REPORT OF THE SECURITY COUNCIL COMMITTEE ON THE ADMISSION OF
NEW MEMBERS CONCERNING THE APPLICATIONS OF OMAN AND BAHRAIN
FOR MEMBERSHIP IN THE UNITED NATIONS

1. At the 157th meeting on 16 August 1971, the Security Council had before it the applications of Oman (S/10216) and Bahrain (S/10291) for admission to membership in the United Nations. The President of the Security Council referred the applications to the Committee for examination and report in accordance with rule 59 of the provisional rules of procedure.
2. At its 36th meeting, held on 16 August 1971, the Committee took up first the application of Oman. The Committee decided to defer its examination of this application and recommended without objection to the Security Council to have recourse later to the last paragraph of rule 60 of the provisional rules of procedure.
3. The Committee then proceeded to examine the application of Bahrain and unanimously decided to recommend to the Security Council that Bahrain be admitted to membership in the United Nations.
4. Accordingly, the Committee decided to recommend to the Security Council the adoption of the following draft resolution:

"The Security Council,

"Having examined the application of Bahrain for admission to the United Nations (S/10291),

"Recommends to the General Assembly that Bahrain be admitted to membership in the United Nations".
