalling its resolutions on the question of Southern Rhodesia, in particular, resolution 232 (1966), in which it was declared that the situation in Southern Rhodesia constituted a threat to international peace and security,

Recalling further resolutions 253 (1968) and 277 (1970) imposing mandatory sanctions against Southern Rhodesia, particularly their respective provisions requesting the international community to extend assistance to Zambia in view of such special economic problems as it may be confronted with arising from the carrying out of the decisions of the Security Council,

Taking into account the decision of the Government of Zambia to sever immediately all remaining trade and communication links with Southern Rhodesia in compliance with the decisions of the Security Council in strict observance of economic sanctions,

Recognizing that such a decision by the Government of Zambia will entail considerable special economic hardships,

1. Commends the Government of Zambia for its decision to sever all remaining economic and trade relations with Southern Rhodesia in compliance with the decisions of the Security Council;
2. Takes cognizance of the special economic hardships confronting Zambia as a result of its decision to carry out the decisions of the Security Council;
3. Decides to entrust the special mission, consisting of four members of the Security Council, referred to in paragraph 9 of resolution, assisted by a team of six United Nations experts, to assess the needs of Zambia in maintaining alternative systems of road, rail, air and sea communications for the normal flow of traffic;
4. Further requests the neighbouring States to afford the mission all co-operation in the discharge of its task;
5. Requests the mission to report to the Security Council not later than 1 March 1973.
