Statement of the official spokesman of the Iraqi Government

The Government of the Republic of Iraq declares its acceptance of Security Council resolution 348 (1974), adopted on 28 May 1974 through the agreement of all parties concerned and the members of the Security Council, and emphasizes its readiness to implement all its clauses with sincerity and goodwill in pursuance of a principled attitude on the part of the Republic of Iraq to abide by the findings of the Security Council on the question of Iraq's complaint against Iran.

Although the above resolution does not cover all the dimensions of the question, the Government of the Republic of Iraq, in expression of its goodwill and positive spirit and in confirmation of its oft-declared preparedness to solve all problems with our neighbour Iran through peaceful means, has accepted the resolution and supported it in conformity with its principled attitude in this respect.
