The role of women in society

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its profound conviction that all Governments, international organizations and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations should pay due attention in their activities to the importance of the role of women in society in all its interrelated aspects - as mothers, as participants in political, economic, social and cultural development and as participants in public life,

Recalling its resolutions 39/123 of 14 December 1984, 40/101 of 13 December 1985, 41/110 of 4 December 1986 and 42/64 of 30 November 1987,

Recommends that the Commission on the Status of Women, during the consideration at its next sessions of the priority themes under the heading "Equality", including "Equality in economic and social participation" at its thirty-third session, consider the provisions of the General Assembly resolutions on the role of women in society, with a view to formulating recommendations for appropriate action by concerned United Nations organs and bodies, Governments and intergovernmental and non-governmental organizations.
