Enclosure

Brunei Darussalam's Supplementary Report to the Counter-Terrorism Committee (CTC)

Aware of the constant need to be vigilant and comprehensive in our approach to counter terrorism, further legislative and administrative measures have been put in place since the initial report was submitted by Brunei Darussalam. Foremost, Brunei Darussalam has enacted the Anti-Terrorism (Financial and Other Measures) Order 2002 which came into effect on 14 June 2002 criminalising any form of financial assistance to terrorists by any persons. As an indication of how gravely Brunei Darussalam considers terrorist acts, the said Anti-Terrorism Order also prohibits any person in Brunei Darussalam and any Brunei national or company incorporated or registered in Brunei Darussalam from making false threats of terrorist acts. This offence carries a penalty of fine not exceeding B$100,000, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding five (5) years or both. An outline of this Order is given in subsequent paragraph.

Sub-paragraphs 1(a) and 1(b)

It is stated in the report that Section 42 of the Internal Security Act 1984 criminalises the supplying, inter alia, of money etc. to persons who intend or are about to act in a manner prejudicial to public safety or the maintenance of public order. Please provide an outline of Section 42 and of the other provisions of that Act which ensure compliance with the requirements of sub-paragraphs 1(a) and (b).

Answer:

1. Section 42 of the Internal Security Act 1984 provides that: -

“(1) any person who whether within or outside a security area demands, collects or receives any supplies from any other person in circumstances which raise a reasonable presumption that he intends, or is about, to act, or has recently acted, in a manner prejudicial to public security or the maintenance of public order, or that the supplies so demanded, collected or received are intended for the use of any person who intends or is about, so to act, or has recently so acted, or for the use of any terrorist, shall be guilty of an offence: Penalty, imprisonment for life.

“(2) Any person who whether within or outside a security area is found in possession of any supplies for which he cannot satisfactorily account in circumstances which raise a reasonable presumption that such supplies are intended for the use of any person who intends, or is about, to act, or has recently acted, in a manner prejudicial to public security or the maintenance of public order, or that such supplies are intended for the use of any terrorist, shall be guilty of an offence: Penalty, imprisonment for life."

2. Under section 2 of the Internal Security Act 1984, "supplies" includes "ammunition, explosives, firearms, money, food, drink, clothing, medicines, drugs or any other stores, instruments, commodities, articles or things whatsoever".

3. Section 2 of the Internal Security Act 1984 defines "terrorist" as any person who -

(a) by the use of any firearm, explosive or ammunition acts in a manner prejudicial to the public safety or to the maintenance of public order or incites to violence or counsels disobedience to the law or to any lawful order;

(b) carries or has in his possession or under his control any firearm, ammunition or explosive without lawful authority therefore; or

(c) demands, collects or receives any supplies for the use of any person who intends or is about to act, or has recently acted, in a manner prejudicial to public safety or the maintenance of public order.

4. "Security area", described in section 30 of the Internal Security Act 1984 is any area in Brunei Darussalam where public security is proclaimed to be seriously disturbed or threatened by reason of any action taken or threatened by any substantial body of persons, whether inside or outside Brunei Darussalam.

Please clarify whether the Internal Security Act prohibits the collection of funds inside the territory of Brunei Darussalam for terrorist acts committed either inside or outside Brunei Darussalam

Answer:

5. Section 42 of the Internal Security Act 1984 criminalizes "any person who whether within or outside a security area demands, collects or receives any supplies from any other person for the use of any terrorist" and shall be punishable by life imprisonment. Section 30 of the Act further clarifies that "a security area" is "any area in Brunei Darussalam". In this regard, the Internal Security Act only prohibits the collection of funds inside or outside of Brunei Darussalam for terrorist acts committed within the territory of Brunei Darussalam only. It does not provide for collection of funds for the purpose of terrorist acts outside the territory of Brunei Darussalam. [This is covered by section 3 of the Anti-Terrorism (Financial and Other Measures) Order 2002 on paragraph 10 of the report.]

Please provide a progress report on the consideration being given to Brunei Darussalam becoming a party to the Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism.

Answer:

6. Brunei Darussalam has deposited its Instrument of Accession on 4 December 2002 with the United Nations Secretariat, which entered into force for Brunei Darussalam on 3 January 2003 in accordance with article 26(2) of the said Convention.

Sub-paragraph 1(c)

Please outline the legal or other measures that are available to the authorities in Brunei Darussalam to freeze funds, financial assets and other economic resources on Brunei Darussalam that could be made available in support of terrorist acts committed either in Brunei Darussalam or outside the territory of Brunei Darussalam

Answer:

7. The Money Laundering Order 2000, for the purposes of sections 20 and 22 of the Emergency (Drug Trafficking) (Recovery of Proceeds) Order 1996 and sections 21 – 24 of the Criminal Conduct (Recovery of Proceeds) Order 2000, prevents the use of the financial system for money-laundering by establishing procedures and systems for identification, record-keeping and internal reporting.

8. Emergency (Drug Trafficking) (Recovery of Proceeds) Order 1996 provides for the recovery of the proceeds from drug trafficking. This includes confiscation orders, restraint orders on all realisable property, charging orders in respect of land and securities, and an authority for search.

9. The Criminal Conduct (Recovery of Proceeds) Order 2000 makes further provision for and applies to confiscation, restraint and charging orders made by the Court in relation to offences committed in Brunei Darussalam, money-laundering and other offences described in the Order. This Order establishes supplementary provisions, inter alia, with regards to powers of arrest, service of documents, authority for search and application for enforcement of external confiscation orders and proceedings.

