LETTER DATED 29 JANUARY FROM THE PERMANENT REPRESENTATIVE OF GREECE ADDRESSED TO THE SECRETARY-GENERAL

I have the honour to refer to the letter of the Permanent Representative of Turkey addressed to Your Excellency on 26 January 1968 and reproduced in document S/8362, and upon instructions from my Government, I would like to state the following:

All those who contributed to the conclusion of the agreement reached in response to Your Excellency's appeal, are aware of the obligations deriving from it for the Greek side. These obligations have been fulfilled by Greece to the letter.

This is a fact which no interpretation given by the Turkish Permanent Representative can alter.

I would be grateful if you could have this letter circulated as a document of the Security Council.

Please accept, Sir, etc.

Permanent Representative of Greece
