RESPONSIBILITY OF INTERNATIONAL ORGANIZATIONS

Titles and texts of the draft articles 1, 2 and 3 adopted by the Drafting Committee

Article 1

Scope of the present draft articles

1. The present draft articles apply to the international responsibility of an international organization for an act that is wrongful under international law.
2. The present draft articles also apply to the international responsibility of a State for the internationally wrongful act of an international organization.

Article 2

Use of terms

For the purposes of the present draft articles, the term “international organization” refers to an organization established by a treaty or other instrument governed by international law and possessing its own international legal personality. International organizations may include as members, in addition to States, other entities.

Article 3

General principles

1. Every internationally wrongful act of an international organization entails the international responsibility of the international organization.
2. There is an internationally wrongful act of an international organization when conduct consisting of an action or omission:
 - (a) Is attributable to the international organization under international law; and
 - (b) Constitutes a breach of an international obligation of that international organization.