10. Section 3 of the Anti-Terrorism (Financial and Other Measures) Order 2002 prohibits any person in Brunei Darussalam, any citizen of Brunei Darussalam and any company incorporated or registered under the Companies Act of Brunei Darussalam to provide or collect funds to any person by any means, directly or indirectly outside of the territory of Brunei Darussalam if the person knows or there are reasonable grounds for him to suspect that the funds will be used to commit any terrorist act or facilitate the commission of any terrorist act. "Funds" includes "cheques, bank deposits and other financial resources". "Terrorist acts" are defined in Section 2 of the Anti-Terrorism (Financial and Other Measures) Order 2002. Under section 12 of the said Order, the Minister of Finance may issue such directives to any financial institution or institutions "in order to discharge or facilitate the discharge of any obligation binding on Brunei Darussalam" by virtue of a decision of the United Nations Security Council with regard to the suppression of financing of terrorism. A failure or refusal to comply with the directives issued by the Ministry of Finance is an offence under this Order which carries a fine not exceeding B$20,000.

Are non-resident individuals and entities allowed to hold funds, financial assets and other economic resources in Brunei Darussalam? Are the existing measures relating to freezing of assets applicable to such assets?

Answer:

11. Non-resident individuals and entities are allowed to hold funds, financial assets and other economic resources in Brunei Darussalam. The existing measures relating to freezing of assets, such as the Anti-Terrorism (Financial and other Measures) Order 2002 and the Money Laundering Order 2000 are equally applicable to such assets.

- an act committed outside Brunei Darussalam by a national of Brunei Darussalam or by a person who is habitually a resident in Brunei Darussalam (whether that person is currently present in Brunei Darussalam or not);

Answer:

45. By Section 7(f) of the Criminal Procedure Code Brunei Darussalam has jurisdiction for offences committed outside the territory of Brunei Darussalam by a subject of His Majesty. "Subject of His Majesty" is defined under sections 4 and 5 of the Brunei Nationality Act 1962. 46. By section 7(a) of the Criminal Procedure Code, Brunei Darussalam has criminal jurisdiction for any offence committed wholly or partly within the territory of Brunei Darussalam. Sub-paragraph 2(f)

Please outline the current procedures for providing assistance in criminal investigations and judicial proceedings at the request of member states pending the enactment of the Criminal Justice (International Cooperation) Order.

Answer:

47. Brunei Darussalam has an extradition treaty with Singapore and Malaysia allowing for the apprehension, handing over and prosecution of offenders.

48. Requests for assistance from other Member States concerning criminal investigations and judicial proceedings are considered by the Attorney General's Chambers on a case-to-case basis consistent with our national laws. The Attorney General in his capacity as the Public Prosecutor has the general power under section 374 of the Criminal Procedure Code to direct and control any criminal prosecutions and proceedings under any written law. These powers may include directing the police to carry out certain criminal investigations such as the gathering of witness statements on behalf of foreign law enforcement agencies. Any request by foreign law enforcement agencies to assist them is forwarded to the Mutual Legal Assistance Secretariat in Criminal Matters in the Attorney General's Chambers through diplomatic channels.

What is the legal timeframe within which a request for judicial assistance in criminal investigations or criminal proceedings, including those relating to the financing of or support for terrorist acts, must be met and how long does it take in practice to implement such a request in Brunei Darussalam?

Answer:

49. Any request for assistance made to the Royal Brunei Police Force through our ASEANAPOL/INTERPOL department and to the Mutual Legal Assistance Secretariat in Criminal Matters, Attorney General's Chambers would be rendered as soon as that request is received. - enacting legislation, and making other necessary arrangements, to implement the instrument to which it has become a party

Answer:

57. The Convention on the Marking of Plastic Explosives for the Purpose of Detection as well as the Convention on the Physical Protection of Nuclear Material are still under review. Brunei Darussalam signed the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Maritime Navigation (SUA) and its Protocol for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Fixed Platforms located on the Continental Shelf on 3 February 1989. Brunei Darussalam is in the process of ratifying the SUA Convention and its protocol.

58. Brunei Darussalam deposited its Instrument of Accession to the International Convention for the Suppression of the Financing of Terrorism on 4 December 2002 and enacted the Anti-Terrorism (Financial Measures) Order 2002.

Have the offences set forth in the relevant international conventions and protocols been included as extraditable offences in bilateral treaties (if any) to which Brunei Darussalam is a party?

Answer:

59. Brunei Darussalam makes extradition conditional upon the existence of an extradition treaty with the requesting country. With the exception of Singapore and Malaysia under which a separate arrangement and legislation is applicable, the current Extradition Act 1983 adopts a listing method. If the offences set forth in the relevant international conventions related to counter-terrorism includes the acts described in the list, those offences will be covered such as kidnapping, extortion, piracy and will be extraditable.

60. Under section 10 of the Emergency (Hijacking and Protection of Aircraft) Order 2000, offences under this Order and attempts to commit such offences are deemed to be included in the list of crimes that are extraditable, which are described in the First Schedule to the Extradition Act 1983. Section 10 of the Order also states that where there is no extradition treaty in force between Brunei and another State Party to the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Seizure of Aircraft or the Convention for the Suppression of Unlawful Acts against the Safety of Civil Aviation, the Conventions themselves will be treated as if there was an extradition treaty between Brunei and that State Party. Such an extradition arrangement would only be applicable for the offences specified under the said two Conventions.

61. A comprehensive legislative review is being undertaken by the Attorney General's Chambers to all existing laws relating to transnational crime, including the existing Extradition Act as well as those relating to the rendering of mutual legal assistance in criminal matters.

Are claims of political motivation recognised as grounds for refusing extradition of alleged terrorists?

Answer:

63. The two Acts relating to extradition namely the Extradition Act 1983 and the Extradition (Malaysia and Singapore) Act 1999 are currently in force.
