Guinea, Somalia and Sudan: draft resolution

The Security Council,

Having considered the recent developments concerning the question of Southern Rhodesia,

Reaffirming its resolutions 216 (1965) of 12 November 1965, 217 (1965) of 20 November 1965, 221 (1966) of 9 April 1966, 232 (1966) of 16 December 1966, 253 (1968) of 29 May 1978, 277 (1970) of 18 March 1970 and 288 (1970) of 17 November 1970,

Gravely concerned that certain States have not complied with the provisions of resolution 253 (1968), contrary to their obligations under Article 25 of the Charter of the United Nations,

Taking into account the fourth report of the Committee established in pursuance of Security Council resolution 253 (1968) (S/10229) and its interim report of 3 December 1971 (S/10408),

Acting in accordance with previous decisions of the Security Council on Southern Rhodesia, taken under Chapter VII of the Charter,

1. Decides that the present sanctions against Southern Rhodesia shall remain fully in force until a solution enabling all the people of Southern Rhodesia to exercise freely and equally their right to self-determination is implemented;

2. Urges all States to implement fully all Security Council resolutions pertaining to Southern Rhodesia, in accordance with their obligations under Article 25 of the Charter, and deplores the attitude of those States which have persisted in giving moral, political and economic assistance to the illegal régime;

3. Declares that any legislation passed, or act taken, by a Member State with a view to permitting the importation from Southern Rhodesia of any commodity falling within the scope of the obligations imposed by resolution 253 (1968), including chrome ore, would weaken the effectiveness of sanctions and would be contrary to the obligations of Member States;

4. Calls upon all States not to pass or implement legislation or take any other act that would permit the importation from Southern Rhodesia of commodities falling within the scope of the obligations imposed by resolution 253 (1968), including chrome ore;

5. Draws the attention of all States to the need for increasing vigilance in implementing the provisions of resolution 253 (1968) and, accordingly, calls upon them to take more effective measures to ensure full implementation of the sanctions;

6. Requests the Committee established in pursuance of Security Council resolution 253 (1968) to intensify its efforts to promote the implementation of sanctions, taking into account its decisions on future work contained in section IX of its third report (S/9844);

7. Requests the Secretary-General to provide all appropriate assistance to the Committee in the discharge of its task.
