BURUNDI, NEPAL, SIERRA LEONE, SYRIA AND ZAMBIA: JOINT DRAFT RESOLUTION

The Security Council,

Having considered the question of race conflict in South Africa resulting from the policies of apartheid of the Government of the Republic of South Africa as submitted by forty Member States,

Reiterating its condemnation of the evil and abhorrent policies of apartheid and the measures being taken by the Government of South Africa to enforce and extend those policies beyond its borders,

Recognizing the legitimacy of the struggle of the oppressed people of South Africa in pursuance of their human and political rights as set forth in the Charter of the United Nations and of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights,

Gravely concerned by the persistent refusal of the Government of South Africa to abandon its racist policies and to abide by the resolutions of the Security Council and of the General Assembly on this question and others relating to southern Africa,

Gravely concerned with the situation arising from violations of the arms embargo called for in its resolutions 181 (1963) of 7 August 1963, 182 (1963) of 4 December 1963 and 191 (1964) of 18 June 1964,

Convinced of the need to strengthen the arms embargo called for in the above resolutions,

Convinced further that the situation resulting from the continued application of the policies of apartheid and the constant build-up of the South African military and police forces made possible by the continued acquisition of arms, military vehicles and other equipment and of spare parts for military equipment from a number of Member States and by local manufacture of arms and ammunition under licences granted by some Member States constitutes a serious threat to international peace and security,

Recognizing that the extensive arms build-up of the military forces of South Africa poses a real threat to the security and sovereignty of independent African States opposed to the racial policies of the Government of South Africa, in particular the neighbouring States,

1. Reiterates its total opposition to the policies of apartheid of the Government of the Republic of South Africa;
2. Reaffirms its resolutions 181 (1963), 182 (1963) and 191 (1964);
3. Condemns the violations of the arms embargo called for in resolutions 181 (1963), 182 (1963) and 191 (1964);
4. Calls upon all States to strengthen the arms embargo
 - (a) by implementing fully the arms embargo against South Africa unconditionally and without reservations whatsoever;
 - (b) by withholding supply of all vehicles and equipment for use of the armed forces and paramilitary organizations of South Africa;
 - (c) by ceasing supply of spare parts for all vehicles and military equipment used by the armed forces and paramilitary organizations of South Africa;
 - (d) by revoking all licences and military patents granted to the South African Government or to South African companies for the manufacture of arms and ammunition, aircraft and naval craft or other military vehicles and by refraining from further granting such licences and patents;
 - (e) by prohibiting investment in or technical assistance for the manufacture of arms and ammunition, aircraft, naval craft, or other military vehicles;
 - (f) by ceasing provision of military training for members of the South African armed forces and all other forms of military co-operation with South Africa;
 - (g) by undertaking the necessary legislative or executive action as appropriate to enforce the above measures;
5. Requests the Secretary-General to follow closely the implementation of the present resolution and report to the Security Council from time to time; and
6. Calls upon all States to observe strictly the arms embargo against South Africa and to assist effectively in the implementation of this resolution.
