Pakistan: amendment to article 67 bis

Article 67 bis: Mechanisms for recovery of assets through international cooperation in confiscation

New paragraph

It is proposed to add a new paragraph to read as follows:

“(...) A requesting State may apply directly to the courts or other appropriate authority of a requested State seeking enforcement of a decree or judgement obtained in legal proceedings in the requesting State and related to or arising out of the offences of corruption covered under this Convention. In such a case, the title in the property that is the subject of the decree or judgement shall be deemed to have been passed on to the requesting State.”
