At its 1656th and 1657th meetings, held on 31 July and 1 August 1972, the Security Council resumed its consideration of the question, having included in its agenda the report by the Secretary-General on the implementation of Security Council resolution 309 (1972) concerning the question of Namibia (S/10738). In accordance with a request received from the President of the United Nations Council for Namibia requesting that the representatives of Guyana and Nigeria be invited to participate, on behalf of the Council for Namibia, in the Security Council's discussion, it was agreed without objection to extend an invitation to the representatives of the United Nations Council for Namibia in accordance with previous decisions of the Council.

At the 1657th meeting the representative of Argentina introduced a draft resolution (S/10750) sponsored by his delegation. Following oral amendments proposed by the representative of Somalia, the representative of Argentina agreed to modify the draft resolution. At the same meeting, the Security Council adopted the draft resolution, as modified, by 14 votes to none, with China not participating in the vote, as resolution 319 (1972). The operative paragraphs of the resolution read as follows:

"1. Notes with appreciation the efforts made by the Secretary-General in the implementation of resolution 309 (1972);

"2. Reaffirms the inalienable and imprescriptible right of the people of Namibia to self-determination and independence;

"3. Reaffirms also the national unity and the territorial integrity of Namibia;

"4. Invites the Secretary-General, in consultation and close co-operation with the Group of the Security Council established in accordance with resolution 309 (1972), to continue his contacts with all parties concerned, with a view to establishing the necessary conditions so as to enable the people of Namibia, freely and with strict regard to the principles of human equality, to exercise their right to self-determination and independence, in accordance with the Charter of the United Nations;

"5. Approves the proposal of the Secretary-General to proceed, after necessary consultations, with the appointment of a representative to assist him in the discharge of his mandate as set out in paragraph 4 above;

"6. Requests the Secretary-General to keep the Security Council informed as appropriate and in any case to report to it on the implementation of resolution 309 (1972) and of this resolution by 15 November 1972."
