Secretary-General

I have the honour to transmit herewith, for your information, the text of a document entitled "Clarification of the Democratic Kampuchea party on the international peace-keeping force to Kampuchea", issued on 21 October 1988. The Clarification pertains to the Party's proposal of 15 August 1988 for a comprehensive political settlement of the problem of Kampuchea.

I should be very grateful if you would have the Clarification circulated as an official document of the General Assembly, under agenda items 23, 72, 130 and 137, and of the Security Council.

CLARIFICATION
OF THE DEMOCRATIC KAMPUCHEA PARTY
ON THE INTERNATIONAL PEACE KEEPING FORCE TO KAMPUCHEA

1. In the 15 August 1988 proposal of the Democratic Kampuchea party for a comprehensive political settlement of the problem of Kampuchea, paragraph II. 4 reads as follows: (*)

"4- Measures to guarantee the agreement on the Kampuchean problem:

After an agreement on a comprehensive political settlement of the Kampuchean problem is reached, an International Conference will be convened with the participation of all concerned countries and those of the five Permanent Members of the United Nations Security Council as well as the United Nations Secretary-General in order to find out effective measures to guarantee the agreement and the independence, neutrality and territorial integrity of Kampuchea.

To reach these objectives, the International Conference could discuss a number of issues as follows:

- a. The guarantee of the agreement by the five Permanent Members of the United Nations Security Council;*
- b. The setting up of an international mechanism, be it a United Nations International Commission or another International Commission, or any other measure, which the four Kampuchean parties and all the countries attending the International Conference agree upon in order to prevent Democratic Kampuchea or any one Kampuchean party from dominating the others, and to prevent the Socialist Republic of Vietnam from committing again acts of aggression against Kampuchea."*

2. The Democratic Kampuchea party would like to clarify the meaning of "any other measure" as contained in the above "Paragraph II. 4".

(*) See UN document A/43/546, pages 6-7.

The Democratic Kampuchea party is of the view that in that "any other measure", there should also be a United Nations Peace Keeping Force".

To sum up, as measures to guarantee the agreement on the comprehensive political settlement of the Kampuchean problem and the independence, neutrality and territorial integrity of Kampuchea, there should be a United Nations International Commission or another International Commission or a United Nations Peace Keeping Force.

Democratic Kampuchea, 21 October 1988

KHIEU SAMPHAN
President of the Democratic Kampuchea party
